Movies The Sixty Year Story Of The World:

50 MGM Films That Transformed Hollywood Steven Bingen, 2022-11-01 Movies don't exist in a vacuum. Each MGM movie is a tiny piece of a large colorful although often black and white quilt with threads tying it into all of the rest of that studio's product going forward yes but also backward and horizontally and three dimensionally across its entire landscape. Not necessarily a best of compilation this book discusses the films that for one reason or another and not all of them good ones changed the trajectory of MGM and the film industry in general from the revolutionary use of Cinerama in 1962's How the West Was Won to Director Alfred Hitchcock's near extortion of the profits from the 1959 hit thriller North by Northwest. And there are the studio's on screen self shoutouts to its own past or stars in films like Party Girl 1958 the That's Entertainment series Garbo Talks 1984 Rain Man 1955 and De Lovely 2004 or the studio's acquisition of other successful franchises such as James Bond. But fear not what we consider MGM's classic films all get their due here often with a touch of irony or fascinating anecdote. Singin' in the Rain 1952 for example was in its day neither a financial blockbuster nor critically acclaimed but rather an excuse for the studio to reuse some old songs it already owned. The Wizard of Oz 1939 cost almost as much to make as Gone With the Wind also 1939 and took ten years to recoup its costs. But still the MGM mystique endures. Like the popular Netflix series The Movies that Made Us this is a fascinating look behind the scenes of the greatest and at times notorious films ever made.

Filmed Television Drama, 1952-1958 William Hawes, 2002-01-09 This work examines the change from live to filmed television dramas during the period 1952-1958 and the characteristics and programs that are most associated with filmed television drama. Along with many technical changes that had to be made in the industry in order to convert live television to filmed television came an interesting social one. The American society in general was developing a growing interest in the lives of ordinary people and television moved with them offering more programs that concentrated on the middle and lower classes. Because of the inherent qualities of filming television began to feature more documentary like realism began to broaden its interpretation of traditional romantic escapism to include more outer space and supernatural science fiction began to better fulfill materialistic desires through well designed enjoyable commercials and began to offer the best dramas and most popular personalities often leading viewers to greater self appreciation and richer lives. This work focuses on the important anthology programs and specials that were on the air from 1952 to 1958 such as Kraft Television Theatre, Philco Television Playhouse and The Hallmark Hall of Fame filmed serials like Colgate Theatre, Amos n Andy and I Love Lucy and the challenges of converting from live to filmed television drama.
