Politics And Class Formation In Uganda:

Politics and Class Formation in Uganda Mahmood Mamdani, 1976      African Capitalism Paul T. Kennedy, Paul M. Kennedy, 1988-09-30 This 1988 book provides an analysis of African capitalism which offers a positive view of its role

Double Dependency and Constraints on Class Formation in Bugisu, Uganda Stephen G. Bunker, 1983      A Good African Story Andrew Rugasira, 2013-02-07 Since it was founded in 2003 Good African Coffee has helped thousands of farmers earn a decent living send their children to school and escape a spiral of debt and dependence Africa has received over 1 trillion in aid over the last fifty years and yet despite these huge inflows the continent remains mired in poverty disease and systemic corruption In A Good African Story as Andrew Rugasira recounts the very personal story of his company and the challenges that he has faced and overcome as an African entrepreneur he provides a tantalising glimpse of what Africa could be and argues that trade has achieved what years of aid have failed to deliver This is a book about Africa taking its destiny in its own hands and dictating the terms of its future

Colonial Legacies and Regime Hegemony in Uganda Joshua B. Rubongoya, 2025-05-13 This book explains the prevalence of electoral authoritarianism or multi party autocracy in the politics of sub Saharan Africa and examines why repeated elections have not deepened democracy Using Uganda as a case study the book examines the hegemonic regimes that underpin electoral authoritarian regimes in the context of a colonial legacy Employing a historical institutionalist approach the author considers independence struggles as formative moments and the nationalist period as a critical juncture in Uganda s historical experience The analysis posits that the structure and dynamic of political organization participation adopted in the run up to independence and the responses by the colonial state laid the ground for movement politics and a path toward post colonial autocratic rule Shedding light on how to deconstruct movement politics and consolidate democracy in Africa this book will be of interest to scholars of African politics and democratization

Uganda: A Modern History Jan Jelmert Jørgensen, 2023-10-09 Uganda A Modern History 1981 provides a comprehensive political social and economic history of Uganda from the beginnings of colonial rule in 1888 It focuses particularly on the development of the Ugandan economy and demonstrates how the economy became structurally dependent on world capitalism during the colonial period and how this has affected its subsequent development The book also deals with the political and social tendencies which shaped Ugandan society in both the colonial and postcolonial period The first four chapters examine the initial colonial occupation and the colonial state s role in the rural nexus of chiefs peasants and migrant workers They also look at the colonial state and the context of the wider national regional and international economy and analyse the African nationalist response and the formation of political parties to take control of the postcolonial state The second part of the book considers the political alliances and economic strategies of the Obote regime and the events of Amin s military regime The epilogue looks at events since the fall of the Amin regime and suggests ways in which Uganda may be able to tackle its underlying economic problems

Crisis of Legitimacy and Political Violence in Uganda, 1890 to

1979 Ogenga Otunnu, 2016-12-26 This book demonstrates that societies experiencing prolonged and severe crises of legitimacy are prone to intense and persistent political violence The most significant factor accounting for the persistence of intense political violence in Uganda is the severe crisis of legitimacy of the state its institutions political incumbents and their challengers This crisis of legitimacy which is shaped by both internal and external forces past and present accounts for the remarkable continuity in the history of political violence since the construction of the state Decolonising State and Society in Uganda Katherine Bruce-Lockhart, Jonathon L. Earle, Nakanyike Musisi, Edgar C. Taylor, 2022 Key book on the debates surrounding the knowledge economy and decolonialization of African Studies that brings the subject up to date for the 21st century Decolonization of knowledge has become a major issue in African Studies in recent years brought to the fore by social movements such as RhodesMustFall and BlackLivesMatter This timely book explores the politics and disputed character of knowledge production in colonial and postcolonial Uganda where efforts to generate forms of knowledge and solidarity that transcend colonial epistemologies draw on long histories of resistance and refusal Bringing together scholars from Africa Europe and North America the contributors in this volume analyse how knowledge has been created mobilized and contested across a wide range of Ugandan contexts In so doing they reveal how Ugandans have built disputed and reimagined institutions of authority and knowledge production in ways that disrupt the colonial frames that continue to shape scholarly analyses and state structures From the politics of language and gender in Bakiga naming practices to ways of knowing among the Acholi the hampering of critical scholarship by militarism and authoritarianism and debates over the names of streets lakes mountains and other public spaces this book shows how scholars and a wide range of Ugandan activists are reimagining the politics of knowledge in Ugandan public life Uganda, 1996 Post Report, 1996

Statecraft and Nation Building in Africa Godfrey Mwakikagile, 2014-04-21 This is a study of statecraft and nation building in Africa in the post colonial era Subjects covered include early years of independence state legitimacy constitutional primacy institutional transformation autocracy quest for democracy national integration consolidation of the state and others It focuses on case studies whose relevance is continental in scope Ethnicity In Modern Africa Brian M. du Toit, 2019-04-11 The fifteen essays written for this volume reflect the increasing importance for social scientists of ethnic rather than physical or tribal criteria for classifying modern population groups The authors from South Africa the United States South West Africa Namibia Nigeria and Scotland cover most of Africa south of the Sahara They consider the range from large national population groupings to small scale societies attempting to maintain their social boundaries and discuss such topics as emergent nationalism ethnic divisiveness social distance voluntary association and the role of women The first section is concerned with particular communities peoples and ethnic groups and treats traditional tribal groupings as well as communities delineated on phenotypic grounds In the second section the focus turns to modern situations of interaction the two major themes discussed here are situational ethnicity and situational realignment The third section deals with color one of the physical criteria of ethnic identification here the authors discuss the political and legal implications of a system based on color The last essay reports on current changes in attitude and organization within the countries of white ruled southern Africa

Black Africa Robert C. Mitchell, Donald G. Morrison, John N. Paden, 1989-07-17 Black Africa presents political economic and social data for 41 black African nations The first edition was published in 1972 and included only data on 32 countries which was the total number of independent African nations at that time Enlarging on the first edition this second edition covers in detail important aspects of the countries included from demography to political development and social mobilization to a modern comparative analysis of African states Black Africa is a complete and comprehensive handbook The first edition of Black Africa won a Book of the Year Award from the American Library Association

Global Taxation Philipp Genschel, Laura Seelkopf, 2022 The volume analyses the rise of modern taxation around the world from the late eighteenth century to today It is based on a new Tax Introduction Dataset that records the historical dates of first adoption of six key taxes of the modern state in 220 countries worldwide 1750 2018 The taxes include personal and corporate income tax inheritance tax social security contributions as well as general sales taxes and VAT Based on these data the chapters map the diffusion of modern taxation across space time tax and mode of tax adoption sovereign or colonial They explore the applicability of Western theories of fiscal development to non Western contexts They highlight the role of colonial tax introductions for fiscal development and state formation in Africa and Asia And they compare the correlates of tax introduction across time and across different types of tax Publisher's description

Quest for Equality Robert G. Gregory, 1993 A Study Of The Role Of Immigrants From The Indian Subcontinent In The Development Of Political Consciousness In Kenya Tanganyika Uganda And Zanzibar The Author Believes That With Their Great Economic Strength Industriousness And Ability To Articulate The Asians Played A Pivotal Role In The Transition Of These Countries From Colonies To Independent States This Is Apparently The First Book Which Comprehensively Covers The Role Of Asians In East African History Until Independence Came To These Territories

Uganda Thomas P Ofcansky, 2018-05-04 This book provides an overview of Uganda a country that represents the hope and despair of modern Africa It deals with a brief examination of the factors and themes that have influenced Uganda's historical development focusing mainly on the postindependence period

Insecurities of Expulsion Anneeth Kaur Hundle, 2025-05-02 In 1972 Ugandan president Idi Amin expelled close to 80 000 South Asians of Ugandan heritage from the country by dictatorial decree In Insecurities of Expulsion Anneeth Kaur Hundle revisits this weighty historical event arguing that it is neither an exceptional nor a parochial event neither a result of primordial Afro South Asian racial conflict nor an opening into a redemptive search for Afro South Asian interracial solidarities Hundle explores the aftermaths and continuous nature of the expulsion event examining its effects and affects the images representations and differentiated experiences and memories of the event and the tense and ambivalent practices of citizenship sovereignty and governance that have emerged in the decades following the expulsion

She examines Afro Asian entanglements in what she describes as transcontinental Uganda through the lenses of race ethnicity class caste religion gender and sexuality Throughout Hundle argues for stronger attention to knowledge production on global Afro South Asian connections and the continued dynamics of community citizenship and identity on the African Continent as central to envisioning Black African self determinism racial reconciliation and interracial pluralisms during shifting imperial postcolonial nationalist and geopolitical times

Land Grabbing in Africa Fassil Demissie, 2017-10-02 The sign that Africa is on Sale has been appearing with regular frequency in major newspaper accounts across the world indicating that large amounts expanses of Africa s rich farmlands are being sold to transnational investors usually on long term leases at a rate not seen in decades indeed not since the colonial period Transnational and national economic actors from various business sectors oil and auto mining and forestry food and chemical bioenergy etc are eagerly acquiring or declaring their intention to acquire large areas of land on which to build maintain or extend large scale extractive and agro industrial enterprises to help secure their own food and energy needs into the future This book provides a critical appraisal of the growing phenomenon of land grabbing in Africa Far from being a technical issue associated good governance the problem of land grabbing by transnational corporation and states is a serious threat for the food security of millions of Africans and is undoubtedly one of the great challenges of our time for development on the continent The case studies illustrate that African states are also complicit in the massive land grabbing by actively participating in isolated development while excluding the local communities The case studies reveal key features that characterize how the global land grab plays out in specific localities in Africa This book was published as a special issue of African Identities

Religious and Ethical Perspectives on Global Migration Elizabeth W. Collier, Charles R. Strain, 2014-06-05 Religious and Ethical Perspectives on Global Migration examines the complicated social ethics of migration in today s world Editors Elizabeth W Collier and Charles R Strain bring the perspectives of an international group of scholars toward a theory of justice and ethical understanding for the nearly two hundred million migrants who have left their homes seeking asylum from political persecution greater freedom and safety economic opportunity or reunion with family members Migrants move out of fear desperation hope love for their families or a myriad of other complex motivations Faced with both the needs and flows of people and the walls that impede them what actions ought we both individually and collectively take What is the moral responsibility of those of us in particular who reside comfortably in our native lands There is no univocal response to these questions Instead multiple perspectives on migration must be examined This book begins by looking at different geographic regions around the world and highlighting particular issues within each Finding that religious traditions represent the strongest countervailing sources of values to the homogenizing tendencies of economic globalization the study then offers a plurality of religious perspectives The final chapters examine the salient issues and the proposed solutions that have emerged specifically within the U S context These studies range from militarization of the U S border with Mexico to the impact of migrants on native born low skilled workers Encompassing a wide range of cultural and scholarly voices Religious and Ethical Perspectives on Global Migration provides insight for ethics moral philosophy social and political philosophy religious studies social justice globalization and identity formation Transitional Justice in Comparative Perspective Samar El-Masri, Tammy Lambert, Joanna R. Quinn, 2020-01-17 What if we could change the conditions in post conflict post authoritarian countries to make transitional justice work better This book argues that if the context in countries in need of transitional justice can be ameliorated before processes of transitional justice are established they are more likely to meet with success As the contributors reveal this can be done in different ways At the attitudinal level changing the broader social ethos can improve the chances that societies will be more receptive to transitional justice At the institutional level the capacity of mechanisms and institutions can be strengthened to offer more support to transitional justice processes Drawing on lessons learned in Colombia Democratic Republic of the Congo The Gambia Lebanon Palestine and Uganda the book explores ways to better the conditions in post conflict post authoritarian countries to improve the success of transitional justice Uganda's Human Resource Challenge Jörg Wiegratz, 2009 Despite significant economic recovery and improved macro economic indicators since 1986 Uganda's economy continues to face considerable challenges This book analyses the relationship between economic and human resource development in the country It identifies deficits in capabilities skills know how experience linkage building and technology use as well as undesirable business practices These shortcomings limit economic diversification productivity enhancement job and income creation as well as poverty reduction The book calls for more efforts towards human resource development The current narrow mainstream economic policy focus on macro economic stability a favourable investment climate and improved physical infrastructure alone will not foster economic development and broad based well being The Ugandan people and the private sector need more state support in addition to the predominant education and health focus of the government and donors if they are to develop the required human resources More and better training enhanced learning at the place of work and an improved business culture are vital It is essential to focus on technical organisational managerial entrepreneurial learning innovative social and institutional capabilities Efforts towards dealing with these challenges will require attention to the political economic climate of the country To make the argument the author covers a wide range of topics such as training and learning technology productivity latecomer development competitiveness labour market MSMEs entrepreneurship value chains cooperation and trust and human resource management The book contains more than 130 figures tables and information boxes See more at <http://www.africanbookscollective.com/books/ugandas-human-resource-challenge-sthash4XThRHxq.dpuf>
