questions for the next generation of researchers and readers interested in Africa With Love & Fury Judith Wright, 2006
 This wide range of letters reminds us of Judith Wright's deep engagement with life, her love of the world and of friends and the fine fury that led her to battle so courageously on the world's behalf Romances, 1984 Cheering for Self James S. Vass Jr., 2003-05-13 This book is a study of UW men's basketball fans during the 2001-2002 season and explores their proclivity to cheering for self during basketball events. The term basketball event is used rather than basketball game to make clear that everything connected to and seen, heard or experienced before, during and after a basketball game is included. The actual game itself is only part of the basketball event. An undercurrent runs throughout this participant observation mini ethnography dealing with access and the relative quality of that access to basketball events being affected by one's age, class, race and gender. The prominent role of advertising in shaping basketball events and helping to construct fans as consumers of products both commercial and institutional during the process of cheering for self is central to this idea. Cheering for self is the activity engaged in by individual fans after they find things to identify or connect with through personal investment. Fans cheer for self indirectly. Fans cheer for the team that they identify with. Through the process of cheering for self while attending the basketball event, people are taught how to become fans, to consume a UW product, the basketball event and to consume advertisers' products. People have a tendency to spend their entire life trying to impress others. The Emotions Helena Wulff, 2024-11-01 Emotions are a loaded topic. From love and hate to grief, fear and envy, emotions are increasingly understood as driving forces in social life. The Emotions: A Cultural Reader applies a cross-cultural perspective on emotions. It examines the fact that emotions are socially and culturally constructed while highlighting problems of comparison and translation of local terms and emotional experiences. Are emotions cultural or universal? To what extent are there culturally distinct emotions? The Emotions closes the traditional Western gap where emotions are separated from rationality and thought, the heart versus mind debate. By presenting both classic essays and new cutting-edge chapters from anthropology, sociology and psychology with important contributions from philosophy and neuroscience, the volume connects a rich range of cross-cultural studies to form a thriving interdisciplinary debate on emotions. Sound of the Crowd: a Discography of the '80s (Fourth Edition) Steve Binnie, 2018-11-05 SOUND OF THE CROWD: A DISCOGRAPHY OF THE 80s is the ultimate record collector's guide to the 1980s. In the era of multi-formatting, picture discs, coloured vinyl, multiple remixes, funny shaped records and tiny CDs, you could lose down the back of the sofa, this book lists every format of every single, EP and album released in the UK in the 1980s by over 140 of the decade's biggest acts from ABBA to Paul Young. This fourth edition has been fully revised and expanded to include even more acts than ever before, with additional sections to cover Band Aid style charity congregations and compilation albums from the early 80s K-Tel efforts through to the Now That's What I Call Music series and its competitors. Compiled by Steve Binnie, editor of the 80s music website Sound of the Crowd and writer, producer and co-host of the unconventional 80s chart show Off The Chart broadcast weekly on Mad Wasp Radio.

Quest for Love in Central Morocco Laura Menin, 2024-04-15 Following the 2011 wave of revolutions and protests in North Africa and the Middle East new discussions of individual freedoms emerged in the Moroccan public sphere and human rights discourse A segment of the public rallied around the removal of an article in the penal code that punished sexual relationships outside of marriage As debates about personal and sexual freedom gain momentum love and intimacy remain complex issues Moving between public clandestine and online interactions Quest for Love in Central Morocco explores the creative ways young women navigate desire and morality Menin's ethnography focuses on young women living in the low income and lower middle class neighborhoods of a mid-sized town in Central Morocco far from the overt influence of city life At the heart of the book Menin draws upon ideas of love as an ethnographic object and source of theoretical examination She demonstrates that love as a complex cultural and historical phenomenon shaped through intersecting socioeconomic and political developments is crucial in thinking through generational changes and debates in Morocco and the Middle East more broadly What is at stake in the quest for love she argues is not only the making of gendered selves and intimate relationships but also the imagination of social and political life

For Love of the Prophet Noah Salomon, 2016-10-25 For some the idea of an Islamic state serves to fulfill aspirations for cultural sovereignty and new forms of ethical political practice For others it violates the proper domains of both religion and politics Yet while there has been much discussion of the idea and ideals of the Islamic state its possibilities and impossibilities surprisingly little has been written about how this political formation is lived For Love of the Prophet looks at the Republic of Sudan's twenty-five year experiment with Islamic statehood Focusing not on state institutions but rather on the daily life that goes on in their shadows Noah Salomon's careful ethnography examines the lasting effects of state Islamization on Sudanese society through a study of the individuals and organizations working in its midst Salomon investigates Sudan at a crucial moment in its history balanced between unity and partition secular and religious politics peace and war when those who desired an Islamic state were rethinking the political form under which they had lived for nearly a generation Countering the dominant discourse Salomon depicts contemporary Islamic politics not as a response to secularism and Westernization but as a node in a much longer conversation within Islamic thought augmented and reappropriated as state projects of Islamic reform became objects of debate and controversy Among the first books to delve into the making of the modern Islamic state For Love of the Prophet reveals both novel political ideals and new articulations of Islam as it is rethought through the lens of the nation
