Sweetness and Strength Lene Østermark-Johansen, 2019-01-15 First published in 1998 this volume explores the reinvention of Michelangelo in the Victorian era At the opening of the nineteenth century Michelangelo s reputation rested on the evidence of contemporary adulation recorded by Vasari and Condivi Travel photography the shift of his drawings into public collections and in particular the publication of his poems in their original form transformed this situation The complexity of his work commanded new attention and several biographies were published As public curiosity and knowledge of the artist increased so various groups began to ally themselves to aspects of Michelangelo s persona His Renaissance reputation as a towering genius a man of great spiritual courage who had journeyed through and for his art to the depths of despair was important to the Pre Raphaelites and other artists His love for his own Dark Lady Vittoria Colonna aroused excited speculation among High Church advocates who celebrated his friendship with the deeply religious woman poet and the emerging awareness that some half of his love poetry was dedicated to a younger man Tommaso de Cavalieri was of intense interest to the aestheticists among them Oscar Wilde Walter Pater and J A Symonds who sought heroic figures from societies where masculinity was less rigorously defined In this original and beautifully illustrated study Lene stermark Johansen shows how the critical discussion of the artist s genius and work became irretrievably bound up in contemporary debates about art religion and gender and how the Romantic view of art and criticism as self expression turned the focus from the work of art to the artist himself such that the two could never again be viewed in isolation

Reconsidering the Emergence of the Gay Novel in English and German James P. Wilper, 2016-02-15 In Reconsidering the Emergence of the Gay Novel in English and German James P Wilper examines a key moment in the development of the modern gay novel by analyzing four novels by German British and American writers Wilper studies how the texts are influenced by and respond and react to four schools of thought regarding male homosexuality in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The first is legal codes criminalizing sex acts between men and the religious doctrine that informs them The second is the ancient Greek erotic philosophy in which a revival of interest took place in the late nineteenth century The third is sexual science or sexology which offered various medical and psychological explanations for same sex desire and was employed variously to defend as well as to attempt to cure this perversion And fourth in the wake of the scandal caused by his trials and conviction for gross indecency Oscar Wilde became associated with a homosexual stereotype based on unmanly behavior Wilper analyzes the four novels Thomas Mann's Death in Venice E M Forster's Maurice Edward Prime Stevenson's Imre A Memorandum and John Henry Mackay's The Hustler in relation to these schools of thought and focuses on the exchange and cross cultural influence between linguistic and cultural contexts on the subject of love and desire between men
