Politics and the Poetics of Migration Parin Dossa, 2004-03-01 This book uses gendered stories of displacement and re settlement to interrogate our understanding of social suffering and justice Parin Dossa an anthropologist argues that systemic inequity and exclusionary practices impact the health and well being of marginalised people Using narrative accounts of Canadian Iranian women this book links individual experiences of migration to social and political factors Dossa challenges conventional thinking that interprets social suffering in terms of personal stake and individual accountability She questions the ways in which radicalised and gendered inequality in Canada are perceived as cultural differences instead of social oppression Yet this book is far from a laundry list of social determinants of migration and health Dossa's illustrative stories are linked to a poetics of migration that shows the remaking of a world with a more informed sense of social justice A pioneering study on migration and storytelling this book is an important contribution to medical anthropology migration and gender studies Social Palliation Parin Dossa, 2020-10-07 Social Palliation is a pioneering study on living and dying as articulated by first generation Iranian and Ismaili Muslim communities in Canada Using ethnographic narratives Parin Dossa makes a case for a paradigm shift from palliative care to social palliation Experiences of displacement and resettlement reveal that life and death must be understood as an integrated unit if we are to appreciate what it is like to be awakened to our human existence In the wake of structural exclusion and systemic suffering social palliation brings to light displaced persons endeavours to restore the integrity of life and death Dossa highlights the point that death conjoined with life is embedded within the socio cultural and spiritual experience Here a caring society is not perceived in fragments as is the case with traditional institutional care or care offered during end of life Rather Dossa draws attention to an organic form of caring illustrated through the trajectories of storied lives In exemplifying more humane aspects of social palliation this book foregrounds sacred traditions to illustrate their potential to evoke deep level conversations across socio political boundaries on what it is like to live and die in the contemporary world Research Handbook on End of Life Care and Society David Clark, Annemarie Samuels, 2025-09-10 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY 4 0 License It is free to read download and share on Elgaronline com This comprehensive Research Handbook provides an accessible overview of research on palliative and end of life care in its social context It examines key theories methods and research findings presenting crucial social science and public health perspectives Intersectionality, Class and Migration Mastoureh Fathi, 2017-10-11 This book offers critical analysis of everyday narratives of Iranian middle class migrants who use their social class and careers to fit in with British society Based on a series of interviews and participant observations with two cohorts of privileged Iranian migrant women working as doctors dentists and academics in Britain groups that are usually absent from studies around migration marginality and intersectionality the book applies narrative analysis and intersectionality to critically analyse social class in relation to gender ethnicity places and sense of belonging in Britain As concepts such as Nation Migrant Native Other Security and Border have populated public and policy discourse it is vital to explore migrants experiences and perceptions of the society in which they live to answer deceptively simple questions such as What does class mean and How is class translated in the lives of migrants Producing Islams(s) in Canada Amélie Barras, Jennifer A. Selby, Melanie Adrian, 2022-01-10 During the last twenty years public interest in Islam and how Muslims express their religious identity in Western societies has grown exponentially In parallel the study of Islam in the Canadian academy has grown in a number of fields since the 1970s reflecting a diverse range of scholarship positionalities and politics Yet academic research on Muslims in Canada has not been systematically assessed In Producing Islam's in Canada scholars from a wide range of disciplines come together to explore what is at stake regarding portrayals of Islam's and Muslims in academic scholarship Given the centrality of representations of Canadian Muslims in current public policy and public imaginaries which effects how all Canadians experience religious diversity this analysis of knowledge production comes at a crucial time Iranians in Texas Mohsen Mostafavi Mobasher, 2025 An exploration of the link between politics of migration prospects of integration and ethnic identity among Iranian immigrants and their descendants in the United States spanning from the 1970s to the present day Thousands of Iranians fled their homeland when the 1978 1979 revolution ended the fifty year reign of the Pahlavi dynasty Some fled to Europe and Canada while others settled in the United States where anti Iranian sentiment flared as the hostage crisis unfolded For those who chose America Texas became the fourth largest settlement area Iranians in Texas culls data interviews and participant observations in Iranian communities in Houston Dallas and Austin to reveal the difficult private world of cultural pride religious experience marginality culture clashes and other aspects of the lives of these immigrants Examining the political nature of immigration between Iran and the United States and social cultural and economic life for Iranian immigrants and their American born children Mohsen Mostafavi Mobasher incorporates his own experience as a Texas scholar born in Iran In this revised edition two new chapters and a new introduction and conclusion provide updates on what has happened in the Obama Trump and Biden administrations including the Iran nuclear deal and resulting controversy the Muslim ban and the global protests over the death of twenty two year old Mahsa Amini for not wearing a hijab Bringing to life a unique immigrant population in the context of global politics Iranians in Texas overturns stereotypes and echoes diverse voices Migration and the Politics of Methodology Kirsten Emiko McAllister, Ayaka Yoshimizu, Daniel Ahadi, 2025-05-30 This volume examines the politics of fieldwork and the challenges of researching migrants constructed as outsiders both nationally and transnationally Based on research with undocumented migrants temporary workers refugees international students and those who having received citizenship status find their lives to be discursively and legally restricted it shows how interdisciplinary fieldwork based approaches can provide detailed accounts of migrants voices and their conditions of existence offering insights into the ways in which they understand and take part in producing their transnational worlds Applying critical self reflexive methodological approaches that challenge assumptions about who has the authority to produce knowledge and what types of knowledge have the authority of truth Migration and the Politics of Methodology will appeal to scholars of sociology anthropology geography and communication and cultural studies with interests in research methods and migration The New African Diaspora in Vancouver Gillian Laura Creese, 2011-01-01 The New African Diaspora in Vancouver documents the experiences of immigrants from countries in sub Saharan Africa on Canada's west coast Despite their individual national origins many adopt new identities as African and are actively engaged in creating a new place based African community In this study Gillian Creese analyzes interviews with sixty one women and men from twenty one African countries to document the gendered and racialized processes of community building that occur in the contexts of marginalization and exclusion as they exist in Vancouver Creese reveals that the routine discounting of previous education by potential employers the demeaning of African accents and bodies by society at large cultural pressures to reshape gender relations and parenting practices and the absence of extended families often contribute to downward mobility for immigrants The New African Diaspora in Vancouver maps out how African immigrants negotiate these multiple dimensions of local exclusion while at the same time creating new spaces of belonging and emerging collective identity Border Culture Victor Konrad, Anne-Laure Amilhat Szary, 2022-12-29 This book introduces readers to the cultural imaginings of borders the in between spaces in which transnationalism collides with geopolitical cooperation and contestation Recent debates about the refugee crisis and the spread of the COVID 19 pandemic have politicized culture at and of borders like never before Border culture is no longer culture at the margins but rather culture at the heart of geopolitics flows and experience of the transnational world Increasingly culture and borders are everywhere yet nowhere In border spaces national narratives and counter narratives are tested and evaluated coming up against transnational culture This book provides an extensive and critical vision of border culture on the move drawing on numerous examples worldwide and a growing international literature across border and cultural studies It shows how border culture develops in the human imagination and manifests in human constructs of nation and state as well as in transnationalism By analyzing this new and expanding cultural geography of border landscapes the book shows the way to a fresh broader dialogue Exploring the nature and meaning of the intersection of border and culture this book will be an essential read for students and researchers across border studies geopolitics geography and cultural studies

Contemporary Art, World Cinema, and Visual Culture Hamid Keshmirshekan, 2019-03-29 Contemporary Art World Cinema and Visual Culture Essays by Hamid Dabashi is a collection of writings by the acclaimed cultural critic and scholar A thorough Introduction rigorously frames chapters and identifies in Dabashi s writings a comprehensive approach which forms the criteria for selecting the essays for the volume The Introduction also teases out of these essays the overarching theme that holds them together the manner they inform a particularly critical angle in them and the way they cohere The Introduction dwells on the work of one scholar public intellectual and theorist of modern and contemporary arts to extrapolate more universal issues of concern to art criticism in general These scattered materials and their underlying theoretical and critical logic are a unique contribution to the field of modern and contemporary arts Kinship Matters Fatemeh Ebtehaj, Bridget Lindley, Martin Richards, 2006-09-15 This book is the fifth in the Cambridge Socio Legal Group series and it concerns the evolving notions and practices of kinship in contemporary Britain and the interrelationship of kinship law and social policy Assembling contributions from scholars in a range of disciplines it examines social legal cultural and psychological questions related to kinship Rising rates of divorce and of alternative modes of partnership have raised questions about the care and well being of children while increasing longevity and mobility together with lower birth rates and changes in our economic circumstances have led to a reconsideration of duties and responsibilities towards the care of elderly people In addition globalisation trends and international flows of migrants and refugees have confronted us with alternative constructions of kinship and with the challenges of maintaining kinship ties transnationally Finally new developments in genetics research and the growing use of assisted reproductive technologies may raise questions about our notions of kinship and of kin rights and responsibilities. The book explores these changes from various perspectives and draws on theoretical and empirical data to describe practices of kinship in contemporary Britain Health Nazilla Khanlou, F. Beryl Pilkington, 2015-07-23 This book focuses on the social and societal context of women s mental health Drawing from multidisciplinary perspectives and scholarship it pays particular attention to how women s mental health is experienced at the personal level yet it is influenced by their relationships and interacts with the larger societal context such as prevailing gender equality policies income distribution role burden peace and security Specific attention is given to the positive aspects of women s mental health such as agency resilience and how women s personal relations across diverse domains such as family work neighbourhoods are constructed and influenced by and in turn influence broader societal structures policies opportunities A unique feature of this book is that at the end of each chapter there is a Response section written by a non academic such as a community member practitioner or policy maker in which the invited authors respond to the chapter texts in the form of narrative poetry and or prose according to their various backgrounds interests and experiences Transnational Identity and Memory Making in the Lives of Iragi Women in Diaspora Nadia` Jones-Gailani,2020-08-26 This book draws on an extensive archive of over one hundred oral narratives collected and recorded with Iraqi women in three sites Amman Detroit and Toronto Nadia Jones Gailani demonstrates how the relationships between ethno religious migrants nation and citizenship are shaped by the traumatic experiences of forced displacement and integration into new communities and national imaginaries This book also examines the broader historical trends that have precipitated migration from Iraq While informed by research into the archival documentary record on Iraqis in North America this book is first and foremost a study of gender and memory that focuses on women s oral histories By historicizing the process through which ethno religious and ethno national communities become fractured and remade Jones

Gailani explores the expectations and realities of women as the supposed biological and cultural reproducers of the nation The Iraqi women featured in this book assert their claims to belonging across three different generations thereby opening up spaces to discuss how sites of migration shape the ability of migrants to lobby for the homeland even as they engage in daily struggles to advance their education and economic stability abroad Engendering Migrant Health Denise L. Spitzer, 2011-11-05 Voluntary migrants to Canada are generally healthier than the average Canadian but after ten years in the country they report poorer health and higher rates of chronic disease than those born here Troublingly women particularly those from non European countries experience the most precipitous decline in health What contributes to this deterioration and how can its effects be mitigated Engendering Migrant Health brings together researchers from across Canada to address the intersections of gender immigration and health in the lives of new Canadians Focusing on the context of Canadian policy and society the contributors illuminate migrants testimonies of struggle resistance and solidarity as they negotiate a place for themselves in a new country Topics range from the difficulties of Francophone refugees and the changing roles of fathers to the experiences of gueer newcomers and the importance of social unity to communal and Health Inequities in Canada Olena Hankivsky, 2011-05-01 There is a growing recognition that individual health existing theories on and approaches to health inequities are limited in their ability to capture how they are produced through changing co constituted and intersecting effects of multiple forms of oppression Intersectionality considers the interactions and combined impacts of social locations and structural processes on the creation and perpetuation of inequities This volume brings together activists scholars and community based researchers to apply interpretations of intersectionality to health and organizational governance cases By addressing specific health issues it demonstrates that inequities cannot be understood without the interrogation of power and diverse social locations and structures that shape lives and experiences of health

Transnational Aging and Reconfigurations of Kin Work Parin Dossa, Cati Coe, 2017-03-10 Transnational Aging and Reconfigurations of Kin Work documents the social and material contributions of older persons to their families in settings shaped by migration their everyday lives in domestic and community spaces and in the context of intergenerational relationships and diasporas Much of this work is oriented toward supporting connecting and maintaining kin members and kin relationships the work that enables a family to reproduce and regenerate itself across generations and across the globe

After the Flight Shiva Nourpanah, Morgan Poteet, 2016-06-22 Knowledge of the integration process for refugees is often subsumed under the broader category of immigrants This book focuses on this process for refugees including the structural and systemic challenges they face as they integrate in their new host societies and how they respond to such challenges The book provides a critical analysis of Canada's approach to integrating refugees with additional chapters focused on refugee integration in Australia Northern Ireland and the United States This collection of work critically addresses a range of topics and employs a variety of qualitative approaches to gain a better understanding of the lived experience of integration for refugees including the ways in which refugees view integration and the attendant challenges and opportunities encountered during the integration process Departing from viewing refugees as a burden that must be shared by the international community the contributors to this collection explore the complex dynamics of race class gender ethnicity age generation and legal status for refugees in a selection of local contexts of reception The work begins a dialogue about the long term dynamics of refugee settlement and integration with implications for the viability of future resettlement programs and practices How the world responds to the ongoing plight of the growing numbers of displaced people will be a defining feature of the contemporary global order This collection shifts the discourse about refugees from one of victimhood to one of refugee agency and rights The book will be of primary interest to academics in the field of refugee and migration studies to practitioners in the settlement sector and to those involved in making refugee policies It will also be useful for those who work in social services and education in countries of the global north that receive refugees and refugee claimants and anyone with an interest in refugee lives Racialized Bodies, Disabling Worlds Parin Dossa, 2009-01-01 In Racialized Bodies Disabling Worlds Parin Dossa explores the lives of Canadian Muslim women who share their stories of social marginalization and disenfranchisement in a disabling world She shows how these women who are subjected to social erasure in policy and research define their identities and claim their humanity using the language of everyday life Based on narrative ethnography Racialized Bodies Disabling Worlds makes a case for positive acknowledgement of perceived differences of nationality religion multiple abilities and gendered and race based identities It offers a powerful argument for bridging two disparate bodies of work disability studies and anti-racist feminism Most significantly it shows how racialized Muslim women with disabilities are redefining the parameters of their social worlds and developing a distinctively pluralistic understanding of abilities This ground breaking work gives presence to the lives of people who are otherwise rendered socially invisible
