Scott Foresman Science, 2008 Scott Foresman Reading, 2004 California in a Time of Excellence James Andrew LaSpina, 2009-02-26 California in a Time of Excellence follows the Golden State s efforts to reform its public school system from 1983 to the present Beginning with progressive curriculum reform initiatives that were launched even before the National Commission on Excellence in Education NCEE issued A Nation at Risk in 1983 James Andrew LaSpina traces these reform efforts through recurring culture wars major clashes of personality and a conflict between the state s tradition of progressive educational policy and a culture of conservatism that colored much of the so called Left Coast s history since the sixties While the battles over curriculum reform in California reflect those at the national level the political world surrounding this conflict reveals the enormous significance of the conflict and its implications for our national future

Reading Across International Boundaries Roger Openshaw, Janet Soler, 2007-06-01 Reading Across International Boundaries edited by Roger Openshaw and Janet Soler clearly demonstrates these broader characteristics of debates about the teaching of reading It sets the educational issues firmly in the context of the social cultural and political dynamics that inform and animate them and give them their meaning It does so by setting out to understand their historical and comparative dimensions Establishing the historical context highlights the origins and also the longevity of the problems and conflicts that are now widely familiar The comparative approach also gives purchase on the wide range of approaches taken to these issues in nations around the world More than this however this collection takes us into the realm of international influences It underlines how debates in this area are not simply national but are international and global in their scale Moreover this is the case not only in relation to the broad fabric of policy debate but also in the everyday struggles of pupils parents and teachers in schools classrooms and homes Such an agenda is unsettling and provocative It has the potential to challenge received opinion to hustle preconceptions It may also propose alternative visions for the improvement of teaching in this area that might be taken up and taken seriously in different localities or even more broadly Most of all it enables us to enrich and broaden our understanding of the learning and the teaching of reading at a time when awareness and vision are sorely needed This collection of articles by leading scholars based in several different countries will be a significant contribution to the research field but also a major resource when put to good use by policy makers and practitioners as it should surely be The Science Teacher ,1998 Some issues are accompanied by a CD ROM on a selected topic Midland Schools ,1964 In Arctic Waters Laura Crawford,2007-02-10 In the style of The House That Jack Built young readers can follow polar bears walruses seals narwhals and beluga whales as they chase each other in the water around an iceberg when suddenly an Inuit hunter appears The School Executive ,1952 Research in Education ,1971 Minnesota Journal of Education ,1952 Children's Books in Print, 2007 ,2006 Grade Teacher ,1970
