Screen Interiors Pat Kirkham, Sarah A. Lichtman, 2021-03-11 Covering everything from Hollywood films to Soviet cinema London's queer spaces to spaceships horror architecture and action scenes Screen Interiors presents an array of innovative perspectives on film design Essays address questions related to interiors and objects in film and television from the early 1900s up until the present day Authors explore how interior film design can facilitate action and amplify tensions how rooms are employed as structural devices and how designed spaces can contribute to the construction of identities Case studies look at disjunctions between interior and exterior design and the inter relationship of production design and narrative With a lens on class sexuality and identity across a range of films including Twilight of a Woman's Soul 1913 The Servant 1963 Caravaggio 1986 and Passengers 2016 and illustrated with film stills throughout Screen Interiors showcases an array of methodological approaches for the study of film and design history

From the Corner of Hollywood and diVine Cori Linder, Lara Scott, 2013-11-03 When most people arrive in Southern California they want to travel directly to Hollywood to look for the stars the celebrity kind and either walk around town or stroll the sidewalks of the Hollywood Walk of Fame But after that the question is usually What else is there to see To that we reply It depends on who you want to be today A glamorous Starlet A polished Heiress A trendy Hipster A devoted Hot Mama An ambitious Working Girl All of the above Written by popular radio host Lara Scott and lifestyle writer Cori Linder From the Corner of Hollywood and diVine will guide you through five different fabulously fun days all designed to let you experience the lifestyle of each of these iconic personality types You will visit Old Hollywood inspired places in Southern California where these icons from back in the day might have hung out or in many cases actually did from a movie studio to a star studded cemetery to an ocean liner

Music and Cinema James Buhler, Caryl Flinn, David Neumeyer, 2000-11 A wide ranging look at the role of music in film

Popular Front Paris and the Poetics of Culture Dudley Andrew, Steven Ungar, 2005 The authors highlight the new symbolic forces put in play by technologies of the illustrated press and the sound film technologies that converged with efforts among writers artists and other intellectuals to respond to the crises of the decade

Production Design & the Cinematic Home Jane Barnwell, 2022-05-10 This book uses in depth case studies to explore the significance of the design of the home on screen The chapters draw widely upon the production designer's professional perspective and particular creative point of view The case studies employ a methodology Barnwell has pioneered for the analysis of production design called Visual Concept Analysis which can be used as a key to decode the design of any given film Through the nurturing warmth of the Browns home in Paddington the ambiguous boundaries of secret service agent homes in Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy and the singleton space occupied by Bridget Jones Barnwell demonstrates that the domestic interior consistently plays a key role Whether used as a transition space an ideal a catalyst for change or a place to return to these case studies examine the pivotal nature of the home in storytelling and the production designers significance in its creation The book benefits from interviews with production designers and artwork that provides insight on the creative process     Arts & Decoration ,1927

It Looks At You Wheeler W. Dixon,1995-01-01 This is a study of the returned gaze from the cinema screen demonstrating that the films that we watch watch us guide us control our gaze and enforce societal codes     Gloria Swanson Tricia Welsch,2013-08-21 Gloria Swanson Ready for Her Close Up shows how a talented self confident actress negotiated a creative path through seven decades of celebrity It also illuminates a little known chapter in American media history how the powerful women of early Hollywood transformed their remarkable careers after their stars dimmed This book brings Swanson 1899 1983 back into the spotlight revealing her as a complex creative entrepreneurial and thoroughly modern woman Swanson cavorted in slapstick short films with Charlie Chaplin and Mack Sennett in the 1910s The popularity of her films with Cecil B DeMille helped create the star system A glamour icon Swanson became the most talked about star in Hollywood earning three Academy Award nominations receiving 10 000 fan letters every week and living up to a reputation as Queen of Hollywood She bought mansions and penthouses dressed in fur and feathers and flitted through Paris London and New York engaging in passionate love affairs that made headlines and caused scandals Frustrated with the studio system Swanson turned down a million dollar a year contract After a wild ride making unforgettable movies with some of Hollywood s most colorful characters including her lover Joseph Kennedy and maverick director Erich von Stroheim she was a million dollars in debt Without hesitation she went looking for her next challenge beginning her long second act Swanson became a talented businesswoman who patented inventions and won fashion awards for her clothing designs a natural foods activist decades before it was fashionable an exhibited sculptor and a designer employed by the United Nations All the while she continued to act in films theater and television at home and abroad Though she had one of Hollywood s most famous exit lines All right Mr DeMille I m ready for my close up the real Gloria Swanson never looked back     Beginning Postmodernism Tim Woods,1999-08-20 Postmodernism has become the buzzword of contemporary society Yet it remains baffling in its variety of definitions contexts and associations Beginning Postmodernism aims to offer clear accessible and step by step introductions to postmodernism across a wide range of subjects It encourages readers to explore how the debates about postmodernism have emerged from basic philosophical and cultural ideas With its emphasis firmly on postmodernism in practice the book contains exercises and questions designed to help readers understand and reflect upon a variety of positions in the following areas of contemporary culture philosophy and cultural theory architecture and concepts of space visual art sculpture and the design arts popular culture and music film video and television culture and the social sciences

An Essay on the Christmas Decoration of Churches ... Illustrated. Reprinted, with corrections and additions, from the Clerical Journal Edward Lewes CUTTS, 1868 Cinematic Style Jess Berry, 2022-01-27 From cinema's silent beginnings fashion and interior design have been vital to character development and narrative structure Despite spectacular technological advancements on screen stunning silhouettes and striking spaces still have the ability to dazzle to dramatic effect This book is the first to consider the significant interplay between fashion and interiors and their combined contribution to cinematic style from early film to the digital age With examples from Frank Lloyd Wright inspired architecture in Hitchcock's North by Northwest to Coco Chanel's costumes for Gloria Swanson and a Great Gatsby film set turned Ralph Lauren flagship Cinematic Style describes the reciprocal relationship between these cultural forms Exposing the bleeding lines between fashion and interiors in cinematic and real life contexts Berry presents case studies of cinematic styles adopted as brand identities and design movements promoted through filmic fantasy Shedding light on consumer culture social history and gender politics as well as on fashion film and interior design theory Cinematic Style considers the leading roles domestic spaces quaint cafes little black dresses and sharp suits have played in 20th and 21st century film

Twentieth-Century Pattern Design Lesley Jackson, 2007-02-08 Twentieth Century Pattern Design combines photographs including many newly published images with soundly researched text creating an essential resource for enthusiasts and historians of modern design The book also serves as a creative sourcebook for students and designers inspiring new flights of fancy in pattern design Jacket Lovers of Cinema Jan-Christopher Horak, 1995 Marshaling his broad cinematic and cultural knowledge editor Jan Christopher Horak has compiled in Lovers of Cinema a groundbreaking group of articles on this neglected film period With one exception all are original to this volume and many are the first to treat comprehensively such early filmmakers as Mary Ellen Bute Theodore Huff and Douglass Crockwell Also included in the book is a listing of all American avant garde films produced in the years before World War II as well as a bibliography of the most relevant criticism literature and news accounts

The Fountainheads Donald Leslie Johnson, 2005-01-01 Speculation abounds about the relationship between Frank Lloyd Wright and Ayn Rand Was Wright the inspiration for Howard Roark the architect hero of Rand's The Fountainhead What can be made of their collaboration on the book's failed 1944 movie adaptation and what can be gleaned from the 1949 Hollywood production of The Fountainhead Where does the FBI Wright was dubbed a communist sympathizer and Rand was called before the House Un American Activities Committee fit into the story Art architecture philosophy film and politics come together in this exploration which relies on the writings of Wright and Rand FBI files visual evidence and more to cement their connection Chapters are devoted to Wright and Rand the two together their parts in both the failed production of The Fountainhead and the successful one and the effect FBI harassment had on the movie and on their lives Subsequent chapters discuss Wright's place as a Hollywood architect and offer telling set designs and architectural images from the 1949 production of The Fountainhead Several appendices supplement the illustrated text and there is a filmography of movies mentioned in the book A bibliography and index are also included

Inventing Times Square William R. Taylor, 1996-04 A unique volume Inventing Times Square approaches the subject of twentieth century American city culture through a multidimensional examination of one quintessential urban space Times Square Ranging in time from 1905 when the crossroad was given its present name through to the current plans for redevelopment the authors examine Times Square as economic hub real estate bonanza entertainment center advertising medium architectural experiment and erotic netherworld Though the volume centers on Times Square the essays venture much further into urban history and American social history revealing in the process how Times Square reflected even epitomized America as it became an urban consumer culture The Language of New Media Design Radan Martinec, Theo van Leeuwen, 2020-10-28 The Language of New Media Design is an innovative new textbook presenting methods on the design and analysis of a variety of non linear texts from websites to CD Roms Integrating theory and practice the book explores a range of models for analyzing and constructing multimedia products For each model the authors outline the theoretical background and demonstrate usage from students coursework commonly available websites and other multimedia products Assuming no prior knowledge the book adopts an accessible approach to the subject which has been trialled and tested on MA students at the London College of Communication Written by experienced authors this textbook will be an invaluable resource for students and teachers of new media design information technology linguistics and semiotics

Dancing in the Dark: A Cultural History of the Great Depression Morris Dickstein, 2010-09-06 From Agee to Astaire Steinbeck to Ellington the creative energies of the Depression against a backdrop of poverty and economic disaster In this timely and long awaited cultural history of the 1930s Morris Dickstein whom Norman Mailer called one of our best and most distinguished critics of American literature explores the anxiety and hope the despair and surprising optimism of distressed Americans at a time of dire economic dislocation Bringing together a staggering range of materials from epic Dust Bowl migrations and sharecropper photographs to zany screwball comedies wildly popular swing bands and streamlined Deco designs this eloquent work highlights the pivotal role of culture and government intervention in hard times Exploding the myth that Depression culture was merely escapist it concentrates instead on the dynamic energy and insight the arts could provide and the enormous lift they gave to the nation's morale Dancing in the Dark shows how our worst economic crisis as it eroded American individualism and punctured the American dream produced some of the greatest writing photography and
