Southern Africa Bjørn Møller, Gavin Cawthra, 2019-01-15 Published in 1997 the work explores the reorientation of security policies and the accompanying restructuring of the armed forces going on in Southern Africa under entirely new circumstances Democracy has come to South Africa the civil wars in Angola and Mozambique have ended and the region is establishing a regional framework for cooperation While covering the entire region a special focus is placed on South Africa which is predestined to play a leading role but which is struggling with the legacy of the apartheid regime and its repeated aggressions against neighbouring states A defensive restructuring of the South African of the South African military is an element in the building of mutual trust The implications of such defensive restructuring to a non offensive defence are described in detail In addition to the analytical contribution the work also contains central documents and a bibliography

Chinese Aid and African Development D. Bräutigam, 1998-06-21 Since 1957 more than 45 African countries have received aid from China yet until recently little has been known about the effectiveness or impact of this assistance Br utigam provides the first authoritative account of China s experience as an aid donor in rural Africa In a detailed and highly readable analysis the author draws on anthropology economics organization theory and political science to explain how China s domestic agenda shaped the design of its aid and how domestic politics in African countries influenced its outcome Comparative Constitutionalism and Good Governance in the Commonwealth John Hatchard,Muna Ndulo,Peter Slinn,2004-07-08 The central role that good effective and capable governance plays in the economic and social development of a country is now widely recognised Using the Commonwealth countries of eastern and southern Africa this book analyses some of the key constitutional issues in the process of developing strengthening and consolidating the capacity of states to ensure the good governance of their peoples Utilising comparative material the book seeks to draw lessons both positive and negative about the problems of constitutionalism in the region and in doing so critically addresses the legal issues involved in seeking to make constitutions work in practice Globalising the Regional, Regionalising the Global: Volume 35, Review of International Studies Rick Fawn,2009-04-30 A collection of leading international scholars examine the concept of regions from a range of perspectives and assess leading contemporary examples The Elusive Promise of NGOs in Africa S. Dicklitch,1998-07-13 Dicklitch challenges the dominant discourse of neo liberalism which places NGOs and civil society at the forefront of democratization and development in Africa Based on nine months of field research in Uganda the study draws on evidence from the successfully liberalizing country and shows how NGO potential for democratization and development has been subverted by state directives structural and historical conditions as well as the internal limitations of NGOs Crises of Governance in Asia and Africa Sandra J. MacLean,Fahimul Quadir,2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001 Investigating the relations between ethnicity and governance in Asia and Africa and going well beyond traditional and orthodox treatments this volume is not only a stimulating text but also an invaluable tool for original and innovative research Racism and Public Policy Y. Bangura,R. Stavenhagen,2005-04-05 In a time when racism is on the rise as a source of conflict and social justice has been increasingly demanded by the civic society this collection stands as a timely reminder that to ignore the racial factor in the globalization forces is as mistaken as eliminating class analysis The essays published here supplement the literature of comparative race relations from the standpoint of the theory of institutional racism and its effect on public policies such as immigration citizenship security and policing The United Nations in Southeast Asia and the South Pacific Roderic Alley,2016-07-27 This study of the United Nations in Southeast Asia and the South Pacific evaluates the organization s role and performance in Cambodia and over refugees regarding human rights development environment and the needs of women within regional cooperation and as an instrument of state policy These cases illustrate how multilateral conduct through the United nations provides a barometer indicating the intensity with which policy initiatives and values are sustained by relevant governmental interests alike In the regional settings considered conduct towards and within the UN has amplified unresolved value differences regarding relations with major powers sustainability and national identity Securing Sierra Leone, 1997-2013 Peter Albrecht,Paul Jackson,2015-06-19 Between 1991 and 2002 Sierra Leone was wracked by a devastating civil war and the complete collapse of state institutions. Since then however the UK's contribution to post war reconstruction has been widely held up as an example of successful stabilisation and state building particularly of the country's security and justice institutions. Securing Sierra Leone 1997-2013 examines how the process of state building through security sector reform developed in Sierra Leone and the impact of this experience on international conceptualisations of such reform as well as on international interventions more broadly. The study is the most detailed of its kind based on a comprehensive analysis of UK engagement in Sierra Leone between 1997 and 2013 including a host of first hand accounts from key local and international actors. This monograph shows why the UK intervention in Sierra Leone has been a relative success. However it also questions the sustainability of state building efforts that are driven by concepts of the liberal state. In Sierra Leone critical challenges remain not least in the combination of a particular vision of what a state should look like and the unrealistic expectations of progress on the part of the international community.
