poems I weave our life story celebrating the decades we shared We first came together when I was just sixteen and spent twenty years together before tying the knot in 2007 I suppose I wanted to be absolutely certain she was the one for me though in hindsight there was never any doubt In 2000 we expanded our family by adopting five nieces and nephews three girls and two boys embarking on an extraordinary journey together I always strived to bring happiness to my wife embodying the essence of the quote It doesn't take much to make a woman happy but it takes even less to piss her off In January 2023 Anna Mae succumbed to her battle with cancer To my loving wife now in heaven these poems are for you Thank you for joining me on this incredible ride
