The Built Surface: v. 1: Architecture and the Visual Arts from Antiquity to the Enlightenment Christy Anderson,Karen Koehler,2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2002 Since antiquity through to the present architecture and the pictorial arts paintings photography graphic arts have not been rigidly separated but interrelated the one informing the other and establishing patterns of creation and reception In the Classical tradition the education of the architect and artist has always stressed this relationship between the arts although modern scholarship has too often treated them as separate disciplines These volumes explore the history of this exchange between the arts as it emerged from classical theory into artistic and architectural practice Issues of visual representation perspective allegory site specificity ornamentation popular culture memorials urban and utopian planning and the role of treatises manifestos and other theoretical writings are addressed as well as the critical reaction to these products and practices This title represents a variety of methods approaches and dialectical interpretations cases where architecture informs the themes and physical space of pictures or pictorial concerns inform the design and construction of the built environment The exchanges between architecture and pictures explored by these authors are found to be in all cases ideologically potent and therefore significantly expressive of their respective social political and intellectual histories

Painter,2001-11-08 The Casa del Menando hoard was found by Professor Amedeo Maiuri in 1930 in the course of the excavation of the Insula of the Menander There has been no study of it as a whole since Maiuri s publication of 1933 The silver one of the three largest groups of Roman plate of the first century AD is the only one which has been found and recorded under modern conditions and demonstrates what plate was in use in Pompeii in the period of the disasters of AD 62 and 72 The treasure includes two hoards hidden in the same chest one consisting of 118 pieces of silver plate the other of coins and jewellery Maiuri thought that the hoards and therefore the house belonged to the top level of Roman society but this study suggests that they belonged to a rich citizen of Pompeii who may have been a local magistrate Catalogue of the Public Library of the City of Fall River Fall River Public Library,1882
