War, Peace, and Reconciliation Theodore R. Weber, 2015-11-11 War Peace and Reconciliation invites Christians and the churches into a conversation over how to think about war from a standpoint in faith It asks how reconciliation which is central to Christian life and doctrine can engage the realities of war without surrendering its fundamental affirmations It defines these realities politically by discussing the meanings of power peace as a particular organization of power and the international system The study of war and politics is unavoidable as is the engagement with reconciliation because all human existence and activity exist in the context of the gracious work of God to renew and reconcile the fallen creation The inquiry is theocentric and christocentric It culminates in a call to the churches to examine all their practices in the light of this perspective
