The Kingdom of MacBrayne N. S. Robins, Donald E. Meek, 2006 Today the shipowner David MacBrayne 1817-1907 is just as well known as Samuel Cunard Red funnelled ships which bear his name continue to operate in the West Highlands a century after his death The Kingdom of MacBrayne tells the story of David MacBrayne his ships and his company his predecessors rivals and successors It explores the world of the early steamships their successes and failures as well as their contribution to the ever changing social fabric of the Highlands and Islands Emigrants tourists ordinary travellers and crew members from engineers to pursers speak of the ships and their impact on their world The Kingdom of MacBrayne is lavishly illustrated with drawings paintings and photographs in black and white and colour most of them shown here for the first time Featuring the work of artists and model makers as well as advertisements and brochures it examines by word and image the whole MacBrayne phenomenon from the iconic sword bearing Highlander on ships figureheads to Katie Morag in Struay
