Mermaids In The Basement Poems For Women:

Mermaids in the Basement Carolyn Kizer, 1984 In Pro Femina she writes From Sappho to myself consider the fate of women How unworthy to discuss it Like a noose Juvenal set us apart in denouncing our vices Which had grown in part from having been set apart Women abused their spouses cuckolded them even plotted To poison them Mermaids in the Basement : Poems for Women , 1984 A Study Guide for Carolyn Kizer's "To An Unknown Poet" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016 A Study Guide for Carolyn Kizer's To An Unknown Poet excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Poetry for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Poetry for Students for all of your research needs On Sacred Ground Nicholas O'Connell, 2011-10-01 On Sacred Ground explores the literature of the Northwest the area that extends from the Pacific Ocean to the Rocky Mountains and from the forty ninth parallel to the Siskiyou Mountains The Northwest exhibits astonishing geographical diversity and yet the entire bioregion shares a similarity of climate flora and fauna For Nicholas O'Connell the effects of nature on everyday Northwest life carry over to the region's literature Although Northwest writers address a number of subjects the relationship between people and place proves the dominant one and that has been true since the first tribes settled the region and began telling stories about it thousands of years ago Indeed it is the common thread linking Chief Seattle to Theodore Roethke Narciissa Whitman to Ursula K Le Guin Joaquin Miller to Ivan Doig Marilynne Robinson to Jack London Betty MacDonald to Gary Snyder Tracing the history of Pacific Northwest literary works from Native American myths to the accounts of explorers and settlers the effusions of the romantics the sharply etched stories of the realists the mystic visions of Northwest poets and the contemporary explosion of Northwest poetry and prose O'Connell shows how the most important contribution of Northwest writers to American literature is their articulation of a more spiritual human relationship with landscape Pacific Northwest writers and storytellers see the Northwest not just as a source of material wealth but as a spiritual homeland a place to lead a rich and fulfilling life within the whole context of creation And just as the relationship between people and place serves as the unifying feature of Northwest literature so also does literature itself possess a perhaps unique ability to transform a landscape into a sacred place Ursula K. Le Guin: Collected Poems (LOA #368) Ursula K. Le Guin, 2023-04-04 At last a major American poet collected for the first time in the sixth volume of the definitive Library of Edition of her works In his last book Harold Bloom presents the earthy surprising and lyrical poetry of Ursula K Le Guin Ursula K Le Guin's career began and ended with poetry This sixth volume in the definitive Library of America edition of her works gathers for the first time her collected poems from her earliest collection Wild Angels 1974 through her final publication the collection So Far So Good which she delivered to her editor just a week before her death in 2018 The themes explored in the poems gathered here resonate through all Le Guin's oeuvre but find their strongest voice in her poetry exploration as a metaphor for both human bravery and creativity the mystery and fragility of nature and the impact of humankind on their environment the Tao Te Ching marriage womanhood and even cats Le Guin's poetry is often traditional in form but never in style her verse is earthy surprising and lyrical Including some 40 poems never before collected this volume restores to print much of Le Guin's remarkable verse It features a new introduction by editor Harold Bloom written before his death in 2019 in which he reflects on the power of Le Guin's poems which he calls American originals It also features helpful explanatory notes and a chronology of Le Guin's life

American Modernist Poetry and the Chinese Encounter Z. Yuejun, S. Christie, 2012-10-31 American Modernist Poetry and the Chinese Encounter offers a framework for understanding the variety of imagined encounters by eight different American poets with their imagined Chinese subject The method is historical and materialist insofar as the contributors to the volume read the claims of specific poems alongside the actual and tumultuous changes China faced between 1911 and 1979 Even where specific poems are found to be erroneous the contributors to the volume suggest that each of the poets attempted to engage their Chinese subject with a degree of commitment that presaged imaginatively China's subsequent dominance The poems stand as unique artifacts via proxy and in the English language for the rise of China in the American imagination The audience of the volume is international including the growing number of scholars and graduate students in Chinese universities working on American literature and comparative cultural studies as well as already established commentators and students in the west
