Politics Of Sikh Homeland 1940-1999:

Politics of Sikh Homeland, 1940-1990 Gopal Singh, 1994 It Is About The History And Politics Of The Demand For A Homeland For A Minority Community The Sikhs 6 Chapters Introduction From Bhakti To Shakti Complexities Military Terrorism And State Terrorism Though The Prison Of Field Study The Conclusion 18 Appendices The Sikh Diaspora Darshan Singh Tatla, 1999 Explores the relationship between home and host states and between migrant and indigenous Sikh communities considering the implications of the history and politics of the Sikh diaspora for nationality citizenship and sovereignty Sikh Nationalism and Identity in a Global Age Giorgio Shani, 2008 Sikh Nationalism and Identity in a Global Age examines the construction of a Sikh national identity in post colonial India and the diaspora and explores the reasons for the failure of the movement for an independent Sikh state Khalistan Based on a decade of research it is argued that the failure of the movement to bring about a sovereign Sikh state should not be interpreted as resulting from the weakness of the communal ties which bind members of the Sikh nation together but points to the transformation of national identity under conditions of globalization Globalization is perceived to have severed the link between nation and state and through the proliferation and development of Information and Communications Technologies ICTs has facilitated the articulation of a transnational diasporic Sikh identity It is argued that this diasporic identity potentially challenges the conventional narratives of international relations and makes the imagination of a post Westphalian community possible Theoretically innovative and interdisciplinary in approach it will be primarily of interest to students of South Asian studies political science and international relations as well as to many others trying to come to terms with the continued importance of religious and cultural identities in times of rapid political economic social and cultural change
