

THE POLITICS of SUNSHINE

"It is just too bad that from Bremer's writing about the real conditions, complications, and limitations of the survival of the circus, the arts and budgets of the period and the consequences, particularly in Europe, that goes a long way towards being to understanding more the reality, both the working of the national companies by the 1930s and the general economic and social conditions. Bremer is not quite as clear as other books in this area."
