Oboe Concerto Piano Reduction:

Oboe Concerto John Harbison, 1996 For oboe and orchestra piano reduction Commissioned by the San Francisco Symphony for its principal oboist Oboe Concerto Richard Rodney Bennett, 1973 Oboe concerto Richard Rodney Bennett, 1973 Concerto for Oboe James Nathaniel Holland, 2016-03-16 Contemporary Concerto for Oboe and Orchestra by 21st Century Classical Music Composer James Nathaniel Holland Offered here is the Orchestral Reduction for Piano and Individual Oboe Part included This fun and exciting oboe concerto is a great addition to the oboe repertoire and the sparse contemporary concertos written for the instrument Here are the movements of I Cinderella II A Russian Fairytale III Gnomes As usual with Holland's music there is a bit of jazz dash of fun and a touch of magic Listen to the video version on YouTube at <https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLE065E1AC56F5AB6C> or buy the CD The Oboe Mystic also available here on Amazon Createspace Bohuslav Martinů's Oboe Concerto, H. 353 Ko Eun Jeoung, 2020 Bohuslav Martinů's Concerto for Oboe and Small Orchestra is one of the most frequently played pieces in the oboe repertoire For this reason it is often played with the piano reduction instead of the orchestra in oboe recitals However the existing piano reductions include many errors and discrepancies from the orchestral score misrepresent the orchestration sometimes fail to make the oboe entries clear and tend to be unplayable for pianists Moreover the scores were published after the composer's death without him supervising the final editing I have prepared a new playable piano reduction to represent the orchestration more faithfully and help pianists work with their soloists more easily Based on the work of Martin Katz a prominent collaborative pianist I establish four principles for creating a new piano reduction After scrutiny of the deficiencies of existing piano reductions I suggest solutions for making the passages in question practical and bringing out the leading voices clearly so that the soloist can join in as easily as playing with an orchestra To aid in reflecting the orchestral texture that Martin created I include abbreviated instrument names in many passages to help pianists to understand how to create balance I have changed some passages completely to make the sound closer to the orchestral texture All changes and suggestions are based on the orchestral score and its layout This simplified and practical piano reduction should help pianists have more enjoyable and more successful collaborations with their soloists Oboe Concerto in D Minor, Op. 9 No. 2 Tomaso Albinoni, 2022-09 Tomaso Albinoni's Oboe Concerto in D minor has long been regarded as one of the finest concertos composed for the instrument It was published in Amsterdam in 1722 the second of the 12 Concerti a cinque Op. 9 The date of composition and the premiere is unknown but the work has increased in popularity in the later half of the 20th century to the present day along with the movement for historically appropriate performance practice The edition offered here is a new one prepared by Richard W Sargeant Jr working from the copies of the 1722 print available online at IMSLP This study score is a reduced format version of the large score and also includes the editor's realization of the continuo part Besides the large score the orchestra parts and an oboe and piano reduction are also available from Serenissima Music Notes for Oboists Nora Anderson Lewis, 2025 Notes for
