Politics Of Identity In Serbia:

Politics of Identity in Serbia Ivan Colovic, 2002-09-30 These thought provoking essays on the Serbian ethno myth make this book a valuable contribution to the literature on the former Yugoslavia The Journal of Slavic Military Studies The newspaper articles offer incisive ironic and often witty analyses of nationalist discourse found in a wide variety of texts including political speeches Slavic Review Symbols are central to politics In this groundbreaking work Ivan Colevic investigates the symbols of politics and the politics of symbols in Serbia Croatia and Bosnia Hercegovnia The first part of the work The Serbian Political Ethno Myth analyzes Serbian political mythology about the nation and nationalism in particular as well as the role of narratives in political discourse and notions of time nature borders heroism and national identity The second part From the History of Serbian Political Mythology is concerned with the historical development of Serbian political myths The third part Characters and Figures of Power comprises case studies which analyze political symbolism myth rhetoric and propaganda These studies are based on examples gleaned from the Serbian press academic texts and literature political speeches and from everyday life Finally Colevic investigates the relationship between the masses mass culture and politics including the recruitment of soccer fans into the war in the former Yugoslavia and how symbolic communication was used by Serbia s anti Milosevic opposition

Eurovision: Identity and the International Politics of the Eurovision Song Contest since 1956 Julie Kalman, Ben Wellings, Keshia Jacotine, 2019-11-19 This book uses the Eurovision Song Contest ESC as an analytical entry point to understand and illuminate post War Europe and the drive to create an identity that can legitimise the European project in its broadest sense The ESC presents an idealised vision of Europe and this has long existed in a strained relationship with reality While the trajectory of post war European integration is a high profile topic we believe that the ESC offers a unique and innovative way to think about the role of culture in the history of post War European integration and tensions between the ideal and reality of European unity Through the series of case studies that make up the chapters in this book analysis brings these interlinked tensions to light exploring the roles of culture and identity alongside and a productive conversation with the political and economic projects of post war European integration

Law, Culture and Identity in Central and Eastern Europe Cosmin Cercel, Alexandra Mercescu, Mirosław Michał Sadowski, 2023-12-01 Combining insights from comparative legal theory jurisprudence and legal history this collection examines the legal and constitutional identity of Central and Eastern Europe Although the various countries of Central and Eastern Europe have often compared themselves to the West the failure of these countries to engage with one another has resulted in a whole spectrum of legal identities remaining hidden This book takes up a comparison of such identities within the region of Central and Eastern Europe and following from the prima facie similarity between the region s countries given the experience of communism and legal transfers The book thereby illuminates through comparisons the distinct legal identities of the 16 Central and Eastern European states whilst at the same time arguing for a shared Central and Eastern European legal identity This book will appeal to scholars and students in the area of comparative law as well as lawyers political scientists sociologists and historians with particular interests in Central and Eastern Europe Politics of Identity in Post-Conflict States Éamonn Ó Ciardha, Gabriela Vojvoda, 2015-12-14 Ireland and the Balkans have come to represent divided and reunited communities They both provide effective microcosms of national ethnic political military religious ideological and cultural conflicts in their respective regions and as a result they demonstrate real and imaginary divisions This book will specifically focus on the history politics and literature of Bosnia Herzegovina and Northern Ireland while making comparative reference to some of Europe's other disputed and divided regions Using case studies such as Kosovo and Serbia Lithuania Germany Poland Russia and Belarus Greece and Macedonia it examines space place and border discourse the topography of war and violence post war settlement and reconciliation and the location and negotiation of national ethnic religious political and cultural identities The book will be of particular interest to scholars and students of cultural studies history politics Irish studies Slavonic studies area studies and literary studies Fact and Fiction Albrecht Koschorke, 2018-04-23 How can we develop a cultural theory starting with the basic insight that human beings are storytelling animals Within literary studies narratology is a highly developed field However literary historians have not paid much attention to the large and small stories abounding in everyday discourse guiding all kinds of social activity and providing common ground for whole societies but also fueling controversies and hostilities Moreover narrative is not only a scholarly category but has come into use in many fields of social activity as a tool for cultural self fashioning This book is based on the assumption that to a large extent social dynamics is modeled in an aesthetic manner via narratives It explores the narrative organization of cultural spaces and time frames the mythological shaping of communities and adversaries and the co production of narratives and institutions aimed at stabilizing social life In this framework the epistemological problem looms large of how an instrument as unreliable as narrative can participate in the creation of a social consensus regarding truth This problem endows the general topics explored in this book with a particularly contemporary dimension Identity Politics in the Age of Genocide David B. MacDonald, 2007-09-28 David B MacDonald is Senior Lecturer in Political Studies at the University of Otago New Zealand

Music, National Identity and the Politics of Location Vanessa Knights, 2016-04-29 How are national identities constructed and articulated through music Popular music has long been associated with political dissent and the nation state has consistently demonstrated a determination to seek out and procure for itself a stake in the management of its popular musics Similarly popular musics have been used from the ground up as sites for both populist and popular critiques of nationalist sentiment from the position of both a globalizing and a local vernacular culture The contributions in this book arrive at a critical moment in the development of the study of national cultures and musicology The book ranges from considerations of the ideological focus of cultural nationalism through to analyses of musical hybridity and musical articulations of other kinds of identities at odds with national identity The processes of global homogenization are thereby shown to have brought about a transitional crisis for national cultural identities the evolution of these identities particularly with reference to the concept of authenticity in music is situated within broader debates on power political economy and constructions of the self Theorizations of practice are employed after the manner of Bourdieu Gramsci Goffman Gadamer Habermas Bhabha Lacan and Žižek Each contribution acts as a case study to characterize the strategies through which differing modes of musical discourse engage critique or obscure discourses on national identity The studies include discussions of musical representations of Irishness the relationship between Afropop and World Music Norwegian club music the revival of traditional music in Serbia resistance to cultural homogeneity in Brazil contemporary Uyghur song in Northwest China rap and race in French society technobanda from the barrios of Los Angeles and Spanish Moroccan rai In this way the book seeks to characterize the ideological configurations that help to activate and sustain hegemonic amb

The Handbook of European Defence Policies and Armed Forces Hugo Meijer, Marco Wyss, 2018 This volume provides the first geographically and thematically comprehensive study of the evolution and current state of the national security and defence policies strategies doctrines capabilities and military operations as well as the alliances and security partnerships of European armed forces

Religion and the Politics of Identity in Kosovo Gerlachus Duijzings, 2000 Kosovo is a frontier society where two Balkan nations Albanian and Serb as well as two religions Islam and Christianity clash The tension between conflict and symbiosis lies at the core of this book

Politics, Ideology and Football Fandom Radosław Kossakowski, Przemysław Nosal, Wojciech Woźniak, 2020-04-02 Football fans and football culture represent a unique prism through which to view contemporary society and politics Based on in depth empirical research into football in Poland this book examines how fans develop political identities and how those identities can influence the wider political culture It surveys the turbulent history of Poland in recent decades and explores the dominant right wing ideology on the terraces characterised by nationalism traditional values and anti immigrant sentiment As one of the first book length studies of fandom in Eastern Europe this book makes an important contribution to our understanding of society and politics in post Communist states Politics Ideology and Football Fandom is an important read for students and researchers studying sport politics and identity as well as those working in sports studies and political studies covering sociology of sport globalisation studies East European politics ethnic studies social movements studies political history and nationalism studies

The Politics of Symbol in Serbia Colovic, 2002 The author analyzes Serbian political mythology about the nation in particular the role of narratives in political discourse and notions of time nature borders heroism and national identity

Politics, Identity and Emotion Paul Hoggett, 2015-11-17 In this wide ranging book Paul Hoggett argues that human feelings and identities are constitutive of both personal and political life Engaging with major debates in political theory sociology and psychoanalysis he brings fresh insights to a range of issues dynamics of political protest intractable conflicts fundamentalism and populism the new political charismatics the nature of forgiveness and the relationship between anxiety and governance

The book is conceptually innovative and accessible carefully introducing different theories of collective emotion and group identity and making extensive use of case studies from the U S England and across the globe

The Politics of Social Ties Mila Dragojevic, 2016-02-24 After forced migration to a country where immigrants form an ethnic majority why do some individuals support exclusivist and nationalist political parties while others do not Based on extensive interviews and an original survey of 1 200 local Serbs and ethnic Serbian refugees fleeing violent conflict in Bosnia and Croatia The Politics of Social Ties argues that those immigrants who form close interpersonal networks with others who share their experiences such as the loss of family friends and home in addition to the memory of ethnic violence from past wars are more likely to vote for nationalist parties Any political mobilization occurring within these interpersonal networks is not strategic rather individuals engage in political discussion with people who have a greater capacity for mutual empathy over the course of discussing other daily concerns This book adds the dimension of ethnic identity to the analysis of individual political behavior without treating ethnic groups as homogeneous social categories It adds valuable insight to the existing literature on political behavior by emphasizing the role of social ties among individuals

Myth, Identity, and Conflict Anamaria Dutceac Segesten, 2011-01-01 Myth Identity and Conflict A Comparative Analysis of Romanian and Serbian Textbooks by Anamaria Dutceac Segesten is an examination of how history and politics became entangled in Romania and Serbia In it Segesten asks questions like Is myth present in the history textbooks of Romania and Serbia If so are there differences in the ways these myths define the in group and the relationship with the Other between a country that experienced interethnic conflict Serbia and a country that did not Romania Do textbooks affect the odds that conflict will occur Segesten s findings confirm the presence of mythologized versions of the past in the history textbooks of both countries over the entire fifteen year period studied 1992 2007 despite claims for professionalization of textbook making Myths of noble origins of heroism and victimhood appear in both cases Segesten finds the language to be ideological and in favor of the ethnic majority even if over time there is a slow tendency towards moderation especially in Romania probably due to the influence of the European Union Ultimately Myth Identity and Conflict by Anamaria Dutceac Segesten questions the alleged power of history textbooks to make a difference in ethnically divided societies prone to conflicts

East Central European Foreign Policy Identity in Perspective E. Tulmets, 2014-07-29 How have countries in the EU that were previously under Communist rule influenced the creation of a European policy towards other Post Soviet nations This study explores countries including the Czech Republic and Poland and shows how they have helped develop a coherent policy based reconciling political and historical foreign policy identities

Constitutional Politics in Central and Eastern Europe Anna Fruhstorfer, Michael Hein, 2016-10-12 The contributions to this edited volume discuss constitutional politics in 20 Central and Eastern European countries The country chapters describe all constitutional amendments and new constitutions after the first post communist constitution making all failed amendment attempts and the political discourses about constitutional politics Framed by a broad comparative chapter the country studies are embedded in the established literature on constitutional politics The book thus provides a better understanding of constitutional politics in the region and beyond 'Regimes of Historicity' in Southeastern and Northern Europe, 1890-1945 D. Mishkova, B. Trencsényi, M. Jalava, 2014-06-27 The volume undertakes a comparative analysis of the various discursive traditions dealing with the connection between modernity and historicity in Southeastern and Northern Europe reconstructing the ways in which different temporalities produced alternative representations of the past and future of continuity and discontinuity and identity Branding Post-Communist Nations Nadia Kaneva, 2011-09-19 Nation branding a set of ideas rooted in Western marketing gained popularity in the post communist world by promising a quick fix for the identity malaise of transitional societies Since 1989 almost every country in Central and Eastern Europe has engaged in nation branding initiatives of varying scope and sophistication For the first time this volume collects in one place studies that examine the practices and discourses of the nation branding undertaken in these countries In addition to documenting various rebranding initiatives these studies raise important questions about their political and cultural implications

History, Politics, Identity Marija Knežević, Aleksandra Nikcevic-Batricevic, 2009-03-26 Contributions reprinted in this book highlight some of the wide ranging ways in which the issues of culture and identity can be approached in a literary text while focusing on the ways in which cultural encounters have been changing both the world and its reflection in literature The beginning of the twenty first century is an appropriate time to repay careful attention to these issues Understanding how our perception of the Other changes with the concept of the world we inhabit we want to emphasize the rising importance of fostering cultural pluralism and global understanding For its argumentation strongly founded in recent literary studies and humanities in general its interdisciplinary nature and its focus on the actual global problems of abrupt cultural change and exchange its heightened understanding of the necessity of coexistence of differences in a changing world its spirit of tolerance and its international spirit in general we assume this collection will not only attract academic literary scholars but will also appeal to the general reading public A Political Theory of Identity in European Integration Catherine Guisan, 2013-03-01 This book provides a theoretical and historical examination of the speech and deeds of European founders Using a fresh and innovative approach this monograph connects political theory with concrete political practices based on empirical evidence and theorizes the internal process of European reconciliations as it has been experienced by those involved The book draws upon over 100 interviews memoirs autobiographies and essays of elite and grassroots actors across the history of the European Union from the founding of the European Coal and Steel Community in 1950 to the 2010 financial crisis It introduces the reader to major contemporary Western political thinkers Hannah Arendt Jürgen Habermas Charles Taylor and Paul Ricoeur and examines how their theories develop the interpretation of political phenomena such as European integration As one of the first studies of EU memories this approach opens a unique window of analysis to view the development of the European community and makes a fascinating contribution to our understanding of the political tradition

born of 60 years of European integration A Political Theory of Identity in European Integration Memory and Policies will be of strong interest to students and scholars of European politics contemporary democratic theory and EU studies
