Hunter,Huma Malick,2005-01-30 The Islamic world has a poor record in terms of modernization and democracy However the source of this situation is not religion but factors including colonialism international economic and trading systems and the role of the military among others Recognizing these themes allows the consideration of possible remedies for change in the Muslim world The Islamic world has a poor record in terms of modernization and democracy However the source of this situation is not religion Islam but rather factors including colonialism international economic and trading systems and the role of the military among others Recognizing these themes allows the consideration of possible remedies for change in the Muslim world The distinguished scholars contributing to this volume identify key factors some intrinsic to the Muslim world and some external that contribute to Islam s current predicament Contrary to much prevailing thought and opinion Islam is neither monolithic nor impervious to change It is neither anti democratic nor inherently anti modernization Islam itself as this book shows is not the root cause of the malaise of the Islamic world Britain After the Five Crises P. W. Preston,2023-11-02 The period 2008 2022 has seen the British state government embroiled in a number of full blown crises each impacting the fundamental operations of the state and demanding therefore urgent responses from the government of the day In the first case the 2008 near collapse and partial nationalization of the banking system consequent upon decades of irresponsible credit creation coupled to permissive regulation in the second the migration crisis of 2015 which saw waves of refugees moving through Europe provoking anxious responses from European Union member states and opening up related political debates in Britain thus third the 2016 referendum in regard to membership of the European Union which the London based elite clearly thought they would navigate easily before to their evident shock losing an event itself precipitating further extraordinary Westminster manoeuvring and then fourth the 2020 Covid 19 pandemic met with an initial casual sangfroid before the government its actions informed by epidemiological modelling made an abrupt shift to lockdown with dramatic social and economic consequences To these episodes whose impacts run down to the present could be added fifth the 2022 disaster in Ukraine where the British state government has chosen to involve itself by supporting one set of combatants in a conflict where presently after more than a year of fighting there is little sign of a means to the resolution of the violence This book examines the crises and tracks how each developed how state government failings in one case were rehearsed in the next and more generally how these crises have been amplified by the decades long celebration of globalization theory and finally at how following the most recent crisis the future might unfold hence the ideas of deglobalization resilience and more speculatively the possibilities of democratization

Asia as Method in Education Studies Hongzhi Zhang, Philip Chan, Jane

Kenway, 2015-02-11 Unlearning and re-inventing the theoretical frameworks of Intercultural and Asian Studies is central to this book as it is to Chen Kuan Hsing's evocative Asia as Method. This book's inspirational source, Chen insists that studies of Asia move beyond their paralysing fixation on the West as either a positive or negative referent and that they develop their own standpoints, reference points and research agendas. Asia as Method in Education Studies is therefore a provocative and suggestive exploration of educational ideas imported from the West. Chen's challenge provokes the writers in this collection to consider the implications of colonial and imperialist forces for education systems, policies and practices as well as for educational research itself. The writers offer examples of what it means to rethink and re-examine education in Asia beyond both the Western imperialist eye and the post-colonial politics of resentment. Asia as Method in Education Studies combines the diverse research of scholars from various countries of Asia as they consider, for example, Struggles to Construct New Research Imaginations in Response to Chen's Challenges, East West Dialogue: Three Cases in Chinese Educational Research, Asia as a Method of Complexity and Dialogue, Generalizing the Self, Asianizing Perspectives on International Education and the Formation of Self Against Asia-centric Methods, Australia China Theoretic linguistic Knowledge Co-production. Highly anticipated for its novel contemporary perspectives, this book offers researchers specialising in educational studies and policy-making fresh practices of thought.
