Keeping the Republic: Power and Citizenship in American Politics, 5th Brief Edition Christine Barbour, Gerald C. Wright, 2012-12-20 A consistent and compelling narrative is crucial to student engagement with any book But sadly so many brief editions are mere cut and paste versions of their comprehensive selves Not the case with Keeping the Republic's brief edition Carefully condensed by Barbour and Wright this text gives your students all the continuity and crucial content of the full version just in a more concise value oriented package And now your students benefit from a new full color interior design Photos jump off the page and colorful charts tables and maps enhance students data literacy Repeatedly praised for engaging students to think critically about who gets what and how in American politics Barbour and Wright show them how institutions and rules determine who wins and who loses in the political arena The authors carefully craft each graphic boxed feature and vignette to develop students analytic capabilities By introducing them to the seminal work in the field and showing them how to employ the themes of power and citizenship this proven text builds confidence in students who want to take an active part in their communities and government so they play their part in keeping the republic

Human Rights, Power and Civic Action Bård A. Andreassen, Gordon Crawford, 2013-07-18 Human Rights Power and Civic Action examines the interrelationship between struggles for human rights and the dynamics of power focusing on situations of poverty and oppression in developing countries It is argued that the concept of power is a relatively neglected one in the study of rights based approaches to development especially the ways in which structures and relations of power can limit human rights advocacy Therefore this book focuses on how local and national struggles for rights have been constrained by power relations and structural inequalities as well as the extent to which civic action has been able to challenge alter or transform such power structures and simultaneously to enhance protection of people's basic human rights Contributors examine and compare struggles to advance human rights by non governmental actors in Cambodia China Ghana Kenya South Africa and Zimbabwe The country case studies analyse structures of power responsible for the negation and denial of human rights as well as how rights promoting organisations challenge such structures Utilising a comparative approach the book provides empirically grounded studies leading to new theoretical understanding of the interrelationships between human rights struggles power and poverty reduction Human Rights Power and Civic Action will be of interest to students and scholars of human rights politics power development and governance
