Selected Arabic Papyri:

Select Arabic papyri of the Rylands collection, Manchester ,1909      Arabic Papyri Geoffrey Khan,Nasser D. Khalili Collection of Islamic Art,1992 The Nasser D Khalili Collection of Islamic Art is a growing private collection of over 15 000 objects built up over the last 16 years in London This volume is the first in an important new academic series complementary to the main catalogue of the collection It consists of a detailed study of a group of early Arabic papyri dating mainly from the eighth to tenth centuries A D Most are from Egypt but the collection also includes the only known papyrus to survive from Iraq The texts range from tax and legal matters to business accounts and personal correspondence Each document is transcribed and translated and there are copious notes on historical linguistic and paleographic issues These documents reflect directly the realities of life in the first centuries of the Islamic era      The Oxford Handbook of Arabic Linguistics Jonathan Owens,2013-10-03 Until about 60 years ago linguistic research on the Arabic language in the West was restricted to inquiries on Classical Arabic and the Classical tradition and spoken Arabic dialects with historical studies embedded within the broader field of Semitic languages This situation is changing quickly not only through the continuation of older research traditions but also with the integration of new research fields and perspectives With this expansion comes the danger of specialists in Arabic losing an overview of the field and of leaving non specialists without basic resources for evaluating domains of research which they may be interested in for comparative purposes The Oxford Handbook of Arabic Linguistics will confront this problem by combining state of the art overviews with essays on issues of perspective controversy and point of view In twenty four chapters leading experts from around the world will lay out their own stances on controversial issues The book not only evaluates ways in which questions and theories established in general linguistics and its sub fields elucidate Arabic but also challenges approaches which might result in accommodating Arabic to non Arabic interpretations and brings out the Arabic specificity of individual problems The Handbook in one compact volume gives critical expression to a language which covers large populations and geographical areas has a long written tradition and has been the locus of major intellectual fervor and debate      Qur'ān Quotations Preserved on Papyrus Documents, 7th-10th Centuries ,2019-07-08 Qur n Quotations Preserved on Papyrus Documents 7th 10th Centuries is the first book on the Qur n s Sitz im Leben i e on how the Qur n was quoted in Arabic original letters legal deeds and amulets Qur n Quotations also serves as an in depth exploration of the radiocarbon dating of documents and Qur nic manuscripts Contributors Ursula Bsees Tobias J Jocham Andreas Kaplony Michael Josef Marx Daniel Potthast Leonora Sonego Eva Mira Youssef Grob      Arabic Manuscripts Adam Gacek,2009-06-24 Arranged alphabetically by subject and or concept and richly illustrated the present vademecum deals with various aspects of Arabic manuscript studies A companion volume to my recently published The Arabic Manuscript Tradition 2001 and its Supplement 2008 this work constitutes an indispensable aid to students and researchers      Arabic Versions of the Pentateuch Ronny Vollandt,2015-03-10 This work offers a seminal research into

Arabic translations of the Pentateuch It is no exaggeration to speak of this field as a terra incognita Biblical versions in Arabic were produced over many centuries on the basis of a wide range of source languages Hebrew Syriac Greek or Coptic and in varying contexts The textual evidence for this study is exclusively based on a corpus of about 150 manuscripts containing the Pentateuch in Arabic or parts thereof Dome of the Rock and its Umayyad Mosaic Inscriptions Marcus Milwright,2019-04-01 The Dome of the Rock is a shrine located on the Temple Mount in the Old City of Jerusalem When was it built What meanings was it meant to convey to viewers at the time of its construction These are questions that have preoccupied historians of Islamic art and architecture and numerous interpretations of the Dome of the Rock have been proposed Marcus Milwright returns to one of the most important pieces of evidence the mosaic inscriptions running around the two faces of the octagonal arcade His detailed examination of the physical characteristics morphology and content of these inscriptions provides new evidence about the chronology the building and the iconography of the Dome of the Rock

From Byzantine to Islamic Egypt Maged S. A. Mikhail,2014-08-25 The conquest of Egypt by Islamic armies under the command of Amr ibn al As in the seventh century transformed medieval Egyptian society Seeking to uncover the broader cultural changes of the period by drawing on a wide array of literary and documentary sources Maged Mikhail stresses the cultural and institutional developments that punctuated the histories of Christians and Muslims in the province under early Islamic rule From Byzantine to Islamic Egypt traces how the largely agrarian Egyptian society responded to the influx of Arabic and Islam the means by which the Coptic Church constructed its sectarian identity the Islamisation of the administrative classes and how these factors converged to create a new medieval society The result is a fascinating and essential study for scholars of Byzantine and early Islamic Egypt Documentary Arabic Private and Business Letters on Papyrus Eva Mira Grob,2010-10-28 Arabic letters on papyrus challenge the modern reader There are few to no diacritical dots to distinguish homographs no systematic spacing between single words and in the majority of cases a low degree of graphical structuring However contemporary readers usually read and understood these documents easily probably because the recipient of a letter knew what to expect The letters are formulaic and their information packaging follows an algorithm typical for their time and content Here formulaic letter writing means not only the reuse of the same formulae or topoi but expressing thoughts in a predictable linguistic way and order both as a matter of readability and as one of adequacy and politeness The main concern of this work is to discover these unwritten rules and norms behind Arabic letter writing on papyrus Modern Egypt New York Public Library,Ida Augusta Pratt,1929 From Scrolls to Scrolling Bradford A. Anderson,2020-06-22 Throughout history the study of sacred texts has focused almost exclusively on the content and meaning of these writings Such a focus obscures the fact that sacred texts are always embodied in particular material forms from ancient scrolls to contemporary electronic devices Using the digital turn as a starting point this volume highlights material dimensions of the sacred texts of Judaism Christianity and Islam The essays in this collection investigate how material aspects have shaped the production and use of these texts within and between the traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam from antiquity to the present day Contributors also reflect on the implications of transitions between varied material forms and media cultures Taken together the essays suggests that materiality is significant for the academic study of sacred texts as well as for reflection on developments within and between these religious traditions This volume offers insightful analysis on key issues related to the materiality of sacred texts in the traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam while also highlighting the significance of transitions between various material forms including the current shift to digital culture

Scribal Repertoires in Egypt from the New Kingdom to the Early Islamic Period Jennifer Cromwell,Eitan Grossman,2017-12-15 Scribal Repertoires in Egypt from the New Kingdom to the Early Islamic Period deals with the possibility of glimpsing pre modern and early modern Egyptian scribes the actual people who produced ancient documents through the ways in which they organized and wrote those documents While traditional research has focused on identifying a pure or original text behind the actual manuscripts that have come down to us from pre modern Egypt the volume looks instead at variation different ways of saying the same thing as a rich source for understanding the complex social and cultural environments in which scribes lived and worked breaking with the traditional conception of variation in scribal texts as free or indicative of corruption As such it presents a novel reconceptualization of scribal variation in pre modern Egypt from the point of view of contemporary historical sociolinguistics seeing scribes as agents embedded in particular geographical temporal and socio cultural environments Introducing to Egyptology concepts such as scribal communities networks and repertoires among others the authors then apply them to a variety of phenomena including features of lexicon grammar orthography palaeography layout and format After first presenting this conceptual framework they demonstrate how it has been applied to better studied pre modern societies by drawing upon the well established domain of scribal variation in pre modern English before proceeding to a series of case studies applying these concepts to scribal variation spanning thousands of years from the languages and writing systems of Pharaonic times to those of Late Antique and Islamic Egypt

Published Material from the Cambridge Genizah Collection: Volume 2 Geoffrey Khan,Cambridge University Library,2004-04-15 Publisher Description Shari'a Scripts Brinkley Messick,2018-01-02 A case study in the textual architecture of the venerable legal and ethical tradition at the center of the Islamic experience Shar a Scripts is a work of historical anthropology focused on Yemen in the early twentieth century There while colonial regimes late Ottoman reformers and early nationalists wrought decisive changes to the legal status of the shar a significantly narrowing its sphere of relevance the Zayd school of jurisprudence rooted in highland Yemen for a millennium still held sway Brinkley Messick uses the richly varied writings of the Yemeni past to offer a uniquely comprehensive view of the shar a as a localized and lived phenomenon Shar a Scripts reads a wide spectrum of sources in search of a new historical anthropological perspective on Islamic textual relations Messick analyzes the shar a as a local system of texts distinguishing between theoretical or doctrinal juridical texts or the library and those produced by the shar'a courts and notarial writers termed the archive. Attending to textual form he closely examines representative books of madrasa instruction, formal opinion giving by muftis and imams, the structure of court judgments and the drafting of contracts. Messick's intensive readings of texts are supplemented by retrospective ethnography and oral history based on extensive field research. Further, the book ventures a major methodological contribution by confronting anthropology's longstanding reliance upon the observational and the colloquial. Presenting a new understanding of Islamic legal history, Shar'a Scripts is a groundbreaking examination of the interpretative range and historical insights offered by the anthropologist as reader. Agents of the Hidden Imam

Edmund Hayes, 2022-02-17 Offers fascinating insights into the careers of the first leaders of Twelver Shi'ism, agents who claimed to speak for the hidden Imam. Empires and Communities in the Post-Roman and Islamic World, C.

400-1000 CE Walter Pohl, Rutger Kramer, 2021 Transcending ethnic, linguistic and religious boundaries, early empires shaped thousands of years of world history. Yet despite the global prominence of empire, individual cases are often studied in isolation. This series seeks to change the terms of the debate by promoting cross-cultural, comparative and transdisciplinary perspectives on imperial state formation prior to the European colonial expansion. Book jacket. Arabic Documents from Medieval Nubia

Geoffrey Khan, 2024-05-06 This volume presents an edition of a corpus of Arabic documents datable to the 11th and 12th centuries AD that were discovered by the Egypt Exploration Society at the site of the Nubian fortress Qa'r Ibrim situated in the south of modern Egypt. The edition of the documents is accompanied by English translations and a detailed analysis of their contents and historical background. The documents throw new light on relations between Egypt and Nubia in the High Middle Ages, especially in the Fatimid period. They are of particular importance since previous historical studies from the perspective of Arabic sources have been almost entirely based on historiographical sources, often written a long time after the events described and distorted by tendentious points of view. Israel in Egypt: The Land of Egypt as Concept and Reality for Jews in Antiquity and the Early Medieval Period, 2020-10-26

In Israel in Egypt, scholars in different fields explore what can be known of the experiences of the many and varied Jewish communities in Egypt from biblical sources to the medieval world. For generations of Jews from antiquity to the medieval period, the land of Egypt represented both a place of danger to their communal religious identity and also a haven with opportunities for prosperity and growth. A volume of collected essays from scholars in fields ranging from biblical studies and classics to papyrology and archaeology. Israel in Egypt explores what can be known of the experiences of the many and varied Jewish communities in Egypt from biblical sources to the medieval world. The Rise of a Capital: Al-Fustāt and Its Hinterland, 18/639-132/750 Jelle

Bruning, 2018-05-01 In The Rise of a Capital: Al-Fus and Its Hinterland 18 639 132 750 Jelle Bruning maps al-Fus's development from a garrison town founded by Muslim conquerors near modern Cairo, Egypt, in c. 640 CE into a bustling provincial capital a century later. Synthesising contemporary papyri, archaeology and narrative sources, this book argues that al-Fustat's position in Egypt changed with the different policies of the Rightly Guided and Umayyad caliphs and their provincial representatives. Because these policies affected the town's centrality in the administration as well as in commercial and legal networks throughout Egypt from Alexandria in the north to Aswan in the south, The Rise of a Capital offers valuable new insights into Egypt's society during the first century of Muslim rule.

Papyrology And The History Of Early Islamic Egypt
Petra A. Sijpesteijn, Lennart Sundelin, 2004. This collection includes editions of previously unpublished Greek, Coptic, and Arabic documents, historical and linguistic studies making use of documentary evidence and literary papyri, and an introduction to papyrology and its relevance for the study of early Islamic Egypt.
