The Subject in Art Catherine M. Soussloff, 2006-10-04 Argues that the modern subject did not emerge from psychoanalysis or existential philosophy but rather within early twentieth century Viennese portraiture

The Ethics of Seeing Jennifer Evans, Paul Betts, Stefan-Ludwig Hoffmann, 2018-01-09 Throughout Germany s tumultuous twentieth century photography was an indispensable form of documentation Whether acting as artists witnesses or reformers both professional and amateur photographers chronicled social worlds through successive periods of radical upheaval The Ethics of Seeing brings together an international group of scholars to explore the complex relationship between the visual and the historic in German history Emphasizing the transformation of the visual arena and the ways in which ordinary people made sense of world events these revealing case studies illustrate photography s multilayered role as a new form of representation a means to subjective experience and a fresh mode of narrating the past

Atmospheres of Projection Giuliana Bruno, 2022-10-20 Bringing together cultural history visual studies and media archaeology Bruno considers the interrelations of projection atmosphere and environment Projection has long been transforming space from shadow plays to camera obscuras and magic lantern shows Our fascination with projection is alive on the walls of museums and galleries and woven into our daily lives Giuliana Bruno explores the histories of projection and atmosphere in visual culture and their continued importance to contemporary artists who are reinventing the projective imagination with atmospheric thinking and the use of elemental media To explain our fascination with projection and atmosphere Bruno traverses psychoanalysis environmental philosophy architecture the history of science visual art and moving image culture to see how projective mechanisms and their environments have developed over time She reveals how atmosphere is formed and mediated how it can change and what projection can do to modify a site In so doing she gives new life to the alchemic possibilities of transformative projective atmospheres Showing how their environmentality produces sites of exchange and relationality this book binds art to the ecology of atmosphere

The Oxford Handbook of Communist Visual Cultures Aga Skrodzka, Xiaoning Lu, Katarzyna Marciniak, 2020-04-01 Stereotypes often cast communism as a defunct bankrupt ideology and a relic of the distant past However recent political movements like Europe's anti-austerity protests the Arab Spring and Occupy Wall Street suggest that communism is still very much relevant and may even hold the key to a new idealized future In The Oxford Handbook of Communist Visual Cultures contributors trace the legacies of communist ideology in visual culture from buildings and monuments murals and sculpture to recycling campaigns and wall newspapers all of which work to make communism's ideas and values material Contributors work to resist the widespread demonization of communism demystifying its ideals and suggesting that it has visually shaped the modern world in undeniable and complex ways Together contributors answer curcial questions like What can be salvaged and reused from past communist experiments How has communism impacted the cultures of late capitalism And how have histories of communism left behind visual traces of potential utopias An interdisciplinary look at the cultural currency of communism today The Oxford Handbook of Communist Visual Cultures demonstrates the value of revisiting the practices of the past to form a better vision of the future

Farewell to Visual Studies James Elkins, Gustav Frank, Sunil Manghani, 2015-10-28 Each of the five volumes in the Stone Art Theory Institutes series brings together a range of scholars who are not always directly familiar with one another's work The outcome of each of these convergences is an extensive and unpredictable conversation on knotty and provocative issues about art This fifth and final volume in the series focuses on the identity nature and future of visual studies discussing critical questions about its history objects and methods The contributors question the canon of literature of visual studies and the place of visual studies with relation to theories of vision visuality epistemology politics and art history giving voice to a variety of inter and transdisciplinary perspectives Rather than dismissing visual studies as its provocative title might suggest this volume aims to engage a critical discussion of the state of visual studies today how it might move forward and what it might leave behind to evolve in productive ways The contributors are Emmanuel Alloa Nell Andrew Linda Bez Rub Martin A Berger Hans Dam Christensen Isabelle Decobecq Bernhard J Dotzler Johanna Drucker James Elkins Michele Emmer Yolaine Escande Gustav Frank Theodore Gracyk Asbjørn Grønstad Stephan Günzel Charles W Haxthausen Miguel Hernández Navarro Tom Holert K van Klink Charlotte Klonk Tirza True Latimer Mark Linder Sunil Manghani Anna Notaro Julia Orell Mark Reinhardt Vanessa R Schwartz Bernd Stiegler yvind Vignès Sjoukje van der Meulen Terri Weissman Lisa Zaher and Marta Zarzycka

Lee, Gregory Levine, Anne McClintock, James Nisbet, Andrew Patrizio, Sugata Ray, Greg M. Thomas, 2021-10-26 Seeking a broad reexamination of visual culture through the lenses of ecocriticism environmental justice and animal studies this compendium offers a diverse range of art historical criticism formulated within an ecological context Picture Ecology brings together scholars whose contributions extend chronologically and geographically from 11th century Chinese painting to contemporary photography of California wildfires The book's 17 interdisciplinary essays provide a dynamic cross cultural approach to an increasingly vital area of study emphasizing the environmental dimensions inherent in the content and materials of aesthetic objects Picture Ecology provides valuable new approaches for considering works of art in ways that are timely intellectually stimulating and universally significant

The Routledge Companion to Contemporary Art, Visual Culture, and Climate Change T. J. Demos, Emily Eliza Scott, Subhankar Banerjee, 2021-02-26 International in scope this volume brings together leading and emerging voices working at the intersection of contemporary art visual culture activism and climate change and addresses key questions such as why and how do art and visual culture and their ethics and values matter with regard to a world increasingly shaped by climate breakdown Foregrounding a decolonial and climate justice based approach this book joins efforts within the environmental humanities in seeking to widen considerations of climate change as it intersects with social political and cultural realms It simultaneously expands the nascent branches of ecocritical art history and visual culture and builds toward the advancement of a robust and critical interdisciplinarity appropriate to the complex entanglements of climate change This book will be of special interest to scholars and practitioners of contemporary art and visual culture environmental studies cultural geography and political ecology

The Visual Culture Reader Nicholas Mirzoeff, 2002 This thoroughly revised and updated second edition of The Visual Culture Reader brings together key writings as well as specially commissioned articles covering a wealth of visual forms including photography painting sculpture fashion advertising television cinema and digital culture The Reader features an introductory section tracing the development of visual culture studies in response to globalization and digital culture and articles grouped into thematic sections each prefaced by an introduction by the editor and conclude with suggestions for further reading

Visual Culture Wars at the Borders of Contemporary China Paul Gladston, Beccy Kennedy-Schtyk, Ming Turner, 2022-01-01 This edited collection brings together essays that share in a critical attention to visual culture as a means of representing contributing to and or intervening with discursive struggles and territorial conflicts currently taking place at and across the outward facing and internal borders of the People's Republic of China Elucidated by the essays collected here for the first time is a constellation of what might be described as visual culture wars comprising resistances on numerous fronts not only to the growing power and expansiveness of the Chinese state but also the residues of a once pervasively suppressive Western colonialism imperialism The present volume addresses visual culture related to struggles and conflicts at the borders of Hong Kong the South China Sea and Taiwan as well within the PRC with regard the so called Great Firewall of China and differences in discursive outlook between China and the West on the significances of art technology gender and sexuality In doing so it provides a vital index of twenty first century China's diversely conflicted status as a contemporary nation state and arguably nascent empire

Museum Pieces Ruth Bliss Phillips, 2011 The ways in which Aboriginal people and museums work together have changed drastically in recent decades This historic process of decolonization including distinctive attempts to institutionalize multiculturalism has pushed Canadian museums to pioneer new practices that can accommodate both difference and inclusivity Ruth Phillips argues that these practices are indigenous not only because they originate in Aboriginal activism but because they draw on a distinctively Canadian preference for compromise and tolerance for ambiguity Phillips dissects seminal exhibitions of Indigenous art to show how changes in display curatorial voice and authority stem from broad social economic and political forces outside the museum and moves beyond Canadian institutions and practices to discuss historically interrelated developments and exhibitions in the United States Britain Australia and elsewhere Drawing on forty years of experience as an art historian curator exhibition critic and museum director she emphasizes the complex and situated nature of the problems that face museums introducing new perspectives on controversial exhibitions and moments of contestation A manifesto that calls on us to re imagine the museum as a place to embrace global interconnectedness Museum Pieces emphasizes the transformative power of museum controversy and analyses shifting ideas about art authenticity and power in the modern museum

The Untold Story of the Talking Book
Matthew Rubery, 2023-01-18 A history of audiobooks from entertainment rehabilitation for blinded World War I soldiers to a twenty first century competitive industry Histories of the book often move straight from the codex to the digital screen Left out of that familiar account are nearly 150 years of audio recordings Recounting the fascinating history of audio recorded literature Matthew Rubery traces the path of innovation from Edison s recitation of Mary Had a Little Lamb for his tinfoil phonograph in 1877 to the first novel length talking books made for blinded World War I veterans to today s billion dollar audiobook industry The Untold Story of the Talking Book focuses on the social impact of audiobooks not just the technological history in telling a story of surprising and impassioned conflicts from controversies over which books the Library of Congress selected to become talking books yes to Kipling no to Flaubert to debates about what defines a reader Delving into the vexed relationship between spoken and printed texts Rubery argues that storytelling can be just as engaging with the ears as with the eyes and that audiobooks deserve to be taken seriously They are not mere derivatives of printed books but their own form of entertainment We have come a long way from the era of sound recorded on wax cylinders when people imagined one day hearing entire novels on mini phonographs tucked inside their hats Rubery tells the untold story of this incredible evolution and in doing so breaks from convention by treating audiobooks as a distinctively modern art form that has profoundly influenced the way we read Praise for The Untold Story of the Talking Book If audiobooks are relatively new to your world you might wonder where they came from and where they re going And for general fans of the intersection of culture and technology The Untold Story of the Talking Book is a fascinating read Neil Steinberg Chicago Sun Times Rubery explores 150 years of the audio format with an imminently accessible style touching upon a wide range of interconnected topics Through careful investigation of the co development of formats within the publishing industry Rubery shines a light on overlooked pioneers of audio Rubery's work succeeds in providing evidence to move beyond the reductive debate on whether audiobooks really count as reading and establishes the format's rightful place in the literary family Mary Burkey Booklist starred review Visual Cultures of Foundling Care in Renaissance Italy Diana Bullen Presciutti, 2017-07-05

The social problem of infant abandonment captured the public's imagination in Italy during the fifteenth century a critical period of innovation and development in charitable discourses As charity toward foundlings became a political priority the patrons and supporters of foundling hospitals turned to visual culture to help them make their charitable work understandable to a wide audience Focusing on four institutions in central Italy that possess significant surviving visual and archival material Visual Cultures of Foundling Care in Renaissance Italy examines the discursive processes through which foundling care was identified conceptualized and promoted The first book to consider the visual culture of foundling hospitals in Renaissance Italy this study looks beyond the textual evidence to demonstrate that the institutional identities of foundling hospitals were articulated by means of a wide variety of visual forms including book illumination altarpieces fresco cycles institutional insignia processional standards prints and reliquaries The author draws on fields as diverse as art history childhood studies the history of charity Renaissance studies gender studies sociology and the history of religion to elucidate the pivotal role played by visual culture in framing and promoting the charitable succor of foundlings Luxury and Visual Culture John Armitage, 2019-12-12

From couture fashion to opulent perfumes and decadent food the luxury goods and services industry has grown at an unprecedented rate even in the context of a global recession But in contemporary digital culture does luxury still reside in material things or rather the look of things In this first study of luxury through the lens of visual culture Armitage argues that luxury is undergoing a shift from material culture to the immaterial culture of the visual offering new forms of luxury engagement and unparalleled levels of pleasure never before offered to the senses Calling for a new understanding of luxury in the changing visual landscape of contemporary society Luxury and Visual Culture embraces an extraordinary range of cultural forms including fashion photography social media television and art From the masterpieces of Damien Hirst and Jeff Koons to Richard Avedon's photography and Louis Vuitton's Flagship stores the book explores key issues of globalization digitization consumer identity mass luxury and the role of art This text is ideal for all students of contemporary luxury studies as well as scholars and researchers in the field of visual culture Visual Culture in Contemporary China Xiaobing Tang, 2015-01-08

Exploring a wealth of images ranging from woodblock prints to oil paintings this beautifully illustrated full color study takes up key elements of the visual culture produced in the People's Republic of China from its founding in 1949 to the present day In a challenge to prevailing perceptions Xiaobing Tang argues that contemporary Chinese visual culture is too complex to be understood in terms of a simple binary of government propaganda and dissident art and that new ways must be sought to explain as well as appreciate its multiple sources and enduring visions Drawing on rich artistic literary and sociopolitical backgrounds Tang presents a series of insightful readings of paradigmatic works in contemporary Chinese visual arts and cinema. Lucidly written and organized to address provocative questions, this compelling study underscores the global and historical context of Chinese visual culture and offers a timely new perspective on our understanding of China today.
