Decolonization, Development and Knowledge in Africa Sabelo J.

Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2020-04-30 This provocative book is anchored on the insurgent and resurgent spirit of decolonization of the twenty first century The author calls upon Africa to turn over a new leaf in the domains of politics economy and knowledge as it frees itself from imperial global designs and global coloniality With a focus on Africa and its Diaspora the author calls for a radical turning over of a new leaf predicated on decolonial turn and epistemic freedom The key themes subjected to decolonial analysis include 1 decolonization decoloniality articulating the meaning and contribution of the decolonial turn 2 subjectivity identity examining the problem of Blackness identity as external and internal invention 3 the Bandung spirit of decolonization as an embodiment of resistance and possibilities development and self improvement 4 development and self improvement of African political economy as entangled in the colonial matrix of power and the African Renaissance as weakened by undecolonized political and economic thought and 5 knowledge the role of African humanities in the struggle for epistemic freedom This groundbreaking volume opens the intellectual canvas on the challenges and possibilities of African futures It will be of great interest to students and scholars of Politics and International Relations Development Sociology African Studies Black Studies Education History Postcolonial Studies and the emerging field of Decolonial Studies

Commissioning and Contesting Post-Apartheid's Human Rights Ulrike Kistner, 2003 The essays compiled in this book take issue with some of the directions of human rights politics in the immediate post apartheid period They look at the relationship between different sets of rights within the political contestations in South Africa To the terms of social struggles for rights and justice this book brings perspectives from narrative psychoanalysis political philosophy and medical history and from the history of national liberation struggles nationalism and citizenship Fortifications, Post-colonialism and Power João Sarmiento, 2016-04-15 For more than 500 years the Portuguese built or adapted fortifications along the coasts of Africa Asia and South America At a macro scale mapping this network of power reveals a gigantic territorial and colonial project Forts articulated the colonial and the metropolitan and functioned as nodes in a mercantile empire shaping early forms of capitalism transforming the global political economy and generating a flood of images and ideas on an unprecedented scale Today they can be understood as active material legacies of empire that represent promises dangers and possibilities Forts are marks and wounds of the history of human violence but also timely reminders that buildings never last forever testimonies of the fluidity of the material world Illustrated by case studies in Morocco Cape Verde S o Tom and Pr ncipe and Kenya this book examines how this global but chameleonic network of forts can offer valuable insights into both the geopolitics of Empire and their postcolonial legacies and into the intersection of colonialism memory power and space in the postcolonial Lusophone world and beyond Disposable Cities Garth Andrew Myers, 2017-03-02 Based on in depth fieldwork in three cities Dar es Salaam Zanzibar and Lusaka this book provides a critical analysis of the United Nations Sustainable Cities Program in Africa SCP Focusing on the SCP s policies for solid waste management which was identified as the top priority problem by the SCP the book examines the success of these pilot schemes and the SCP s record in building new relationships between people and government It argues that the SCP has operated in a political vacuum without recognition of the long and problematic histories and cultural politics of urban environmental governance in Eastern and Southern Africa This book brings these cultural and political histories to the fore in its examination of the contemporary dynamics In doing so it not only provides an insightful analysis of the policies and outcomes for the SCP but also puts forward a historically grounded critique of neoliberalism good governance and sustainable development discourses Domination Through Law Mohamed Sesay, 2021-01-29 Winner of the 2021 Lee Ann Fujii Book Award International Studies Association The positive effects of rule of law norms and institutions are often assumed in the fields of global governance and international development with empirical work focusing more on the challenges of using law to engineer social change abroad Questioning this assumption the book contends that purportedly good rule of law standards do not always deliver benign benefits but rather often have negative consequences that harm the very local constituents which rule of law promoters promise to help In particular the book argues that rule of law promotion in post colonial societies reinforces socioeconomic and political inequality which disproportionately favors dominant actors who have the wealth education and influence to navigate the state legal system In addition to an historical account of legal development in settler colonial environments this argument is also drawn from a comparative study which focuses on the UK supported justice sector development programs in Sierra Leone and the US funded rule of law projects in Liberia Faith and Freedom in Galatia and Senegal Aliou Cissé Niang, 2009-05-20 Faith and Freedom in Galatia and Senegal reads Galatians 2 11 15 and 3 26 29 through the lens of the 19th 20th century experiences of French colonialism by the Diola people in Senegal West Africa and portrays the Apostle Paul as a sociopostcolonial hermeneut who acted on his self understanding as God s messenger to create through faith in the cross of Christ free communities a self definition that is critical of ancient Graeco Roman and modern colonial lore that justify colonization as a divine mandate Aliou C Niang ingeniously compares the colonial objectification of his own people by French colonists to the Graeco Roman colonial objectifications of the ancient Celts Gauls Galatians and Paul s role in bringing about a different portrayal Conversations in Philosophy F. Ochieng'-Odhiambo,2009-10-02
