The Politics of Development Co-operation Lisa Aubrey, 2002-11-01 First Published in 2004 The Politics of Development Cooperation interrogates the politics of interorganizational development cooperation examining issues of power autonomy and dependence Focusing on Kenya and in particular on Maendeleo Ya Wanawake MYWO the largest national women s organization and its partners in its relational environment this book probes the relationships between foreign donors grassroots development organizations and governments Aubrey examines whether it is possible for the North and the developing world to be engaged in genuine development partnerships the influence resource contributions financial and technical have on agenda formulation and compromises and whether organizations such as MYWO are truly NGOs as they claim to be or whether they remain an extension of the state exploited by patriarchal party politics Gender is central to the analysis of this book with issues reflecting and reintroducing the politics of unequal resources in development cooperative partnerships Differences in status among women are also systematically examined because the politics of development affect elite and grassroots women differently

The Politics of NGOs in Indonesia Bob S. Hadiwinata, 2003-08-29 This book deals with two major issues how Indonesian NGOs survived under Suharto s authoritarian rule and how NGOs contributed to the promotion of democracy in the post Suharto era If NGOs are to change from development to movement in democratic post Suharto Indonesia they must adjust not only their management and working style but also their very ideology This comprehensive study will be an important book for scholars interested in Asian studies Indonesian politics and development studies

Women and the Remaking of Politics in Southern Africa Gisela G. Geisler, 2004 This study looks at womens struggle in Southern Africa where the last ten years have seen the most pervasive success stories on the African continent Tracing the history of womens involvement in anti colonial struggles and against apartheid the book analyses post colonial outcomes and examines the strategies employed by womens movements to gain a foothold in politics

Kenya Shadrack W. Nasong'o, Godwin R. Murunga, 2013-07-18 The path towards democracy in Kenya has been long and often tortuous Though it has been trumpeted as a goal for decades democratic government has never been fully realised largely as a result of the authoritarian excesses of the Kenyatta Moi and Kibaki regimes This uniquely comprehensive study of Kenya s political trajectory shows how the struggle for democracy has been waged in civil society through opposition parties and amongst traditionally marginalised groups like women and the young It also considers the remaining impediments to democratisation in the form of a powerful police force and damaging structural adjustment policies Thus the authors argue democratisation in Kenya is a laborious and non linear process Kenyans recent electoral successes the book concludes have empowered them and reinvigorated the prospects for democracy heralding a more autonomous and peaceful twenty first century

Development Poverty and Politics Richard Martin, Ashna

Reinventing Development Lord Mawuko-Yevugah, 2016-04-08 Global development actors such as the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund claim that the shift to the poverty reduction strategy framework and emphasis on local participation address the social cost of earlier adjustment programs and help put aid receiving countries back in control of their own development agenda Drawing on the case of Ghana Lord Mawuko Yevugah argues that this shift and the emphasis on partnerships between donors and poor countries local participation and country ownership simultaneously represents a substantive departure from earlier versions of neo liberalism and an attempt by global development actors and local governing and social elites to justify and legitimize the neo liberal policy paradigm This book shows how the new architecture of aid has important implications in three distinct but related ways the discursive construction and production of post colonial societies the changing focus of Western aid and development policy interventions and the reproduction of the politics of inclusive exclusion The author provides detailed and original research on the new development paradigm and develops a critical theoretical approach to re think conventional analyses of the new discourses on aid whilst offering a fresh alternative interpretation of changes in international aid relations

Gender, Family and Work in Tanzania Colin Creighton, C.K. Omari, 2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 The essays in this volume explore the changing nature of family and gender relations in contemporary Tanzania Particular attention is paid to the social construction of marriage and to the interplay of family life and gender relations with economic processes and forms of work Many of the papers are based upon recent ethnographic and survey research others provide a much needed historical perspective upon the change in family patterns and upon the ways in which gender and family relations are shaped by and in turn help to shape wider social institutions and processes

Gender and Diversity Issues in Religious-Based Institutions and Organizations Glimps, Blanche Jackson, Ford, Theron, 2015-09-10 As religions grow and evolve they adapt to their current circumstances with new ideologies often deviating dramatically from their roots The variety of religious institutions in modern society necessitates a focus on diversity and inclusiveness in the interactions between organizations of different religions cultures and viewpoints Gender and Diversity Issues in Religious Based Institutions and Organizations elucidates the impact of gender identity and race within religious based institutions and organizations Policymakers academicians researchers government officials and religious leaders will find this text useful in furthering their research related to inclusiveness and diversity in their respective roles This essential reference source builds on the available literature on gender and diversity issues in religious based settings and contexts with chapters relating to race relations in the Churches of Christ the role of women in religious movements in Latin America gay straight alliances at religious based colleges and universities and lessons and insights for religious institutions and faculty

A Decade of Democracy in Africa, 2002-10-31 The democratic experiment in Africa has had a checkered history over the past ten years Analysts of this process tend to focus on the political and legal space instead of including broader issues such as norms generational change and class Authors in this volume argue that African civil society is less likely to support democracy they measure African democracy by the women s rights movements unravel the mythical hope of technology and point to ideological capitulation necessary for a limited transition Past experience from Botswana South Africa Ghana Kenya Uganda and Madagascar will give the readers an understanding of democracy in Africa Contributors are Judith van Allen Lisa Aubrey Nigel Gibson Richard R Marcus Kenneth Mease Stephen N Ndegwa Stephen Orvis Dan Ottemoeller and Wisdom J Tettey

Bewitching Development James Howard Smith, 2009-10-15 These days development inspires scant trust in the West For critics who condemn centralized efforts to plan African societies as latter day imperialism such plans too closely reflect their roots in colonial rule and neoliberal economics But proponents of this pessimistic view often ignore how significant this concept has become for Africans themselves In Bewitching Development James Howard Smith presents a close ethnographic account of how people in the Taita Hills of Kenya have appropriated and made sense of development thought and practice focusing on the complex ways that development connects with changing understandings of witchcraft Similar to magic development s promise of a better world elicits both hope and suspicion from Wataita Smith shows that the unforeseen changes wrought by development greater wealth for some dashed hopes for many more foster moral debates that Taita people express in occult terms By carefully chronicling the beliefs and actions of this diverse community from frustrated youths to nostalgic seniors duplicitous preachers to thought provoking witch doctors Bewitching Development vividly depicts the social life of formerly foreign ideas and practices in postcolonial Africa

Women and Collective Action in Africa F. Steady, 2005-12-09 This book examines women s movements and women s collective action in Africa Steady begins her examination in pre colonial times moving through the colonial period to the present She looks at the various arenas which collective action has and can influence comparing the impact on economic growth education democratizations family formation and women s rights Steady uses Sierra Leone as the focus of her inquiry in order for a detailed story to illustrate larger themes but in every area makes comparisons to different parts of Africa the case study here guides a larger inquiry Written as a text the book carefully explains the theoretical ideas e g all key terms are defined and then there is a discussion of how they relate to African issues specifically and the historical knowledge e g all historical events are described there is no assumption of knowledge of African history necessary to understand the meaning of current women s groups What results is a clear and comprehensive treatment of an issue which is increasingly central to understanding changes taking place on the African continent today

Narrative, Identity and Ethics in Postcolonial Kenya Eleanor Tiplady Higgs, 2021-06-03 Can a Christian organization with colonial roots work towards reproductive justice for Kenyan women and resist sexist interpretations of Christianity How does a women s organization in Africa navigate controversial ethical dilemmas while dealing with the pressures of imperialism in international development Based on a case study of the Young Women s Christian Association YWCA in Kenya this book explores the answers to these questions It also introduces a theoretical framework drawn from postcolonial feminist critique narrative identity theory and the work of the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians everyday Christian ethics The book evaluates the theory s implications as a cross disciplinary theme in feminist studies of religion and theology Eleanor Tiplady Higgs argues that Kenya YWCA s narratives of its Christian history and constitution sustain a link between its ethical perspective and its identity The ethical insights that emerge from these practices proclaim the relevance of the value of fulfilled lives as prescribed in the New Testament for Christian women s experiences of reproductive injustice
