The Politics of Knowledge in Premodern Islam Omid Safi,2006-01-01 The eleventh and twelfth centuries comprised a period of great significance in Islamic history The Great Saljugs a Turkish speaking tribe hailing from central Asia ruled the eastern half of the Islamic world for a great portion of that time In a far r The Politics of Knowledge in Premodern Islam Omid Safi,2006 Scholars saints and the state Philosophers, Sufis, and Caliphs Ali Humayun Akhtar, 2017-06-09 What was the relationship between government and religion in Middle Eastern history In a world of caliphs sultans and judges who exercised political and religious authority In this book Ali Humayun Akhtar investigates debates about leadership that involved ruling circles and scholars of jurisprudence and theology At the heart of this story is a medieval rivalry between three caliphates the Umayyads of Cordoba the Fatimids of Cairo and the Abbasids of Baghdad In a fascinating revival of Late Antique Hellenism Aristotelian and Platonic notions of wisdom became a key component of how these caliphs debated their authority as political leaders By tracing how these political debates impacted the theological and jurisprudential scholars and their own conception of communal guidance Akhtar offers a new picture of premodern political authority and the connections between Western and Islamic civilizations It will be of use to students and specialists of the premodern and modern Middle Islam and Muslim Resistance to Modernity in Turkey Gokhan Bacik, 2019-08-24 This book explores how East traditional Sunni Muslim conceptions have informed or shaped Islamization strategies in contemporary Turkey In particular the author proposes to examine the teaching curriculum of the Ministry of Education which oversees Turkish public religious education the activities and teachings of Diyanet the constitutional organ responsible for managing all religious affairs and the ideas and activities of three Muslim religious groups currently operating in Turkey The monograph explains how the interpretation and practice of Islam affects various situations in the Muslim world and analyzes the concept of nature in Islam which has been an indivisible component of Islamic tradition since the beginning Conceptualizing the World Helge Jordheim, Erling Sandmo, 2018-12-17 What is and what was the world Though often treated as interchangeable with the ongoing and inexorable progress of globalization concepts of world globe or earth instead suggest something limited and absolute This innovative and interdisciplinary volume concerns itself with this central paradox that the complex heterogeneous and purportedly transhistorical dynamics of globalization have given rise to the idea and reality of a finite and thus vulnerable world Through studies of illuminating historical moments that range from antiquity to the era of Google Earth each contribution helps to trace the emergence of the world in multitudinous representations practices and human Popularisation of Sufism in Ayyubid and Mamluk Egypt, 1173-1325 Nathan Hofer, 2015-07-07 This book is experiences the first systematic investigation of how and why Sufism became extraordinarily popular across Egypt in the 12th 14th centuries Contemporary Rationalist Islam in Turkey Gokhan Bacik, 2021-07-29 Nineteenth century Islambul was an intellectual hub of rich discussions about Islam in which leading reformists had a significant role Turkey today appears to be an intellectual vacuum to anyone searching for ongoing critical engagement with Islam The main purpose of this book is to adjust this view of Turkey by showcasing the modern Turkish theologians who challenge mainstream Sunni interpretations of Islam Labelling these theologians as rationalist rather than reformist the author reveals that their theology is inherently anti establishment and thus a religiously oriented challenge to the hegemony of the state sanctioned Islam for the rationalists Turkey's problems have their origins in the Sunni interpretation of Islam Contemporary Rationalist Islam in Turkey analyses nine prominent scholars of Islam who provide a religious opposition to the Sunni revival in Turkey H seyin Atay Yasar Nuri zt rk M Hayri Kirbasoglu Ilhami G ler R Ihsan Elia ik mer zsoy Mustafa zt rk Israfil Balci and Mehmet Azimli These scholars writings are almost exclusively published in Turkish so this book makes their ideas available in English for the first time It also examines the scope methodology and argumentation of the scholars theology categorizing their theological interpretations from historicist to universalist and from empiricist to rationalist In identifying a new rationalist school of Turkish theology and outlining its different manifestations the book breaks new ground It fills a significant gap in the literature on Islamic studies and reveals an understudied dimension of Turkey and Turkish Islam beyond the well known ideas of the AKP and the Gulenists Hajj to the Heart Scott Kugle, 2021-12-28 Against the sweeping backdrop of South Asian history this is a story of journeys taken by sixteenth century reformist Muslim scholars and Sufi mystics from India to Arabia At the center is the influential Sufi scholar Shaykh Ali Muttagi and his little known network of disciples Scott Kugle relates how Ali Muttaqi an expert in Arabic scriptural hermeneutics and hadith left his native South Asia and traversed treacherous seas to make the Hajj to Mecca Settling in Mecca he continued to influence his homeland from overseas Kugle draws on his original translations of Arabic and Persian manuscripts never before available in English to trace Ali Muttaqi s devotional writings revealing how the Hajj transformed his spiritual life and political loyalties. The story expands across three generations of peripatetic Sufi masters in the Mutaggi lineage as they travel for purposes of pilgrimage scholarship and sometimes simply for survival along Indian Ocean maritime routes linking global Muslim communities Exploring the political intrigue scholarly debates and diverse social milieus that shaped the colorful personalities of his Sufi subjects Kugle argues for the importance of Indian Sufi thought in the study of hadith and of ethics in Islam We are proud to announce that this book is freely available in an open access enhanced edition thanks to TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem a collaboration of the Association of American Universities the Association of University Presses and the Association of Research Libraries and the generous support of Emory University and the Andrew W Mellon Foundation Learn more at the TOME website openmonographs org The open access enhanced edition of Hajj to the Heart can be found here https manifold ecds emory edu projects hajj to the heart Seljuqs Christian Lange, 2012-10-03 Despite the many important developments and innovations traceable to the Seljug period 5th 7th 11th 13th centuries the Seljugs remain one of the understudied Muslim dynasties This unique collaborative exploration of the Seljugs achievement contributes to the growing interest in this pivotal dynasty The various chapters in this volume cover a representative geographical spectrum from Central Asia and Persia to Iraq Syria and Anatolia and address novel questions such as the ideological foundations and ritual expressions of Seljug power the mutual attitudes of the learned classes and the Seljug state the organization of space and the relationship between nomads and the settled peoples The book is divided into three parts the origins of the Seljugs their gradual transformation into a powerful dynasty and their concepts of political legitimization part one the social history of the Seljug period particularly with regard to the ulama and the urban populations part two developments in religious thought jurisprudence belles lettres and architecture under the Seljugs part three Key Features Brings together the work of leading international experts in Seljug studies including C E Bosworth Massimo Campanini Carole Hillenbrand Robert Hillenbrand Jurgen Paul Andrew C S Peacock and Scott Redford Critically engages with previous scholarly work on the Seljugs Addresses novel questions and challenges in the historiography of the Seljug period Pays particular attention to the Seljugs formative influence on later socio political orders Sufism in an Age of Transition Erik Ohlander, 2008-02-28 Although the early thirteenth century was a critical period in the development of Sufism it has received little scholarly attention Based on heretofore unexplored sources this book examines a pivotal figure from this period the scholar mystic statesman and eponym of one of the earliest ar ga lineages Umar al Suhraward In situating Suhraward's life work in its social political and religious contexts this book suggests that his universalizing Sufi system was not only enmeshed within a broader economy of Muslim religious learning but also furnished social spaces which allowed for novel modes of participation in Sufi religiosity In doing so this book provides a framework for understanding the increasingly ubiquitous presence of intentional Sufi communities and institutions throughout the late medieval Islamic world Patterns Legitimizing Political Violence in Transcultural Perspectives Bettina Koch, 2015-05-19 This volume explores theoretical discourses in which religion is used to legitimize political violence It examines the ways in which Christianity and Islam are utilized for political ends in particular how violence is used or abused as an expedient to justify political action This research focuses on premodern as well as contemporary discourses in the Middle East and Latin America identifying patterns frequently used to justify the deployment of violence in both hegemonic and anti hegemonic discourses In addition it explores how premodern arguments and authorities are utilized and transformed in order to legitimize contemporary violence as well as the ways in which the use of religion as a means to justify violence alters the nature of conflicts that are not otherwise explicitly religious It argues that most past and present conflicts even if the discourses about them are conducted in religious terms have origins other than religion and or blend religion with other causes namely socio economic and political injustice and inequality Understanding the use and abuse of religion to justify violence is a prerequisite to discerning the nature of a conflict and might thus contribute to conflict resolution Seeing God in Sufi Qur'an Commentaries Pieter Coppens, 2018-06-06 The first in depth study of the concept of the vision of God in Sufi eschatology not only focusing on the hereafter but also on this worldly

S. Ayubi,2019-07-30 Islamic scriptural sources offer potentially radical notions of equality Yet medieval Islamic philosophers chose to establish a hierarchical male centered virtue ethics In Gendered Morality Zahra Ayubi rethinks the tradition of Islamic philosophical ethics from a feminist critical perspective She calls for a philosophical turn in the study of gender in Islam based on resources for gender equality that are unlocked by feminist engagement with the Islamic ethical tradition Developing a lens for a feminist philosophy of Islam Ayubi analyzes constructions of masculinity femininity and gender relations in classic works of philosophical ethics In close readings of foundational texts by Abu Hamid Muhammad al Ghazali Nasir ad Din Tusi and Jalal ad Din Davani she interrogates how these thinkers conceive of the ethical human being as an elite male within a hierarchical cosmology built on the exclusion of women and nonelites Yet in the course of prescribing ethical behavior the ethicists speak of complex gendered and human relations that contradict their hierarchies Their metaphysical premises about the nature of the divine humanity and moral responsibility indicate a potential egalitarian core Gendered Morality offers a vital and disruptive new perspective on patriarchal Islamic ethics and metaphysics showing the ways in which the philosophical tradition can support the aims of gender justice and human flourishing
