Poor Caroline Virago Modern Classics:

Poor Caroline Winifred Holtby, 2011-06-02 Caroline Denton Smyth is an eccentric dressed in trailing feathers and jangling beads peering out from behind her lorgnette. Sitting alone in her West Kensington bedsitter she dreams of the Christian Cinema Company her vehicle for reform. For Caroline sees herself as a pioneer one who must risk everything for the Cause of the Right. Her Board of Directors is a motley crew including Basil St Denis upper crust but impecunious Joseph Isenbaum aspiring to society and Eton for his son Eleanor de la Roux. Caroline's independent cousin from South Africa Hugh Macafee a curt Scottish film technician young Father Mortimer scarred from the First World War and Clifton Johnson a seedy American scenario writer on the make. Winifred Holtby affectionately observes the foibles of human nature in this sparkling satire first published in 1931. Poor Caroline Winifred Holtby, 1985

British Boarding Houses in Interwar Women's Literature Terri Mullholland, 2016-10-04 Embraced for the dramatic opportunities afforded by a house full of strangers the British boarding house emerged as a setting for novels published during the interwar period by a diverse range of women writers from Stella Gibbons to Virginia Woolf. To use the single room in the boarding house or bedsit Terri Mullholland argues is to foreground a particular experience. While the single room represents the freedoms of independent living available to women in the early twentieth century it also marks the precariousness of unmarried women's lives. By placing their characters in this transient space women writers could explore women's changing social roles and complex experiences: amateur prostitution, lesbian relationships, extra-marital affairs and abortion outside traditional domestic narrative concerns. Mullholland presents new readings of works by canonical and non-canonical writers including Stella Gibbons, Winifred Holtby, Storm Jameson, Rosamond Lehmann, Dorothy Richardson, Jean Rhys and Virginia Woolf. A hybrid of the modernist and realist domestic fiction written and read by women, the literature of the single room merges modernism's interest in interior psychological states with the realism of precisely documented exterior spaces, offering a new mode of engagement with the two forms of interiority.

The Land Of Green Ginger Winifred Holtby, 2011-06-02 Joanna Burton was born in South Africa but sent by her missionary father to be raised in Yorkshire. There she dreams of the far-off lands she will visit and adventures to come. At eighteen tall and flaxen-haired she meets Teddy Leigh a young man on his way to the trenches of the First World War. Joanna has been in love before with Sir Walter Raleigh with the Scarlet Pimpernel with Coriolanus but this is different. Teddy tells her he's been given the world to wear as a golden ball. Joanna believes him and marries him but the fabled shores recede into the distance when after the war Teddy returns in ill health. The magic land turns out to be the harsh reality of motherhood and life on a Yorkshire farm. Yet still she dares to dream.
