Politics And Poetic Value:

Political Poetry as Discourse Angela M. Leonard, 2010-01-01 Political Poetry as Discourse examines the works of the political poets John Greenleaf Whittier and Ebenezer Elliott drawing comparisons to contemporary hip hoppers who take their words from local newspapers and other discursive sources that they read hear and observe Local presses and news vehicles stand as cultural material forms that supply poets with words particularly words that congeal into patterns of language allowing the creation of a poetic discourse As readers of these poets apply techniques and theories of discourse analysis they reveal how poets borrow lift hijack or resituate words from one or more different genres to use as tools of political change Leonard engages with the critical toolboxes of content analysis semiosis and deconstruction to demonstrate how to critically investigate and interrogate the images sounds and words not just of politically engaged poets but also of any disseminator of culture and news Moving beyond theory into praxis this book becomes a model of its own transgressive premise by thinking analyzing writing and teaching against the grain Its focus on language as unbounded discourse makes this book a relevant and insightful demonstration in democratic pedagogy and in teaching for transformation

Republican Politics and English Poetry, 1789-1874 Stephanie Kuduk Weiner, 2005-08-03 This study explores how poets who espoused republican political ideals sought to embody and advance those principles in their verse By examining a range of canonical and non canonical authors including Blake Shelley Cooper Linton Landor Meredith Thomson and Swinburne Kuduk Weiner connects the formal strategies of republican poems to the political theory and expressive cultures of republican radicalism Her new study traces a strain of powerful complex political poetry that casts new light on the political and literary history of nineteenth century England

José Carlos Mariátegui's Unfinished Revolution Melisa Moore, 2013-12-18 The years 1909 1930 the eleven year presidency of the businessman turned politician Augusto B Legu a mark a formative period of Peruvian modernity witnessing the continuity of a process of reconstruction and the development of an intellectual and cultural tradition after a humbling defeat during the War of the Pacific 1879 1883 But these years were also fraught with conflict generated by long standing divisions and new rivalries A postwar generation of intellectuals and artists led by Jos Carlos Mari tegui and galvanized by left wing thinking and an avant garde aesthetic sought representation in the fields of politics and the arts to realize the modernizing potentialities opened up by a Positivist oligarchy New political and artistic conceptions raised their awareness of the fractured sense of nationhood in Peru and the need for a new project of nation formation based on a common political and cultural consciousness Crucially this gave rise to divergent political and artistic positions and practices Mari tegui s Indigenist Marxist politics and Modernist inspired poetics through his influential journal Amauta were pivotal in revitalizing conciliating and channeling those of his cohorts and challengers. Comprising six full length chapters a comprehensive introduction and conclusion this monograph is ambitious in scope and depth. It provides fresh readings of key writings of Mari tegui one of Latin America's most important and revolutionary political cultural and aesthetic theorists through the lens of his poetics emphasizing the value of this approach for a fuller understanding of his work's political meaning and impact. It does so through detailed analysis of the poetic expressive language employed in seminal political essays aimed at forging a new Marxist position in 1920s Peru. Furthermore it offers powerful and original critiques of under studied intellectuals of this time especially aprista Futurists Socialists and Indigenists including female writers and artists such as Magda Portal ngela Ramos and Julia Codesido whose work he championed. These readings are fully contextualized in terms of detailed critical study of complex sociopolitical conditions and positions and biographical intellectual backgrounds of Mari tegui and his contemporaries. This monograph underscores the fundamental importance of Mari tegui in the development of political and artistic practices and projects that shaped a national shared yet also heterogeneous political culture and cultural tradition in Peru during and after his lifetime.

Politics, Poetics, and Gender in Late Qing China Nanxiu Qian, 2015-05-06 In 1898 Qing dynasty emperor Guangxu ordered a series of reforms to correct the political economic cultural and educational weaknesses exposed by China's defeat by Japan in the First Sino Japanese War. The Hundred Day's Reform has received a great deal of attention from historians who have focused on the well known male historical actors but until now the Qing women reformers have received almost no consideration. In this book historian Nanxiu Qian reveals the contributions of the active optimistic and self sufficient women reformers of the late Qing Dynasty. Qian examines the late Qing reforms from the perspective of Xue Shaohui a leading woman writer who openly argued against male reformers approach that subordinated women's issues to larger national concerns instead prioritizing women's self improvement over national empowerment. Drawing upon intellectual and spiritual resources from the freewheeling xianyuan worthy ladies model of the Wei Jin period of Chinese history 220-420 and the culture of women writers of late imperial China and open to Western ideas and knowledge Xue and the reform minded members of her social and intellectual networks went beyond the inherited Confucian pattern in their quest for an ideal womanhood and an ideal social order. Demanding equal political and educational rights with men women reformers challenged leading male reformers purpose of achieving national wealth and power intending instead to unite women of all nations in an effort to create a just and harmonious new world.
