Politics For The People:

Politics for People Forrest David Mathews, 1999 This volume points out that many Americans making no secret of their anger at being shut out of the political system are looking for ways to take that system back Because of their low opinion of politics as usual the author contends that some people are trying to create a politics relevant to their everyday lives He describes how people become politically engaged how they build civic communities and how they generate political energy or public will He argues that political discussion is the doorway into politics and he makes a case for infusing partisan debate with more public dialog He then explains what a democratic citizenry must do if representative government is to perform effectively and he shows how officials might work with and not just for the public The author integrates an examination of the dilemma of inaccessible politics with practical examples of ways in which ordinary citizens can manage influence and even capture the future of their own communities
