Oceanus And Gaia:

The Land of Lost Gods Ahmet Ümit, 2024-11-20 That is why I shall begin in the place you thought you had forgotten Those that forget shall pay the price for forgetting Those that did not show due respect shall be rewarded with the severest of punishments those that tore me from their hearts shall have their hearts torn out In 1879 a grand monument of stunning statues was bought from Bergama in Anatolia T rkiye to Belgium These idols from the temple in Pergamon ancient Izmir in T rkiye were the last relics of the complex Ottoman mythology Until one day all legends began to come alive A brilliant assassin inspired by the Gods depicted in the reliefs of temples in Pergamon a poet who writes epics in Zeus name in human blood on parchments A mortal that despises mankind wishing to become a God And a child preparing to climb Olympus to confront his father Are all at the center of a chaotic adventures chase across Europe and the Mediterranean threatening to uncover the veiled darkness of mankind in the pursuit of their own truths which could end the world as we know it As Yildiz Karasum a Turkish detective and her mysterious assistant Tobias Becker investigates the suspicious murders they uncover secrets that could destroy the city that stubbornly clings on to its diversity without forgetting its past And just as they seem to grasp the core of the missing and imperfect pieces of the puzzle a new name is revealed And a truth that is beyond the reach of any mortal justice Because when the Gods demand a sacrifice there is always one to be chosen

Gaia's Revenge Krista Larson, Spiritual Titanism Nicholas F. Gier, 2012-03-27 This work in comparative philosophy uses the concept of Titanism to critique certain trends in both Eastern and Western philosophy Titanism is an extreme form of humanism in which human beings take on divine attributes and prerogatives The author finds the most explicit forms of spiritual Titanism in the Jaina Samkhya and Yoga traditions where yogis claim powers and knowledge that in the West are only attributed to God These philosophies are also radically dualistic and liberation involves a complete transcendence of the body society and nature Five types of spiritual Titanism are identified and in addition to this typology a heuristic based on Nietzsche s three metamorphoses of camel lion and child is offered The book determines that answers to spiritual Titanism begin not only with the Hindu Goddess religion but also are found in Buddhism Confucianism and Daoism especially Zen Buddhism and Confucianism

Callimachus and Lycophron Callimachus, 1921 Four Points of the Compass Jerry Brotton, 2024-11-12 From the New York Times bestselling author of A History of the World in 12 Maps this is the revelatory history of the four cardinal directions that have oriented and defined our place on the globe for millennia North south east and west almost all societies use these four cardinal directions to orientate themselves and to understand who they are by projecting where they are For millennia these four directions have been foundational to our travel navigation and exploration and are central to the imaginative moral and political geography of virtually every culture in the world Yet they are far more subjective and sometimes contradictory than we might realize Four Points of the Compass leads us on a journey of directional discovery Societies have understood and defined directions in very different ways based on their locations in time and space Historian Jerry Brotton reveals why Hebrew culture privileges east why Renaissance Europeans began drawing north at the top of their maps why early Islam revered the south why the Aztecs used five color coded cardinal directions and why no societies primitive or modern have ever orientated themselves westwards In doing so politically loaded but widely used terms such as the Middle East the Global South the West Indies the Orient and even the western world take on new meanings Who decided on these terms and what do they mean for geopolitics How have directions like east and west taken on the status of cultural identities or more accurately stereotypes Yet today because of GPS capability cardinal points are less relevant Online we place ourselves at the center of the map as little blue dots moving across geospatial apps we have become the most important compass point though in the process we've disconnected ourselves from the natural world Imagining what future changes technology may impose Jerry Brotton skillfully reminds us how crucial the four cardinal directions have been to everyone who has ever walked our planet For anyone interested in history geography or surprising new ways to think about the world at large Four Points of the Compass will be a stimulating experience Seafaring and Mobility in the Late Antique Mediterranean Antti Lampinen, Emilia Mataix Ferrándiz, 2022-07-14 More than any other type of environment with the possible exception of mountains the sea has been understood since antiquity as being immovable to a proverbial degree Yet it was the sea's capacity for movement both literally and figuratively through such emotions as fear hope and pity that formed one of the primary means of conceptualizing its significance in Late Antique societies This volume advances a new and interdisciplinary understanding of what the sea as an environment and the pursuit of seafaring meant in antiquity drawing on a range of literary legal and archaeological evidence to explore the social economic and cultural factors at play The contributions are structured into three thematic parts which move from broad conceptual categories to specific questions of networks and mobility Part One takes a wide view of the Mediterranean as an environment with great metaphorical and symbolic potential Part Two looks at networks of seaborne communication and the role of islands as the characteristic hubs of the Mediterranean Finally Part Three engages with the practicalities of tackling the sea as a challenging environment that needs to be challenged politically legally and for the means of travel Kathleen N. Daly, Marian Rengel, 2004-01-01
