Mills, 2012-07-16 A strong grounding in basic histology is essential for all pathologists However there had always been a gap between histology and pathology in which histologic information specifically for the pathologist was often lacking Histology for Pathologists deals with the microscopic features of normal human tissues from the perspective of the surgical pathologist This is the only text that uses human vs animal tissues for the histology It is the best reference in the literature for information on normal histology and as such is essential for all clinical pathologists Written by pathologists for pathologists the new edition updates the pathologist s understanding of normal histology up to date with the incremental advances made in the last five years The 3rd edition has become a classic purchased by virtually all residents beginning their pathology training as well as pathologists in practice The 4th edition builds on that substantial foundation The table of contents remains essentially the same with the exception of some changes in authorship

Ethics and the Autonomy of Philosophy Bernard James Walker, 2014-11-06 In Ethics and the Autonomy of Philosophy Bernard Walker sets out with two objectives First Walker argues that ethics is autonomous as a discipline Oftentimes ethics books from a Christian perspective lean toward grounding ethics in theology or in biblical proof texting Walker departs from this tradition Ethics grounded in theology entails a limited scope for those doing ethics in that the Christian God must be assumed for both Christian and non Christian when at the table of ethical dialogue For the non Christian this loads the dice and shuts down ethical consensus and dialogue if not ethical truth With that said this book does not depart from Christian ethical views on such issues as the sanctity of life antiracism the death penalty the objectivity of ethics and the importance of integrating faith into ethics however Walker does so from a common denominator of philosophy rather than theology Second Walker ventures into the streets and engages the man woman on the streets approach to ethics and ethical decision making He points out the shortcomings of the ubiquitous views of the man woman on the streets viz cultural relativism skepticism and the attitude that ethics is merely a matter of personal choice
