The Screen Education Reader Manuel Alvarado,1993 Screen Education and its sister journal Screen examined cinema and television as signifying systems paying particularly close attention to the ways in which socially constructed ideologies of sex race and class achieved expression on the screen The twenty articles found in the screen education reader are by writers in the forefront including Stuart Hall Hazel Carby Umberto Eco James Donald Pam Cook and John Tulloch Mass Media James B. Martin,2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes The Dynasty Years Jostein Gripsrud,2003-09-02 The Dynasty Years documents and analyses in detail the Dynasty phenomenon the hotly debated success of the Hollywood made Rolls Royce of a primetime soap which heralded a profound transformation of European television From the operatic camp of Krystle and Alexis fight in the lilypond or the Moldavian wedding massacre to the unprecedented gay sub plot Dynasty represented in the words of co producer Esther Shapiro the ultimate dollhouse fantasy for middle aged women Using evidence from audience survey results newspaper and magazine clippings and letters to broadcasters and drawing on semiotics psychoanalysis feminism and critical social theories Jostein Gripsrud examines every aspect of Dynasty s production reception and context The result is a groundbreaking critical study Jostein Gripsrud offers a theoretical but empirically grounded critique of many central positions in media studies including notions of audience resistance and the sovereign audience and its freedom in meaning making arguing against what he perceives as the uncritical celebrations of the soap opera genre in much contemporary media criticism The SAGE Handbook of Television Studies Manuel Alvarado,Milly Buonanno,Herman Gray,Toby Miller,2014-12-09 Genuinely transnational in content as sensitive to the importance of production as consumption covering the full range of approaches from political economy to textual analysis and written by a star studded cast of contributors Emeritus Professor Graeme Turner University of Queensland Finally we have before us a first rate and wide ranging volume that reframes television studies afresh boldly synthesising debates in the humanities cultural studies and social sciences This volume should be in every library and media scholar s bookshelf Professor Ravi Sundaram Centre for the Study of Developing Societies Bringing together a truly international spread of contributors from across the UK US South America Mexico and Australia this Handbook charts the field of television studies from issues of ownership and regulation through to reception and consumption Separate chapters are dedicated to examining the roles of journalists writers cinematographers producers and manufacturers in the production process whilst others explore different formats including sport novella and soap opera news and current affairs music and reality TV The final section analyses the pivotal role played by audiences in the contexts of gender race and class and spans a range of topics from effects studies to audience consumption The SAGE Handbook of Television Studies is an essential reference work for all advanced undergraduates graduate students and academics across broadcasting mass communication and media studies The Educational Technology Handbook Steven Hackbarth,1996 Grade level 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 k p e i s t

Beautiful TV Greg M. Smith,2007-09-01 Offers a different approach to analyzing television series Starting from the premise that much of television is drop dead gorgeous and that TV should be studied for its formal qualities as well as its social impact this work analyzes Ally McBeal in terms of its aesthetic principles and narrative construction Film

Dialogue Jeff Jaeckle,2013-06-25 Film Dialogue is the first anthology in film studies devoted to the topic of language in cinema bringing together leading and emerging scholars to discuss the aesthetic narrative and ideological dimensions of film speech that have largely gone unappreciated and unheard Consisting of thirteen essays divided into three sections genre auteur theory and cultural representation Film Dialogue revisits and reconfigures several of the most established topics in film studies in an effort to persuade readers that spectators are more accurately described as audiences that the gaze has its equal in eavesdropping and that images are best understood and appreciated through their interactions with words Including an introduction that outlines a methodology of film dialogue study and adopting an accessible prose style throughout Film Dialogue is a welcome addition to ongoing debates about the place value and purpose of language in cinema Visible Fictions John Ellis,2002-01-04 This revised edition of a standard textbook combines an examination of the cinema and television industries with a detailed analysis of their aesthetic and semiotic characteristics John Ellis draws on his experience as an independent television producer to provide a comprehensive and challenging overview of the place of film television and video in our daily lives and their future prospects in a changing media landscape Be Seeing You-- Chris Gregory,1997 Drawing together aspects of media studies cultural studies film studies structuralism mythology literary criticism feminism and social commentary this book examines the position of The Prisoner as a television classic Gregory argues that its allegorical depiction of a totalitarian world where technology enables the powers that be to control every aspect of its citizens lives becomes more and more relevant as the years go by Decodings of all of the series episodes are detailed explaining how the series broke with the usual conventions of a TV series Media Texts, Authors and Readers David Graddol,Oliver Boyd-Barrett,1994 A collection of 18 articles most previously published illustrating some recent applications of linguistics and literary criticism to the electronic mass media They cover texts and linguistic theory the structure of texts the problem of authorship and the role of the reader viewer One of four readers for use in an Open University course Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Fat on Film Barbara Plotz,2020-02-20 Over the last two decades fatness has become the focus of ubiquitous negative rhetoric in the USA and beyond presented under the cover of the medicalized war against the obesity epidemic In Fat on Film Barbara Plotz provides a critical analysis of the cinematic representation of fatness during this timeframe specifically in contemporary Hollywood cinema with an emphasis on the intersection of gender race and fatness The analysis is based on around 50 films released since 2000 and includes examples such as Transformers 2007 Precious 2009 Kung Fu Panda 2008 Paul Blart 2009 and Pitch Perfect 2012 Plotz maps the common cinematic tropes of fatness and also shows how commonplace notions of fatness that are part of the current obesity epidemic discourse are reflected in these tropes In this original study Plotz brings critical attention to the politics of fat representation a topic that has so far received little attention within film and cinema studies

Writing for the Medium Thomas Elsaesser, Jan Simons, Lucette Bronk, 1994 This collection of essays by well known writers on the subject of writing for television is divided into three sections with the first one devoted to the debates on quality television The second one focuses on literature and television The final section examines Science on television with series editors from Britain and Germany giving first hand accounts of the scope for serious science reporting on television

Media/Theory Shaun Moores, 2007-05-07 From an established author with a growing international profile in media studies Media Theory is an accessible yet challenging guide to ways of thinking about media and communications in modern life Shaun Moores draws on ideas from a range of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences and expertly connects the analysis of media and communications with key themes in contemporary social theory Examining core issues of time and space Moores also examines matters of interactions signification and identity and argues that media studies is bound up in the wider processes of the modern world and not just about studying the media This book makes a distinctive contribution towards rethinking the shape and direction of media studies today and for students at advanced undergraduate or postgraduate level
