Changing Party Systems in Western Europe David Broughton, Mark Donovan, 1999-01-04 This is an analysis of the changing pressures and demands placed on party systems in 11 countries in Western Europe since 1945 This book includes studies of the party system in Britain France Italy and Germany as well as studies of Spain Portugal Ireland Sweden Austria Belgium and the Netherlands Five major themes are examined in each chapter First the broad development of the party system is accompanied by a discussion of how different party system typologies have been applied to each country Secondly a detailed discussion of the historical background to party system developments is provided dealing with the main divisions derived from the typology of Lipset and Rokkan Thirdly the most important contextual variables are considered in terms of the electoral environment within which the party system operates Next consideration is given to the degree of unfreezing of the party system since 1945 and the changing balance between stability and change Finally major questions of change and adaptation are examined updating the text Power Sharing in Lebanon Eduardo Wassim Aboultaif, 2019-01-15 This book studies the origins and evolution of power sharing in Lebanon The author has established a relationship between mobilization ethnurgy ethnic identification memory and trauma and how they impact power sharing provisions The book starts with the events in the 1820s when communities began to politicize their identities and which led to the first major outbreak of civil violence between the Druze and the Maronites. Consequently these troubled four decades in Lebanon led to the introduction of various forms of power sharing arrangements to establish peace. The political systems introduced in Lebanon are the Kaim Makamiya dual sub governorship, a quasi federal arrangement, the Mutassarifiya, the prototype of a power sharing system, the post independence political system of Lebanon which the book refers to as semi consociation due to the concentration of executive powers in the Presidential office, and finally the full consociation of the Taif Republic. In each of these phases there was a peculiar interaction between the non structural elements that had a direct impact on power sharing. This led at times to instability and at other times it brought down the system as in 1840, 1860 and 1975. Power Sharing in Lebanon is the first academic work that emphasizes the influence of the non structural elements that hinder power sharing. This volume is now a key resource for students and academics interested in Lebanese Politics and the Middle East.

Party Elites in Divided Societies Kris Deschouwer, Kurt Richard Luther, 2004-01-14. Working from the basis of Arend Lijphart's 1968 work on divided societies, the authors go on to look at such cultures and subcultures thirty years on, bringing in new evidence and analysis to bear on the issue. They also examine the essential role of party politics within and between these, drawing comparisons with a number of countries from Belgium to Israel.

Austro-corporatism Gunter Bischof, 2020-03-10. Corporatism was unpopular in the Europe of the past decade. During a time of neo conservative resurgence in both the United States and the United Kingdom, macroeconomic steering and statist centralism and regulation were in disfavor. However, Austria's unique Sozialpartnerschaft, its famed system of tripartite informal and formal labor, business and state cooperation, continued to prosper. In spite of such powerful Anglo American trends, Austro Corporatism is the fourth volume in the interdisciplinary Contemporary Austrian Studies series. This effort in particular reflects the uniqueness of Austrian corporatism and looks at its deep historical roots from a comparative continental European perspective. The contributors include specialists on Austria from all parts of the world, making this a truly international effort. Andrei Markovits provides the larger European context for this analysis of Austrian corporatism. Emmerich Talos and Bernhard Kittel review the historical development of Austrian corporatism going back to its nineteenth century roots. Randall Kindley studies the institutional framework of Austrian corporatism, particularly its post World War II reincarnation. Hans Seidel looks at the subject from a neo Keynesian economic perspective, and Ferdinand Karlhofer at the chances of its survival in a changing international environment. Jonathan Petropoulos presents a fascinating biographical study of Nazi art plunderer Kajetan Mühlmann, and David McIntosh compares Eisenhower's policy vis à vis the small friendly countries of Lebanon, Costa Rica and Austria. A special forum looks at the model character and appeal of tripartite Austrian cooperation among its new eastern democratic neighbors, the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Hungary and Slovenia. A number of reviews of Austrian politics in 1994 complete the volume. Austro Corporatism will be of intense interest to foreign policy analysts, historians and scholars concerned with the unique elements
