BOOK JACKET The Modern Scot Tom Normand,2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2000 An investigation of Scottish art between 1928 and 1955 to bring into focus the multifaceted project that was Scottish modernism At the core of this work lies the contention that Scottish modernism was underpinned by a desire to express a national consciousness It was this ambition which became the defining feature of radical Scottish art setting the parameters of its relationship with the idea of a coherent and international modern movement With the foundation of the National Party of Scotland in 1928 Scottish intellectuals began to consider the nature of national identity and the characteristics of a national art The Scottish Renaissance Movement under the voluble leadership of Hugh MacDiarmid set out to articulate these interests developing a vernacular poetry and literature For Scottish artists the way forward was harder to identify as they fought to reconcile the demands for a Scottish national art with the stylistic revolution of international modernism Tom Normand examines the competing claims of nationalism and modernism as they affected Scottish art This in depth analysis of a dynamic episode in Scottish visual culture looks at the work of among others William Johnstone William McCance and John Duncan Fergusson

Celtic Literatures in the Twentieth Century Сборник статей, 2015-09-09 The Centre for Irish and Celtic Studies at the University of Ulster hosted at Coleraine between the 24th and 26th August 2000 a very successful and informative conference on Celtic Literatures in the Twentieth Century The lectures and the discussions were of a high standard and it was the intention of the organisers to edit and publish the proceedings as soon as possible thereafter Unfortunately due to difficulties in assembling some of the papers this was not possible and consequently publication has been delayed much longer than was originally anticipated Despite this delay we feel that those papers which we have received merit publication at this time not only because of their intrinsic merits but also because they represent the views of the authors on their respective topics at the turn of the twenty first century and will hopefully be of value to those interested in the state of the modern Celtic literatures
