Evolving Standards of Decency Mary Welek Atwell,2004 The Supreme Court has looked to evolving standards of decency in determining whether the death penalty violates the Eighth Amendment to the Constitution which prohibits cruel and unusual punishment Evolving Standards of Decency examines the ways in which popular culture portrays the death penalty. By analyzing literature and film, Atwell argues that capital punishment becomes much more complex when both offenders and victims are presented as fully developed individuals. Numerous books and films from the last several decades expose flaws in the criminal justice system and provide audiences with stories that raise questions about race, class, and actual innocence in the administration of the ultimate punishment. Although most people will not read legal briefs supporting or challenging the death penalty, many will see films or read novels that raise issues about its fairness. Themes and images gathered through popular culture may ultimately influence whether Americans continue to believe that capital punishment conforms to their evolving standards of decency and justice. Those studying justice issues, corrections, or capital punishment will find this an accessible and provocative work that places the stories read in novels or seen in movies in the context of the legal system that has the power of life and death.

The Butch Karp and Marlene Ciampi Novels Volume One Robert K.

Tanenbaum, 2018-03-13 From a New York Times bestselling author and the Joseph Wambaugh of the judicial system comes the first three legal thrillers in the long running series. San Diego Tribune: A successful trial lawyer and one hell of a writer, Robert Tanenbaum crafts his legal thrillers with authenticity and breath-taking suspense. In these first three books of the series, he introduces Manhattan assistant district attorney Roger Butch Karp, who struggles to remain true to himself in an often corrupt judicial system. But with the help of assistant DA Marlene Ciampi, he fights the good fight with energy, wit, and a passion for the truth. New York Post: No Lesser Plea: A brutal murderer hopes feigning insanity will keep him out of the courtroom. But Butch and Marlene aren't about to let him get away with it. A page-turner. San Diego Tribune: Depraved Indifference: Butch is ready to prosecute a group of Croatian terrorists in what should be a slam-dunk case, but everyone from the FBI to the CIA and even the Catholic Church is prepared to stop him. A novel full of whirlwind action. Very good. New York Times Book Review: Immoral Certainty: A remorseless monster is stalking the city's children, forcing Butch and Marlene to descend into the darkest corners of New York's underworld where a benign face can hide an evil soul. Intricate plotting. A rousing finale. Frightening. Los Angeles Times Book Review.
