Politics and Administration in Nigeria 'Ladipo Adamolekun,1993 State-Directed Development Atul

Kohli,2004-08-30 Why have some developing country states been more successful at facilitating industrialization than others An answer to this question is developed by focusing both on patterns of state construction and intervention aimed at promoting industrialization Four countries are analyzed in detail South Korea Brazil India and Nigeria over the twentieth century The states in these countries varied from cohesive capitalist mainly in Korea through fragmented multiclass mainly in India to neo patrimonial mainly in Nigeria It is argued that cohesive capitalist states have been most effective at promoting industrialization and neo patrimonial states the least The performance of fragmented multiclass states falls somewhere in the middle After explaining in detail as to why this should be so the study traces the origins of these different state types historically emphasizing the role of different types of colonialisms in the process of state construction in the developing world

Representative Bureaucracy, Meritocracy, and Nation Building in Nigeria Bola Dauda,Toyin Falola,2015-12-18 This book is a comprehensive theoretical and empirical investigation of the practical application of representative bureaucracy in Nigeria Part I consists of four chapters beginning with a theoretical and an historical overview of representative bureaucracy and policy making in Nigeria This includes a discussion of the myths contradictions and the resultant dilemmas of administration It highlights the complexities and intricacies of public policy making and examines the concept of representative bureaucracy including its meaning forms criticisms prospects limitations and history It also examines the need for administrative reforms what reforms have taken place and the country s search for appropriate bureaucracy for nation building Part II details the objective and empirical facts regarding the representativeness of bureaucracy in Nigeria and its implications Unlike past approaches this book provides solid evidence of what difference representative bureaucracy actually makes on the ground Using a novel and rigorous methodological approach the actual impact of the civil service on policy making is assessed and insights are provided into how a more representative bureaucracy affects policy The approach is enhanced by the authors advantage as Nigerian scholars who had both worked in the Nigerian political system as civil servant and university professors This landmark study will be of value to scholars and students of Nigerian and African political economic and social development The Politics of African and Middle Eastern States Anne Gordon
