Politics Of Evaluation Participation And Policy Implementation:

The Politics of Evaluation David Taylor, Susan Balloch, 2005 Evaluation has become a central tool in the development of contemporary social policy Its widespread popularity is based on the need to provide evidence of the effectiveness of policies and programmes This book sees evaluation as an inherently political activity as much about forms of governance as scientific practice Using a wide range of examples from neighbourhood renewal health and social care and other aspects of social policy it relates practical issues in evaluation design to their political contexts

The Politics of Evaluation in International Organizations Vytautas Jankauskas, Steffen Eckhard, 2023 This book explores the internal machinery of evaluation systems in international organizations and challenges the conventional understanding of evaluation as a value free activity The authors propose new ways of better reconciling evaluation politics with the need to gather reliable evidence to improve the functioning of the United Nations

Understanding Policy Success Allen McConnell, 2010-08-11 Success and failure are key to any consideration of public policy but there have been remarkably few attempts to assess systematically the various dimensions and complex nature of policy success This important new text fills the gap by developing a systematic framework and offering an entirely new way of introducing students to policy analysis

International Public Administrations in Global Public Policy Christoph Knill, Yves Steinebach, 2022-11-18 This book examines the rise and agency of International Organizations IOs and their bureaucratic bodies the International Public Administrations IPAs as a reflection of an ongoing transfer of political authority and power from the domestic to the international level It shows that IPAs represent actors per se with autonomy and resources that allow them to exert an independent influence on global policy making processes and outputs Providing a combination of novel conceptual lenses and research design to capture IPAs as an empirical phenomenon the book takes an open theoretically and methodologically diverse approach to show that IPAs are far from being negligible actors in global public policy and must be taken seriously as actors in policy making beyond the nation state This book will be of key interest to students scholars and practitioners in Public Policy and Public Administration International Relations International Political Economy as well as Organizational Studies

Anti-Oppressive Practice Jane Dalrymple, Beverley Burke, 2006-12-16 Praise for the new edition This revised text should be read by all practitioners in health and social care settings who supports people with complex needs and who aim to promote anti oppressive and person centred practice A variety of activities is presented in each chapter to stimulate readers to reflect on the cases and concepts under discussion This text represents a valuable companion for professionals involved in learning disability practice Learning Disability Practice This new edition proves to be a substantial updating of the 1995 edition The coverage is analytical and clearly related to anti oppressive practice It is important to persuade students of the necessity of action to put their values into practice this book is a real boon and should be required reading up and down the country Mark Baldwin University of Bath In the new edition of this bestselling text the authors challenge the notion that anti oppressive practice has lost its potency or become commodified into a professional response to inequalities Retaining a commitment to the principles and values of anti oppressive practice discussion about contemporary practice is guided by a critical understanding of personal values and the context of practice Some key questions are explored How is anti oppressive practice relevant in contemporary practice How can the law be used as an empowering tool How can the law be used to develop and inform anti oppressive practice The second edition is substantially revised and updated to take account of policy and legislative changes with a new chapter addressing critical practice in social work as well as additional activities chapter summaries and further reading at the end of each chapter The authors draw on their own experiences and those of practitioners service users and carers to understand issues of power and oppression demonstrating how the law can be used to inform the development of critical anti oppressive practice The book therefore points the way to practice that is both empowering to service users and ultimately liberating for practitioners Anti Oppressive Practice is an essential text for students practitioners lecturers service users and carers

Place-making and Urban Development Pier Carlo Palermo, Davide Ponzini, 2014-12-05 The regeneration of critical urban areas through the redesign of public space with the intense involvement of local communities seems to be the central focus of place making according to some widespread practices in academic and professional circles Recently new expertise maintains that place making could be an innovative and potentially autonomous field competing with more traditional disciplines like urban planning urban design architecture and others This book affirms that the question of making better places for people should be understood in a broader sense as a symptom of the non contingent limitations of the urban and spatial disciplines It maintains that research should not be oriented only towards new technical or merely formal solutions but rather towards the profound rethinking of disciplinary paradigms In the fields of urban planning urban design and policy making the challenge of place making provides scholars and practitioners a great opportunity for a much needed critical review Only the substantial reappraisal of long standing technical cultural institutional and social premises and perspectives can truly improve place making practices The pressing need for place making implies trespassing undue disciplinary boundaries and experimenting a place based approach that can innovate and integrate planning regulations strategic spatial visioning and urban development projects Moreover the place making challenge compels urban experts and policy makers to critically reflect upon the physical and social contexts of their interventions In this sense facing place making today is a way to renew the civic and social role of urban planning and urban design
