Matthew McMahon, 2020-06-29 Thomas Doolittle 1632 1707 was a faithful servant of Jesus Christ and preacher of the Gospel whose preaching and writing were used to awaken many sinners to the religious business of eternal life and eternal death This work really needs no introduction it would be enough just letting Rev Doolittle loose on your soul It is a puritan gem few of which exist and have been republished in this format This treatise was originally a series of sermons preached to his congregation which he then took and combined into the present treatise There are 8 sermons each building upon the former and all surrounding the need to hasten and come to Jesus Christ quickly They are succinct biblically sound filled with pastoral concern but equally commanding and authoritative His central text is taken from Psalm 119 60 I made haste and delayed not to keep thy commandments The sermons cover his main doctrine that what the blessed and eternal God commands us to do is to be done with all possible speed with all haste without delay Doolittle utilizes his time to deal practically with calling unconverted sinners to come to Christ how that should be accomplished and also directing converted sinners to make the most of their time since God has in fact saved them graciously A Call to Delaying Sinners ...
