The Politics of Multiple Belonging Flemming Christiansen, Ulf Hedetoft, 2004 This international collection examines how ethnic identity and belonging are created and used politically in Europe and East Asia The contributors respond to debates about whether and how regional supranational transnational and multicultural identities may compromise nation states and how nation states deal with such centrifugal forces The issues are discussed from various perspectives diasporic communities the State and its role in inventing and influencing national belonging and societies and communities with a strongly engineered multicultural structure Two central theoretical chapters examine the current debates on belonging and multiculturalism bringing together this complex field and developing new perspectives In particular the volume improves our understanding of how people belong in different contexts by examining how they give shape to belonging it is possible to understand how these diverse trends cohere within nation states and across continents

The Situated Politics of Belonging Nira Yuval-Davis, Kalpana Kannabiran, Ulrike Vieten, 2006-08-10 Offers a collection of essays examining the racialized and gendered effects of contemporary politics of belonging This work is useful to scholars working in the areas of multiculturalism globalisation and culture race and ethnic studies gender studies and studies of post partition societies

The Politics of Belonging Nira Yuval-Davis, 2011-11-04 This is an in depth examination of a slippery and contradictory subject Knowledge alone is not enough for this type of project It takes breaking out of narrow conceptual cages and unsettling what we think of as stable meanings The author brings all of this to life in often unforgettable ways Saskia Sassen Professor Columbia University National identities were once taken largely for granted in social science Now they are part of an even more complex politics of belonging that challenges both public affairs and the categories of social science Nira Yuval Davis offers a nuanced account that will be important for scholars and all those concerned with contemporary politics Craig Calhoun Director LSE This is a cutting edge investigation of the challenging debates around belonging and the politics of belonging Alongside the hegemonic forms of citizenship and nationalism which have tended to dominate our recent political and social history Nira Yuval Davis examines alternative contemporary political projects of belonging constructed around the notions of religion cosmopolitanism and the feminist ethics of care The book also explores the effects of globalization mass migration the rise of both fundamentalist and human rights movements on such politics of belonging as well as some of its racialized and gendered dimensions A special space is given to the various feminist political movements that have been engaged as part of or in resistance to the political projects of belonging Yuval Davis deconstructs notions of national and ethnic and interrogates the effects that different political projects of belonging have on members of these collectivities who are differentially located socially economically and politically

Bondage of Boundaries and Identity Politics in Postcolonial Africa Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Sabelo J., Mhlanga, Brilliant, 2013-10-20 What has confounded African efforts to create cohesive prosperous and just states in postcolonial Africa What has been the long term impact of the Berlin Conference of

1884 5 on African unity and African statehood Why is postcolonial Africa haunted by various ethno national conflicts Is secession and irredentism the solution Can we talk of ethno futures for Africa These are the kinds of fundamental questions that this important book addresses Sabelo J Ndlovu Gatsheni and Brilliant Mhlenga s book introduces the metaphor of the northern problem to dramatise the fact that there is no major African postcolonial state that does not enclose within its borders a disgruntled minority that is complaining of marginalization domination and suppression The irony is that in 1963 at the formation of the OAU postcolonial African leaders embraced the boundaries arbitrarily drawn by European colonialists and institutionalised the principle of inviolability of boundaries thereby contributing to the problem of ethno national conflicts The successful struggle for independence of the Eritrean people and the secession of South Sudan in 2011 have encouraged other dominated and marginalised groups throughout Africa to view secession as an option Ndlovu Gatsheni and Mhlenga successfully assembled competent African scholars to deal exhaustively with various empirical cases of ethno national conflicts throughout the African continent as well as engaging with such pertinent issues as Pan Africanism as a panacea to these problems This important book delves deeper into complex issues of space languages conflict security nation building war on terror secession migration citizenship militias liberation violence and Pan Africanism
