Merchants Of Misery Illegal Drug Trade In Canada:

Merchants of Misery Victor Malarek, 1989 Good Luck Frenchy Alain Olivier, 2020-02-27 Being mistaken for someone else being falsely depicted as an important international heroin importer and trafficker and being made an unwilling accessory to murder aren't everyday occurrences Surely this is not how the police behave to get their man But what if they go further What if with the aid of a thuggish civil agent the RCMP implement a buy and bust operation a Final Solution to get rid of you And what if a Mountie is killed in the process under very nebulous circumstances A chilling scenario that becomes even more disconcerting when members of the RCMP commit perjury to insure your conviction and cover up the true circumstances surrounding their colleague's death But what about you being sentenced to death as a result of this and a trial littered with lying witnesses and tainted evidence that sends you on a path meant to shatter your already broken life And what if in the end Canadian legal institutions and ministries opt to defend the undefendable in order to protect the RCMP's integrity and the image of Canada Known as Bang Kwang prison inmate 482 33 my name is Alain Olivier I learned first hand what it means to be treated as expendable when the RCMP screws things up during a sketchy buy bust operation overseas This was my struggle against all odds to survive in the jungle of Bang Kwang prison a true story that has something for everyone drugs murder threats violence conflict of interest political corruption coverups and my faint hope that the Canadian government would come to its senses and bring me home Street Kids Marlene Webber, 1991-12-15 In cities across North America teenage runaways are struggling to stay alive Some don't make it to adulthood Some do but their lives rarely rise above the despair that brought them to the streets in the first place A few manage to beat the street to get their lives back on track In this disturbing account Marlene Webber draws on extensive interviews with these kids to explore the realities of street life its attraction and its consequences Street kids like to project an image of themselves as free wheeling rebels who relish life on the wild side All brashness and bombast they strut around inner cities panhandling posturing and prostituting themselves Labelled society's bad boys and girls they often live up to their image But as sixteen year old Eugene tells us the street forces bravado on homeless adolescents but underneath a lot of kids are plenty scared Eugene is only one of many street kids who talked to Webber in major cities across Canada She lets her subjects tell their own stories their voices are sometimes brave sometimes bitter often heartbreaking Webber cuts a comprehensible path through the tangle of forces including family breakdown and social service failure that accelerate the tragedy of Canada's runaways She suggests measures that might help more of them beat the streets Canadian Periodical Index, 1965 Canadian Books in Print, 1991 Cuba's Military 1990-2005 H. Klepak, 2005-10-20 This book is the first examination of the Cuban military in the context of Cuba's political and economic challenges in the aftermath of the collapse of the USSR and therefore of Soviet economic political and psychological support It provides important historical and political contexts of the development and engagement of the military Jailed for Possession Catherine Carstairs, 2006-01-01 As rates of illegal drug use increase the debates over drug policy heat up While some believe penalties should be harsher others advocate complete decriminalisation Certainly debate over the war on drugs is not new In the early 1920s as the drive for Chinese Exclusion gathered steam Canadians blamed the Chinese for the growing use of opium and other drugs and parliamentarians passed extremely harsh drug laws to counter this use These laws remained in place until the 1960s In Jailed for Possession Catherine Carstairs examines the impact of these drug laws on users health work lives and relationships In the middle of the century drug users regularly went to jail for up to two years for possession of even the smallest amount of opium morphine heroin or cocaine often spending more time incarcerated than on the street As enforcement increased and drugs became harder to obtain drug use became an increasingly central preoccupation making it almost impossible for users to hold down steady jobs support families or maintain solid relationships Jailed for Possession is the first social history of drug use in Canada and provides a careful examination of drug users and their regulators including doctors social workers and police officers

The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M Sobin, 2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger M Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre Mr Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form Several others have been unavailable for a number of years Of special note are Anthony Boucher's Best Picks for the Year Boucher one of the major mystery reviewers of all time reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times From these resources Mr Sobin created Boucher's Best and Important Lists to Consider lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher's death in 1968 This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction

Engaging with Ethics in International Criminological Research Michael Adorjan, Rose Ricciardelli, 2016-06-10 Despite a voluminous literature detailing the procedures of research ethics boards and institutional ethical review processes there are few texts that explore the realpolitik of conducting criminal research in practice This book explores the unique lived experiences of scholars engaging with ethics during their criminological research and focuses on the ethical dilemmas that researchers encounter both in the field and while writing up results for publication Who benefits from criminological research What are the roles and impacts of ethics review boards How do methodological and theoretical decisions factor in to questions of ethical conduct and research ethics governance This book is divided into four parts Part I Institutional arrangements and positionality explores the ongoing and expanding process of ethics protocol and procedures principles of confidentiality and the positionality of the researcher Part II Trust and research with vulnerable populations examines the complexity of work involving prisoners indigenous peoples and victims of extreme violence power dynamics between researchers and participants and the challenges of informed consent Part III

Research on and with police reflects on the importance of transparent relations with police best practices and the consequences of undertaking research in authoritarian contexts Part IV Emerging areas scrutinizes the ethics of carceral tours and suggests possible alternatives and offers one of the first sociological and criminological examinations of dark net cryptomarkets Drawing upon the experiences of international experts this book aims to provoke further reflection on and discussion of ethics in practice This book is ideal for students undertaking courses on research methods in criminology as well as a key resource for criminology researchers around the world Canada's International Security Policy David Brian Dewitt, David Leyton-Brown, 1995 High Society Neil Boyd, 1991 This is a popular account of the use of legitimate and illegitimate substances in Canada It examines the source and health risks of the most popular drugs and argues that Canada's drug war has very little to do with public health but is a moral battle against socially unacceptable substances Even though the long term damage to health from tobacco alcohol and prescription medications may be significant these are considered legitimate drugs in affluent Western culture while heroin cocaine and marijuana are not CM, 1990 Gut Instinct Victor Malarek, 1996 Quill & Quire, 1990 The Canadian Who's who, 1999 International Journal, 1993 Deviance & Social Control Linda Bell Deutschmann, 1998 World Terrorism: An Encyclopedia of Political Violence from Ancient Times to the Post-9/11 Era James Ciment, 2015-03-10 First Published in 2015 This collection holds three volumes Terrorism is a term that defies easy definition and its meaning has also changed over the course of history Because this encyclopedia aims at comprehensiveness across time geography and the conceptual landscape it applies the broadest definition of terrorism the use of violence or the threat of violence to effect political change through fear in which the victims of the violence The encyclopedia is divided into six parts Multilateralism and Regional Security Lester B. Pearson Canadian International Peacekeeping Training Centre, 1997 Examines issues in multilateralism and regional security in Latin America and Central and Eastern Europe Canada and Latin American Security H. P. Klepak, 1994
