Pontormo and Rosso Fiorentino:

Pontormo and Rosso Fiorentino Carlo Falciani, Antonio Natali, 2014 In 1956 Palazzo Strozzi hosted the exhibition Pontormo and Early Florentine Mannerism in which Pontormo's work was displayed alongside that of Rosso Fiorentino, Beccafumi and other adepts of the new and unconventional trend in painting. Almost sixty years later Palazzo Strozzi has decided to hold an exhibition devoted to only two of that movement's leading lights Pontormo and Rosso Fiorentino. In exploring the work of the two greatest Florentine exponents of what 20th century critics christened Mannerism the exhibition and this accompanying volume aims to track the chronological development of the movement. Pontormo and Rosso Fiorentino in Florence and Tuscany Ludovica Sebregondi, 2014 Pontormo and Rosso Fiorentino David & Charles Publishers, 2001-10-01 Painting in Renaissance Florence, 1500-1550 David Franklin, 2001-01-01 Franklin's unprecedented examination of Vasari's work as a painter in relation to his vastly better known writings fully illuminates these dual strands in Florentine art and offers us a clearer understanding of sixteenth century painting in Florence than ever before. The volume focuses on twelve painters: Perugino, Leonardo da Vinci, Piero di Cosimo, Michelangelo, Fra Bartolomeo, Ridolfo Ghirlandaio, Andrea del Sarto, Franciabigio, Rosso Fiorentino, Jacopo da Pontormo, Francesco Salviati and Giorgio Vasari. BOOK JACKET Renaissance & Mannerism Diane Bodart, 2008 From the 15th to the 16th centuries Western European culture flourished thanks in part to the astonishing achievements of such Renaissance artists as da Vinci, Donatello, Raphael, Botticelli and Michelangelo and Mannerist painters including El Greco, Pontormo and Tintoretto. In Florence the cradle of the Renaissance artists pursued ancient classical ideals of harmony and naturalism and in architecture forms of perfection and grandeur. Mannerists in the early 16th century valued exaggeration, elongated figures, unnatural lighting and vivid even lurid colors to create more tension and emotion in their work. This stunning volume follows these two key movements in art history providing authoritative background from a top scholar, rich cultural context and a wealth of exquisite reproductions of period paintings, sculptures, churches and palazzos. Master Drawings in the Los Angeles County Museum of Art Los Angeles County Museum of Art, Bruce Davis, 1997 More than 100 masterworks from the collection, all in full color, each with a text about the artist and drawing as well as full documentation, 105 colour illustrations. Pontormo, Rosso Fiorentino Elisabetta Marchetti Letta, 1994 The Art, History and Architecture of Florentine Churches Susan Bracken, 2016-12-14 Churches and palaces in Florence have been the subject matter of book-length often multi-volume studies over the centuries. This book is a compendium of the main churches in Florence and has been written with two distinct audiences in mind: English-speaking students of Renaissance art, architecture, literature and history and the well-read traveller to Florence who wishes to place the works of art and architecture into the wider context of Italian culture. The choice of churches discussed here was influenced by the author's experience as teacher for several university programmes on site in Florence. The buildings described and analysed are those which students will most likely encounter in the course of their study abroad stay in Florence whether they wish to specialise in art architecture or the history of the Florentine Renaissance This book represents a textbook that offers concise information on the history art and architecture of 25 of the main Florentine churches provides plans and photos of the facades and introduces the student to some of the most important vocabulary and the main textual sources of the thirteenth to the seventeenth centuries Interpreting

Hornik, Mikeal Carl Parsons, 2003 Since the iconoclastic controversies of the eighth and ninth centuries the visual arts have been the subject of much ecclesiastical discussion and contention In particular since the mid 1960s Protestant scholars and clergy have been paying more attention to the potential role of the visual arts in theology and liturgy of the Christian Church As a result numerous programs were begun under a variety of nomenclature e g Religion and the Arts Theology and the Arts etc Most of the essays in this book were originally presented as part of the Pruitt Symposium on Interpreting Christian Art held at Baylor University in October 2000 The symposium provided the opportunity to bring together scholars clergy and laity who are interested in the question of how religious art can contribute to the life of the contemporary Christian community The resulting essays are a rich fare in interdisciplinary exploration of Christian art by art historians theologians and biblical scholars Essayists include Margaret Miles Robin M Jensen Graydon F Snyder Charles Barber Anthony Cutler William M Jensen Paolo Berdini John W Cook and the editors Heidi J Hornik and Mikeal C Parsons

Giorgio Vasari Patricia Lee Rubin, Maurice Rubin, 1995-01-01 Vasari's Lives of the Painters Sculptors and Architects are and always have been central texts for the study of the Italian Renaissance They can and should be read in many ways Since their publication in the mid sixteenth century they have been a source of both information and pleasure Their immediacy after more than four hundred years is a measure of Vasari's success He wished the artists of his day himself included to be famous He made the association of artistry and genius of renaissance and the arts so familiar that they now seem inevitable In this book Patricia Rubin argues that both the inevitability and the immediacy should be questioned To read Vasari without historical perspective results in a limited and distorted view of The Lives Rubin shows that Vasari had distinct ideas about the nature of his task as a biographer about the importance of interpretation judgment and example about the historian's art Vasari's principles and practices as a writer are examined here as are their sources in Vasari's experiences as an artist

The Agency of Female Typology in Italian Renaissance Paintings Edward J. Olszewski, 2023-06-30 This study employs cognitive theory as a heuristic framework to interrogate the agency of female types in select Italian Renaissance paintings with emphasis on Venus Medusa the Amazon Boccaccio's Lady Fiammetta Cleopatra Susanna the Magdalene and the Madonna The study disrupts assumptions about the identity of sitters and readings of paintings as it challenges paradigms of female representation It interrogates why certain paintings were crafted by whom and for whom Works are placed in the context of meta painting with stress on the cognitive decisions negotiated between patron and artist The ludic aspects of several paintings are examined with a fine grain semiotic approach to expand their iconographies Psychoanalytic readings are unpacked based on the flawed mythological metaphors and incomplete clinical studies of Sigmund Freud's theorizing The rubric of female agency is deliberately selected to unify
