Politics Of Development And Women In Afghanistan:

Politics of Development and Women in Afghanistan Hafizullah Emadi,1997 Dynamics of Political Development in Afghanistan H. Emadi,2010-10-18 This book examines how dependent development and struggles for power within and outside the state apparatus led to formation of alliances with imperial powers and how the latter used these alliances to manipulate political development in Afghanistan to their own advantage A New Politics of Heritage Reconstruction in Afghanistan Constance Wyndham,2023-12-22 A New Politics of Heritage Reconstruction in Afghanistan investigates the politics of cultural heritage preservation in Afghanistan between 2008 and 2015 Based on several periods of ethnographic fieldwork and the author's direct employment on several internationally sponsored heritage projects this book studies the new and complex intersections between cultural heritage and politics in Afghanistan Wyndham argues that a particular configuration of heritage and politics has emerged after the destruction of the Buddhas at Bamiyan and demonstrates how the characteristics of this post Bamiyan heritage paradigm are revealed through a number of case studies of internationally sponsored heritage work These case studies reveal how politics and heritage are currently configured across a diverse range of governments state and non state actors NGOs individuals and forms of expertise and why such intersections matter The book responds to a call from across the discipline of Heritage Studies to look more closely at the relationships between heritage power and politics A New Politics of Heritage Reconstruction in Afghanistan provides a fascinating case study on the intersection of heritage and politics that will be of interest to students and scholars of heritage as well as to professionals working on heritage preservation both within and outside of government Afghanistan: Politics, Elections, and Government Performance ,2009 In the context of a review of U S strategy in Afghanistan during September November 2009 the performance and legitimacy of the Afghan government figured prominently In his December 1 2009 speech announcing a way forward in Afghanistan President Obama stated that the Afghan government would be judged on performance and The days of providing a blank check are over The policy statement was based in part on an assessment of the security situation furnished by the top commander in Afghanistan General Stanley McChrystal which warned of potential mission failure unless a fully resourced classic counterinsurgency strategy is employed That counterinsurgency effort is deemed to require a legitimate Afghan partner The Afghan government's limited writ and widespread official corruption are believed by U S officials to be helping sustain a Taliban insurgency and complicating international efforts to stabilize Afghanistan At the same time President Hamid Karzai has through compromise with faction leaders been able to confine ethnic disputes to political competition enabling his government to focus on trying to win over those members of the ethnic Pashtun community that support Taliban and other insurgents Afghanistan Jonathan L. Lee,2022-03-08 A colossal history of Afghanistan from its earliest organization into a coherent state up to its turbulent present Located at the intersection of Asia and the Middle East Afghanistan has been strategically important for thousands of years Its ancient routes and strategic position between India Inner Asia China Persia and beyond has meant the region has been subject to frequent invasions both peaceful and military As a result modern Afghanistan is a culturally and ethnically diverse country but one divided by conflict political instability and by mass displacements of its people In this magisterial illustrated history Jonathan L Lee tells the story of how a small tribal confederacy in a politically and culturally significant but volatile region became a modern nation state Drawing on more than forty years of study Lee places the current conflict in Afghanistan in its historical context and challenges many of the West's preconceived ideas about the country Focusing particularly on the powerful Durrani monarchy which united the country in 1747 and ruled for nearly two and a half centuries Lee chronicles the origins of the dynasty as clients of Safavid Persia and Mughal India the reign of each ruler and their efforts to balance tribal ethnic regional and religious factions the struggle for social and constitutional reform and the rise of Islamic and Communist factions Along the way he offers new cultural and political insights from Persian histories the memoirs of Afghan government officials British government and India Office archives and recently released CIA reports and Wikileaks documents He also sheds new light on the country's foreign relations its internal power struggles and the impact of foreign military interventions such as the War on Terror

Legalization of International Law and Politics Henry (Chip) Carey, Stacey M. Mitchell, 2023-01-01 This book provides an expanded conceptualization of legalization that focuses on implementation of obligation precision and delegation at the international and domestic levels of politics By adding domestic politics and the actors to the international level of analysis the authors add the insights of Kenneth Waltz Graham Allison and Louis Henkin to understand why most international law is developed and observed most of the time However the authors argue that law breaking and law distorting occurs as a part of negative legalization Consequently the book offers a framework for understanding how international law both produces and undermines order and justice The authors also draw from realist liberal constructivist cosmopolitan and critical theories to analyse how legalization can both build and or undermine consensus which results in either positive or negative legalization of international law The authors argue that legalization is a process over time and not just a snapshot in time

HC 994 - Afghanistan Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Defence Committee, 2014-05-13 This report expresses the hope that the new President of Afghanistan will move swiftly to sign the Bilateral Security Agreement and Status of Forces Agreement in order to confirm the legal basis on which international forces will operate in Afghanistan post 2014 If a new ISAF Status of Forces Agreement is signed in addition to the UK military training mission other UK Government Departments will also be conducting activities in Afghanistan The ability of these agencies to operate will be determined by what is likely to be an uneven security situation and there needs to be assurance that a cross government response to ensure a Comprehensive Approach to the work of all UK Government Departments and agencies in Afghanistan will be maintained The potential for post election conflict in Afghanistan will be heavily influenced by the extent to which the unsuccessful candidates accept the results and the extent to which those who are successful are able to develop consent for Afghan security forces to secure the country to allow it to develop Lasting peace in Afghanistan can only be achieved through a process of reconciliation with the Taliban This particular Inquiry has examined the progress of withdrawal of UK forces and equipment the expected assistance to the Afghan National Security Forces after 2014 the impact on Afghanistan of the new Government in Pakistan and UK relations with Afghanistan and Pakistan after 2014 House of Commons - Foreign Affairs Committee: the FCO's Human Rights Work in 2012 - HC 267

Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs Committee, 2013-10-17 The FCO was timid and inconsistent in the discussions which led to the decision to award to Sri Lanka the right to host the 2013 CHOGM It should have taken a more robust approach since in the light of continuing human rights abuses in the country In 2009 the FCO objected to Sri Lanka hosting the 2011 CHOGM but did not obstruct a proposal that it might do so in 2013 nor did it insist that Sri Lanka's right to host in 2013 should be conditional on improvements in human rights The Committee took evidence from the BBC World Service on jamming and denial of access to its broadcast and internet services particularly in Iran and China The Committee calls on the BBC to recognise in future funding plans the need to provide the resources necessary to afford protection All providers of satellite services have a commercial interest in defeating jamming The report considers Government policy on human rights in Burma and concludes that the EU's decision to lift economic sanctions in April 2013 was the right one given the remarkable progress made in Burma But it warns that the UK should be prepared to advocate re imposition of sanctions if undertakings on human rights are not followed through The Government should also urge condemnation of those responsible for violence in Rakhine State in 2012 The Committee does not support suggestions that the 2014 Winter Olympic and Paralympic Games should be boycotted in protest against human rights abuses in Russia
