Birkbeck Word Association Norms Helen Moss, Lianne Older, 1996 This is a reference work containing free association norms for over 2000 words in the English language collected over the last eight years from groups of 40 50 British English speakers aged between 17 and 45 These norms provide the information that for example 67% of people give dog as the first word they think of in response to the word cat that 24% give the word society in response to the word pillar and given the name Michael 65% say Jackson whereas less than 5% say Heseltine or Caine These norms will be of use to researchers and students in many fields of psychology especially language and memory where the degree of association between pairs of words is often an important experimental variable The main part of the book contains an alphabetical list of all associative responses and their frequency for each of the 2464 stimulus words In addition there is an index of stimulus words organised according to semantic category to aid selection of experimental materials Full methodological details of the collection and compilation of the data are also provided in the introduction

High Pasture Esther Walker, 2003-12 We can see ourselves as the rescued lamb who makes amazing discoveries on the way that we are not just creatures but have a special name Precious We are not orphans alone in the wilderness but we belong to someone someone great the Shepherd and we can call Him by His name It takes a while for the lamb and us to realize that our safety on the journey does not depend upon our cleverness or strength but on the presence of the Shepherd Along with the lamb we learn that when we take our eyes off the Shepherd and run ahead of Him we are in big trouble Now at first glance this may seem to be merely a children s story but it is not Profound lessons can be learned through simple truths This is a family book with hidden spiritual meanings I can picture a father or mother sitting with their child and reading the adventures of Precious helping them understand Psalm 23 Then after the children are safely tucked in bed they pause Selah and think about it This is my story I am Precious to God and so are you
