Yokota,1998-07-10 An essential guide for those who seek to reconsider the theoretical problems of trans civilizational comparative literature those who are interested in the literary and cultural history of modern East Asian countries and those with a general interest in issues of sexuality Hawaiki, Ancestral Polynesia Patrick Vinton Kirch, Roger C.

Green,2001-03-15 The power of an anthropological approach to long term history lies in its unique ability to combine diverse evidence from archaeological artifacts to ethnographic texts and comparative word lists In this innovative book Kirch and Green explicitly develop the theoretical underpinnings as well as the particular methods for such a historical anthropology Drawing upon and integrating the approaches of archaeology comparative ethnography and historical linguistics they advance a phylogenetic model for cultural diversification and apply a triangulation method for historical reconstruction They illustrate their approach through meticulous application to the history of the Polynesian cultures and for the first time reconstruct in extensive detail the Ancestral Polynesian culture that flourished in the Polynesian homeland Hawaiki some 2 500 years ago Of great significance for Oceanic studies Kirch and Green's book will be essential reading for any anthropologist prehistorian linguist or cultural historian concerned with the theory and method of long term history

Panggung Semar Ghulam-Sarwar Yousof,2015-02-17 Although stretching back into the unwritten and often mythic past traditional Malay performing arts have until recent times been almost totally neglected In recent years the subject has begun to attract the serious scholarly interest it deserves Such attention is timely for the principal theatre genres including Mak Yong Wayang Kulit and the comparatively modern Bangsawan have begun to suffer decline Indeed many of them are on the verge of extinction and with time will come the loss of an important facet of the native Malay genius This volume by an acknowledged expert on Malaysian theatre Ghulam Sarwar Yousof is a pioneering work on the subject an invaluable contribution to Malay cultural studies It discusses theatre from the perspectives of history performance principles functions and problems that have contributed to the decline of traditional performing arts in Malaysia Also included is a chapter on Semangat the Malay concept of soul a seminal belief whose understanding allows for a deeper appreciation of Malay theatre and its role in traditional society A vital forerunner of several books on the traditional performing arts and cultural traditions of the Malays this volume is a landmark in cultural research by a Malaysian scholar Leaving the Highway Mark

Williams,2013-10-01 The major New Zealand novelists of the 1980s have begun to receive international acclaim This first critical study of Janet Frame Keri Hulme Witi Ihimaera Maurice Gee Ian Wedde and C K Stead concentrates on their important works to explore how deeply rooted anxieties about New Zealand s cultural situation and national identity are articulated in New Zealand fiction Megaliths and Lost Science Learn Alchemical,2025-08-20 Across windswept plains misty coasts and forgotten valleys stand the megaliths silent monuments of stone that defy time and explanation From the vast circles of Stonehenge and Carnac to the underground chambers of Malta from the spiraled carvings of Newgrange to the shattered blocks of Puma Punku these sites are more than ruins They are enigmas carved in granite whispering of a science we no longer understand For centuries archaeologists explorers and visionaries have asked Who built them and why Were these monuments primitive ritual centers or did they encode astronomical knowledge acoustic harmonics and geometric principles lost to history Why do so many cultures separated by oceans share spirals cup marks and sacred orientations toward the stars Could sound itself have been a forgotten tool shaping stone and altering consciousness In Megaliths and Lost Science the stones are not treated as mute relics but as active archives of ancient memory This book journeys through spirals and symbols echo chambers and alignments myths and suppressed discoveries uncovering how these monuments may have preserved fragments of a forgotten world science Drawing upon archaeology archaeoastronomy mythology and emerging fields such as archaeoacoustics and cymatics it challenges orthodox timelines while grounding its insights in cross cultural comparisons and hard data Both rigorous and provocative this work invites readers into the great debate between mainstream history and alternative visions of the past It explores how colonialism and academic orthodoxy have shaped the way we interpret sacred sites and how new technologies satellite mapping genetic research acoustic testing are reawakening questions long dismissed This is not a book of simple answers but of necessary questions The megaliths endure because they were built on more than stone They were tuned to resonance aligned with the heavens and infused with meaning Their silence is deceptive for those who listen carefully the stones still speak Pacific Diaspora Paul Spickard,Joanne L. Companion Encyclopaedia of Anthropology Tim Ingold, 2021-12-24 This comprehensive survey of contemporary thought in biological social and cultural anthropology sets the foundation for their future development and integration The principal rationale behind the Encyclopedia is to overcome the division and fragmentation within the approaches of the humanities and natural sciences to anthropology It emphasizes interconnections between perspectives and sub disciplines producing a complete perspective on what it means to be human The work consists of three parts Humanity Culture and Social Life and 40 major contributions Part One emphasizes human beings as members of a species how that species differs from others how it has evolved and how human populations have adapted to and in turn transformed their environments Part Two deals with the origin and structure of human culture and on the role of culture in action perception and cognition Part Three examines the various aspects of the relationships and processes that are carried on by persons and groups in the course of social life Useful features such as cross references within the text full biographical references suggestions for further reading and carefully illustrated line drawings make this an indispensable resource for all students of anthropology or sociology

Companion Encyclopedia of Anthropology Tim Ingold, 2002-09-11 Provides a comprehensive survey of contemporary thinking in biological social and cultural anthropology and establishes the interconnections between these three fields Useful cross references within the text with full biographical references and suggestions for further reading Carefully illustrated with line drawings and photographs The Companion Encyclopedia of Anthropology is a welcome addition to the reference literature Bringing together authoritative incisive and scrupulously edited contributions from some three dozen authors The book achieves an impressive breadth of coverage of specialist areas Times Higher Educational Supplement Recommended for all anthropology collections especially those in academic libraries Library Journal This is a marvellous book and I am very happy to recommend it Reference Reviews

Handbook of Teacher Education Tony Townsend, Richard Bates, 2006-08-09 This book has its origins in conversations that started when the International Council on Education for Teaching ICET and the Australian Teacher Education Association ATEA jointly agreed to co sponsor a World Assembly of Teacher Educators in Melbourne in July 2003 hosted by Monash University The editors of this book were not only intimately involved in the management of the conference but had also been key figures in the Associations involved Tony Townsend had been secretary and on the national board of the South Pacific Association for Teacher Education SPATE which later became ATEA and had previously managed a SPATE conference in Frankston Australia in the 1980s He is currently the President of ICET and now works at Florida Atlantic University Richard Bates has been a long time board member of ATEA and is currently President of that organization He is also a Board member of ICET The International Council on Education for Teaching ICET was founded in 1953 for the purpose of emphasizing international cooperation in educational development in order to improve the quality of teacher education as well as to expand global educational opportunities for people in teacher education Since that time ICET has developed into an international association of practitioners of teacher education policy and decision makers in education government and business dedicated to global development through education ICET is a subject thematically rather than regionally or chronologically Many of these themes are treated at length for the first time relating the work of missions to language medicine anthropology and decolonization Other important chapters focus on the difficult relationship between missionaries and white settlers women and mission and the neglected role of the indigenous evangelists who did far more than European or North American missionaries to spread the Christian religion belying the image of Christianity as the white man s religion
