Seduction And Other Stories:

The Seduction and Other Stories Joyce Carol Oates, 1974 Short Story Index , 1999 Conversations with Joyce

Carol Oates Joyce Carol Oates, 1989 These twenty five interviews with Joyce Carol Oates from early in her career to the present are the first such collection to be published In these conversations from sources as diverse as major news magazines and small scholarly journals Oates candidly talks about her work her concepts of literature her methods of writing and many other topics Throughout this anthology Oates discusses how her writing paints a modern panorama of American life Oates described her vast canvas to an interviewer I could not take the time to write about a group of people who did not represent in their various struggles fantasies unusual experiences hopes etc our society in miniature She also comments upon her responsibility as an artist to bear witness to certain aspects of society In this light she responds to criticisms that violence seems to dominate her work by noting that one simply cannot know strengths unless suffering misfortune and violence are explored quite frankly by the writer In addition to discussing her works from her first book By the North Gate 1963 to her most popular novel You Must Remember This 1987 this prolific writer also answers questions about her writing habits These interviews spanning nineteen years reveal a vivid portrait of Joyce Carol Oates writing as the conscience of society as the creator of memorable prose and poetry and as the artist deeply committed to a unique vision American Women

Writing Fiction Mickey Pearlman, 2014-10-17 American literature is no longer the refuge of the solitary hero Like the society it mirrors it is now a far richer many faceted explication of a complicated and diverse society racially culturally and ethnically interwoven and at the same time fractured and fractious Ten women writing fiction in America today Toni Cade Bambara Joan Didion Louise Erdrich Gail Godwin Mary Gordon Alison Lurie Joyce Carol Oates Jayne Anne Phillips Susan Fromberg Schaeffer and Mary Lee Settle represent that geographic ethnic and racial diversity that is distinctively American Their differing perspectives on literature and the American experience have produced Erdrich's stolid North Dakota plainswomen Didion's sun baked dreamers and screamers the urban ethnics Irish Jewish and black of Gordon Schaeffer and Bambara Oates's small town often violent neurotics Lurie's intellectual sophisticates and the southern survivors and victims male and female of Phillips Settle and Godwin The ten original essays in this collection focus on the traditional themes of identity memory family and enclosure that pervade the fiction of these writers The fictional women who emerge here as these critics show are often caught in the interwoven strands of memory perceive literal and emotional space as entrapping find identity elusive and frustrating and experience the interweaving of silence solitude and family in complex patterns Each essay in this collection is followed by bibliographies of works by and about the writer in question that will be invaluable resources for scholars and general readers alike Here is a readable critical discussion of ten important contemporary novelists who have broadened the pages of American literature to reflect more clearly the people we are The Columbia Companion to the Twentieth-Century American Short Story Blanche H.
