Sex In Literature Vol 3:

Touch, Sexuality, and Hands in British Literature, 1740-1901 Kimberly Cox, 2021-09-05 From Robert Lovelace's uninvited hand grasps in Samuel Richardson's Clarissa to Basil Hallward's first encounter with Dorian Gray literary depictions of touching hands in British literature from the 1740s to the 1890s communicate emotional dimensions of sexual experience that reflect shifting cultural norms associated with gender roles sexuality and sexual expression But what is the relationship between hands tactility and sexuality in Victorian literature And how do we best interpret what those touches communicate between characters This volume addresses these questions by asserting a connection between the prevalence of violent sexually charged touches in eighteenth century novels such as those by Eliza Haywood Samuel Richardson and Frances Burney and growing public concern over handshake etiquette in the nineteenth century evident in works by Jane Austen the Brontës George Eliot Elizabeth Gaskell Thomas Hardy Oscar Wilde and Flora Annie Steel This book takes an interdisciplinary approach that combines literary analysis with close analyses of paintings musical compositions and nonfictional texts such as etiquette books and scientific treatises to make a case for the significance of tactility to eighteenth and nineteenth century perceptions of selfhood and sexuality In doing so it draws attention to the communicative nature of skin to skin contact as represented in literature and traces a trajectory of meaning from the forceful grips that violate female characters in eighteenth century novels to the consensual embraces common in Victorian and neo Victorian literature

Sex In The Head Linda R. Williams, 2016-07-01 In Sex in the Head Linda Ruth Williams uses psychoanalysis and recent feminist film theory to analyze a network of ideas which link looking with sexuality and difference in the work of a writer who disavowed yet covertly enjoyed the pleasures and power of vision The book is a departure from the long history of feminist readings of Lawrence in that it discusses his engagement with theories of the gaze and its cultural forms cinema photography painting and the visual dynamics and metaphors of literary texts as a way of thinking through gender It shows him arguing on the one hand against the evils of cinema and visual sex while relishing through the eyes of women the moving spectacle of those male bodies which populate the pages of his books It also questions what it is about the work of such an adamant cinephobe which has made it so thoroughly adaptable for film and television

Literature and Medicine: Volume 2 Andrew Mangham, 2021-06-24 Offering an authoritative account of the relationship between literature and medicine between approximately 1800 and 1900 this volume brings together leading scholars in the field to provide a valuable overview of how two dynamic fields influenced and shaped each during a period of revolutionary change During the nineteenth century medicine was being redefined as a subject in which experimental methodologies could transform the healing art and was simultaneously branching off into new specialisms and subdivisions Questions addressed in this volume include the influence of physics on poetry the role of medical professionalism in fiction the cultural and literary representation of sanitation and the interdisciplinary nature of controversy and negligence Along with its sister publication Literature and Medicine in the Eighteenth Century this volume offers a major critical overview of the study of literature and medicine The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1900 LIFE AND WORK OF KAMALA

MARKANDAYA AND SHASHI DESHPANDE: A COMPARATIVE STUDY Sanjana Antil, 2021-05-06 It is said that literature is a reflection of society the author as well as his her literature is the product of it It is also said that literature is the product of a given milieu and individual sensibility which constitute together a culture entity rooted in the changing traditional value system of people The writer as a human being is a part and parcel of the society and so naturally he gets influenced by the atmosphere around him Therefore the literature coming out through him becomes the manifestation of the cultural social spiritual and political scenario in the society Kamala Markandaya is one of the leading women novelists of India She has projected the theme of cultural clashes in different dimensions She has produced several novels to her credit Her novels find forceful expression of cultural clashes such as conflict between Tradition and modernity clash between the rural and urban East West conflict and conflict between the two different attitudes of life from two diverse races Kamala Markandaya has brought to the centre her protagonists who are invariably women and therefore conflicts raised by the novelist relate to women All the characters in her novels experience troubles and turmoil s in life but they rise above their desperation triumphantly because of their aspiration It is a fact that Markandaya commands a wide reputation as a creator of readable novels she has received a wide ranging recognition and applause both in India and abroad She has been a subject of serious discussion But it is very surprising to note that an Indian woman novelist who has got a prominent position in India writing in English has not been able to draw the attention of critics and researchers to the extent she deserves The articles in books and journals by their very nature remain confined to studying her novels as individual works Book length studies of Markandaya s novels are only a few The proposed book will focus its attention on the conflict of nature in the novels of Kamala Markandaya through the discussion of the central characters It will do its level best to fill in the gap and will attempt to study Markandaya s novels Shashi Deshpande is one of the prominent writers who in the past two and a half decades established herself as a serious writer She is undoubtedly an outstanding Indian English novelist who has boldly voiced the issues and sufferings of women in her works She has projected this aspect of Indian women with more sensitivity and understanding as she was born and brought up in this soil This work is to analyze about the works of Shashi Deshpande and sense her to be a Feminist or Humanist The themes of sexuality and man woman relationship initially introduced in her stories are discussed which became the subject of full length novels But they are found not merely the raw material for her novels Her versatile treatment of women s issues reveals her sensitive nature as a woman writer and this quality affirms her works as an outstanding contribution to Indian literature in English proving her to be a humanist Sanjana Antil The American Library Annual, 1918 Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, and Booksellers' Record, 1898 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 2, 1660-1800 George

Watson, Ian R. Willison, 1971-07-02 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 2 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Comparative Literature: Sharing Knowledges for Preserving Cultural Diversity - Volume II Lisa Block de Behar, Paola Mildonian, Jean-Michel Djian, Djelal Kadir, Alfons Knauth, Dolores Romero Lopez and Marcio Seligmann Silva, 2009-11-29 Comparative Literature Sharing Knowledges for Preserving Cultural Diversity theme is a component of Encyclopedia of Social Sciences and Humanities in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias The Theme on Comparative Literature Sharing Knowledge s for Preserving Cultural Diversity provides six different topics 1 Language literature and human sustainability 2 Relationships among literature and other artistic activities and discourses 3 Comparative literature and other fields of knowledge 4 Comparative literature criticism and media 5 Comparative literature in the age of global change 6 Translatio studii and cross cultural movements or Weltverkehr These three volumes are aimed at a wide spectrum of audiences University and College Students Educators and Research Personnel Literature and Medicine Clark Lawlor, Andrew Mangham, 2021 Offering an authoritative account of the relationship between literature and medicine between approximately 1800 and 1900 this volume brings together leading scholars in the field to provide a valuable overview of how two dynamic fields influenced and shaped each during a period of revolutionary change During the nineteenth century medicine was being redefined as a subject in which experimental methodologies could transform the healing art and was simultaneously branching off into new specialisms and subdivisions Questions addressed in this volume include the influence of physics on poetry the role of medical professionalism in fiction the cultural and literary representation of sanitation and the interdisciplinary nature of controversy and negligence Along with its sister publication Literature and Medicine in the Eighteenth Century this volume offers a major critical overview of the study of literature and medicine Back cover volume 2 The Bookseller, 1913 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom Resources in Education, 1979 Anthony Trollope Nicholas Birns, John F. Wirenius, 2021-10-20 Anthony Trollope s novels and stories entertain while vividly bringing the Victorian era to life His deep empathy for the underdog led him to subvert conventions exploring the lives of women as well as men and choosing as heroes and heroines outsiders who would be viewed with suspicion by his readers Trollope s profound insight to human nature made him the first novelist in English to develop three dimensional characters and to create the novel sequence This literary companion introduces readers to his life and work A to Z entries explore Trollope s short story collections and nonfiction contributions as well as important themes in the works This companion also includes fresh voices of contributors that bring in their contemporary insights to bear on Trollope s achievements facilitating the understanding of Trollope s perspectives in relation to feminism queer studies and transnationalism

Dance of the Nomad Ann McCulloch,2010-11-01 The notebooks of A D Hope are a portrait of the contradictory essence of the poet s intellect and character Shot through with threads of self awareness and revelation Hope imbued his notebooks with irony and humour forming them as a celebration of the joy and terror of human existence Stripped of intimate revelation the entries give witness to Hope s view that art is a superior force in the creation of new being and values and a guide for the conduct of our lives Seeking to find pathways through the maze of an intellectual life this is a profound and timely contribution to Australia s literary scholarship Ann McCulloch s analysis of this thematic selection of Hope s notebooks reveals him to be relentless in his experimentation with ideas Revealing the originality of his thinking and the astonishing range of his reading and interests this edition is a testament to the intellect of one of Australia s towering literary figures
