American Icons Thomas Gaehtgens, Heinz Ickstadt, 1996-07-11 American painters and graphic artists of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries sought inspiration for their work in the uniquely American experience of history and nature The result was a transformation of the conventional Old World visual language into an indigenous and populist New World syntax The twelve essays in this volume explore the development of a frontier mythology a democratic style depicting common people and objects and an American artistic consciousness and identity Conceived and written from the perspectives of both cultural and art historians American Icons initiates an interdisciplinary discussion on the complex relationships between American and European art

Elemental Discourses John Sallis, 2021-12-22 A remarkable collection of essays that serve as a rewarding introduction to the more mature thought of Sallis a feast of discourse Notre Dame Philosophical Reviews John Sallis's thought is oriented to two overarching tasks to bring to light the elemental in nature and to show how the imagination operates at the very center of human experience He undertakes these tasks by analyzing a broad range of phenomena including perception the body the natural world art space and the cosmos In every case Sallis develops an original form of discourse attuned to the specific phenomenon and enacts a thorough reflection on discourse itself in its relation to voice dialogue poetry and translation Sallis's systematic investigations are complemented by his extensive interpretations of canonical figures in the history of philosophy such as Plato Aristotle Kant Schelling and Hegel and by his engagement with the most original thinkers in the areas of phenomenology hermeneutics and deconstruction

Voyages of the Self Barbara Novak, 2009-05-15 Barbara Novak is one of America's premier art historians the author of the seminal books American Painting of the Nineteenth Century and Nature and Culture the latter of which was named one of the Ten Best Books of the Year by The New York Times and was nominated for a National Book Critics Circle Award Now with Voyages of the Self this esteemed critic completes the trilogy begun with the two earlier works offering once again an exhilarating exploration of American art and culture In this book Novak explores several inspired pairings of key writers and painters drawing insightful parallels between such masters as John Singleton Copley and Jonathan Edwards Winslow Homer and William James Frederic Edwin Church and Walt Whitman and Jackson Pollock and Charles Olson Through these and other groupings Novak tracks the varied meanings of the self in America in which the most salient characteristics of each artist or writer is shown to draw from and in turn influence the larger map of American life Two major threads weaving through the book are the American preoccupation with the object and our continuing return to pragmatism Novak notes for instance how Copley's art mirrors the puritan denial of self found in Jonathan Edwards and how as colonial scientists they share an interest in sensation and observation She sees Winslow Homer and William James as practitioners of a pragmatic self grounded in an immediate experience that looks for concrete results Through such fruitful comparisons whether between Copley and Edwards or Lane and Emerson or Ryder and Dickinson Novak sheds unmatched light on our nation's artistic heritage Wonderfully illustrated with dozens of black and white pictures and sixteen full color plates here is a stunning work that yields a wealth of insight into American art and culture and concludes Novak's landmark trilogy A.R.

How important black abolitionists joined famous Transcendentalists to create a political philosophy to fight slavery In Fighting for the Higher Law Peter Wirzbicki explores how important black abolitionists joined famous Transcendentalists to create a political philosophy that fired the radical struggle against American slavery In the cauldron of the antislavery movement antislavery activists such as William C Nell Thomas Sidney and Charlotte Forten and Transcendentalist intellectuals including Ralph Waldo Emerson and Henry David Thoreau developed a Higher Law ethos a unique set of romantic political sensibilities marked by moral enthusiasms democratic idealism and a vision of the self that could judge political questions from higher standards of morality and reason The Transcendentalism that emerges here is not simply the dreamy philosophy of privileged white New Englanders but a more populist movement one that encouraged an uncompromising form of politics among a wide range of Northerners black as well as white working class as well as wealthy Invented to fight slavery it would influence later labor feminist civil rights and environmentalist activism African American thinkers and activists have long engaged with American Transcendentalist ideas about double consciousness nonconformity and civil disobedience When thinkers like Martin Luther King Jr or W E B Du Bois invoked Transcendentalist ideas they were putting to use an intellectual movement that black radicals had participated in since the 1830s The Question of Peace in Modern Political Thought Toivo Koivukoski,David Edward Tabachnick,2015-04-08 The essays in The Question of Peace in Modern Political Thought address the contribution that political theories of modern political philosophers have made to our understandings of peace The discipline of peace research has reached a critical impasse where the ideas of both realist peace and democratic peace are challenged by contemporary world events Can we stand by while dictators violate the human rights of citizens Can we impose a democratic peace through the projection of war By looking back at the great works of political philosophy this collection hopes to revive peace as an active question for political philosophy while making an original contribution to contemporary peace research and international relations
