Patrimonies George Kouvaros,2024-07-02 Is a patrimony something we inherit or something we create Does it mark the continuation of the past or its disappearance Combining elements of criticism cultural history and memoir Patrimonies addresses the questions How do we take from and give back to those who came before How have their actions and choices left their mark on us The instigation for these questions is an awareness of precariousness people places and histories on the brink This is what gives George Kouvaros s essays their sense of occasion and responsibility to those who came before and those still to come The outcome is a form of writing that is deeply moving and alert to the tension between survival and transformation preservation and appropriation that defines the engagements with our forebears continue the story of my late mother s life tying up some loose ends and filling in inadvertent gaps in the narrative Memories are fickle and evanescent often no more substantial than last night s dream They cannot be summoned up at will to reveal themselves and often require a period of incubation before to begin to coalesce As was the case in The Girl From Copenhagen I have in this sequel used pictures in my mother s photo albums to rekindle half forgotten memories I was surprised when I wrote this book by how many significant events in my mother s life that I had failed to record But such is the nature of memory Haitian Recollections and Haitian Returns Stan Hovey, 2010-04-26 Haitian Recollections and Haitian Returns is my gift to the Haitian people The gift comes in two parts The recollections part is my sharing with the Haitians a piece of their history which is relatively unknown to most people alive today It describes in words from my personal experience in Haiti as a boy in the early 1940s coupled with many photos from my mother s album how things were at that time It was a very unique period characterized by positive collaboration between Haiti and the United States then it came to a tragic end The details about this have never been clearly told nor seen before The returns part of the book is about my going back to Haiti to teach the children reforestation and return to where I lived 65 years ago It is about what I have learned saw and did that the reader should think about when hearing news of Haiti This book reflects how Haiti and its people have returned so much to me over my entire lifetime A specific program is presented for approaching the solution to Haiti s reforestation challenges It directly involves all the children in Haiti can start now and can be sustained indefinitely My own collection of recent pictures are used in this part to show how some things change in Haiti but also how many things take a very very long time Hope is there for Haiti and we all can assist them if we help them do what they wish and need However the Haitians must be actively engaged in anything others do in order to take their country back from a devastating 500 year long attack on their natural environment We and they need to persist but also tenancy is required over a long period of time 200 to 300 years By doing this Haiti returns to all of us in immeasurable ways Léona Guy

Gauthier,2012-04-18 Lona left her husband behind and followed the sun to Florida She took flight like a migrating bird and lay on the hot sands hungry for love She lived like there was no tomorrow But her nights of revelry ended in loneliness She wandered all over the continent searching for something she never found Incredible Short Stories Michael
