Hunter,2022-01-19 This book examines the career and creative labour of production designer Polly Platt It focuses mainly on her contributions to 1970s Hollywood but also considers her later work Considering films such as The Last Picture Show Paper Moon The Bad News Bears and The Witches of Eastwick it argues that Platt s construction of their visual palette and mise en sc ne was so creative and so comprehensive that it can be considered authorial Chapters discuss Platt s life and its influence on her work her attention to detail her role in location decisions and costume design and her use of colour An epilogue discusses her later career as a producer and her mentorship to young filmmakers like Cameron Crowe and Wes Anderson This is the first full length examination of the career of one of the women practitioners whose work was so important to 1970s cinema and provides an alternative methodology to the auteur driven framing that so regularly defines the era

Growing Up in Bridgeport in the '40s and '50s Arthur L. Dale,2012-06-28 GROWING UP IN BRIDGEPORT IN THE 40S AND 50S is a collection of essays written by the author and published in The Bridgeport Leader over a two year period from 2002 to 2004 Drawn from the author s memory these essays describe the sights and sounds adventures drama humor and tragedies of the author s youth With its informal and familiar tone and its recurring references to local figures and locales the author draws the reader into this world making it more than just the memoirs of a single individual instead the memoirs of a small Midwestern oil town

Suffering of the Condemned Omar Rivera Guadalupe,2021-05-16 Stories of horror and the macabre have entertained and intrigued us for thousands of years We wish we could have avoided many of these stories because they traumatized us mentally by occupying that small part of our mind where memories dwell They became part of our subconscious and they are so unforgettable that they come forth from that part of our brain when we are in places and situations that we feel are dangerous Have you ever been in a wooded area and you imagined a ghostly presence present just because you read or heard a story at some time Horror stories can be compelling and unforgettable and that is what this book aims at accomplishing These horror stories were designed to transport you to places and introduce you to characters that you will dislike and fear but like those stories that consumed our memories these stories will stick with you forever Memories of horror stories have a way of playing tricks with our minds and the stories in this book are no different

Labor and Community Gilbert G. Gonzalez,1994 The emergence maturity and decline of the southern California citrus industry is seen here through the network of citrus worker villages that dotted part of the state s landscape from 1910 to 1960 Labor and Community shows how Mexican immigrants shaped a partially independent existence within a fiercely hierarchical framework of economic and political relationships Gonz lez relies on a variety of published sources and interviews with longtime residents to detail the education of village children the Americanization of village adults unionization and strikes and the decline of the citrus picker village and rise of the urban barrio His insightful study of the rural dimensions of Mexican American life prior to World War II adds balance to a long standing urban bias in Chicano historiography
