The Politics of Multiculturalism in the New Europe Tariq Modood, Pnina Werbner, 1997-08 On multiculturalism

Multiculturalism, Religion and Women M. Macey, 2009-09-02 This book is the first sociological and feminist critique of multicultural theory and practice Using empirical research it answers the question is multiculturalism bad for women arguing that it is not only bad for minority ethnic women but for minority and majority communities and for society as a whole

Multicultural Politics Tariq Modood, 2005 Examines the modern problem of religious identity and cultural racism

Whither Multiculturalism? Barbara Saunders, David Haljan, 2003 The attempt to make democratic processes more inclusive has led to the problematic notion of multiculturalism It is based on a new principle that all voices should be heard and equal respect has become the irreducible core of the liberal state However mere dialogue is not enough First it tends to privilege those who are already privileged To change this needs active exploratory listening that is allowed to challenge everyone's picture of the world Second since the tensions and ambiguities are here to stay practical ways to cope and negotiate have to be found although it's not at all clear what is involved The contributors to this volume explore both dimensions and in particular point to what it means when the language game of dialogicality meets its limit However as they point out the limits are not absolute but can be the entry to more complex language games The authors in this volume from Canada the Netherlands Belgium and Britain bring a vast repertoire of resources and interpretative frames to bear on the task of opening up what might be understood by the political ethical aesthetic notion of multiculturalism In these contributions one can hear a plea for an enhanced conception of democratic dialogue for the need to embrace different ontological aesthetic moral assumptions and for an ethics and politics which are more generous and receptive

Globalization of Racism Donaldo Macedo, Panayota Gounari, 2015-11-17 Addressing ethnic cleansing culture wars human sufferings terrorism immigration and intensified xenophobia The Globalization of Racism explains why it is vital that we gain a nuanced understanding of how ideology underlies all social cultural and political discourse and racist actions The book looks at recent developments in France Germany Greece Ireland Israel Italy Portugal Spain and the United States and uses examples from the mass media popular culture and politics to address the challenges these and other countries face in their democratic institutions The eminent authors of this important book show how we can educate for critical citizenry in the ever increasing multicultural and multiracial world of the twenty first century Contributors are David Theo Goldberg Loic Wacquant Edward W Said Zygmunt Bauman Peter Mayo and Carmel Borg Anna Aluffi Pentini and Walter Lorenz Peter Gstettner Georgios Tsiakalos Franz Hamburger Julio Vargas Lena de Botton and Ramon Flecha Concetta Sirna Jan Fiola Joao Paraskeva Henry A Giroux It explores new forms of racism in the era of globalization

Regulation of Speech in Multicultural Societies Marcel Maussen, Ralph Grillo, 2017-10-02 This book focuses on the way in which public debate and legal practice intersect when it comes to the value of free speech and the need to regulate offensive blasphemous or hate speech especially though not exclusively where such speech is thought to be offensive to members of ethnic and religious minorities The themes addressed are of great significance for contemporary societies in many parts of the world including Europe and North America and although the volume focuses principally on the European context it also addresses the theme on an international level Contributions look at the transnational intertextuality of the debate as well as comparing approaches to regulation in different countries notably between the European Court of Human Rights and the United States Supreme Court This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies

Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2000 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes Contents Racial Attitudes Racism and Poverty Hate Groups Racial Justice Racism and Politics Race Discrimination Racial Identity Racism Around the World

Democracy in the European Union Alex Warleigh, 2003-04-21 This is a most welcome contribution to current discourses on democratising the European polity

Warleigh's thought provoking analysis by drawing from a rich spectrum of normative theorizing and empirical sources produces sharp insights and a valuable reference tool for anyone interested in the governance and polity of Europe. Dimitris N Chrysoschoou, University of Exeter. Warleigh's theoretically sophisticated and empirically rich inquisition of the nature and evolution of democratic reform in the European Union will be an important addition to the literature. This book is neither euro-sceptic nor EU friendly. It is a challenging call to all interested parties, citizens and scholars to take seriously the question of investing EU institutions and procedures with more than just a surface veneer of democracy. Jo Shaw, Professor of European Law, University of Manchester. This book comprehensively reviews one of the most salient ongoing debates at the heart of the European Union. EU today: democratic reform. It provides a thorough evaluation of how democracy might best be defined in the transnational context of the EU and explores the key strategies that have been deployed to enhance the Union's democracy from the Single European Act to the present day. In considering why the strategies have been unsuccessful, Alex Warleigh contends that the EU can only democratize itself by abandoning federalism and working towards a more participatory democracy based on flexibility and active European citizenship. The book therefore advances important new ways in which the EU's democratic deficit problems might be addressed more effectively than in the past. Marking a significant contribution to this key ongoing debate, Democracy in the European Union: Theory, Practice and Reform will be essential reading for all students, scholars and professionals seeking a deeper understanding of the nature of the EU and the reform challenges it faces into the twenty-first century.

The Novel and Europe Andrew Hammond, 2016-10-05. This book examines the ways in which fiction has addressed the continent since the Second World War. Drawing on novelists from Europe and elsewhere, the volume analyzes the literary response to seven dominant concerns: ideas of Europe, conflict, borders, empire, unification, migration and marginalization, offering a ground-breaking study of how modern and contemporary writers have participated in the European debate. The sixteen essays view the chosen writers not as representatives of national literatures but as participants in transcontinental discussion that has occurred across borders, cultures and languages. In doing so, the contributors raise questions about the forms of power operating across and radiating from Europe, challenging both the institutionalized divisions of the Cold War and the triumphalist narrative of continental unity currently being written in Brussels.

Critical Multiculturalism Stephen May, 2005-08-18 This book aims to bring together two movements multiculturalism and anti racism which though having aims in common have been at arms length in the past Differences of emphasis have meant that classroom practice has been the natural realm of multiculturalism while anti racism has been dissatisfied with an approach that accentuates life style at the expense of challenging or changing the racism that minority students experience In these debates there has been a concentration on culturally specific topics and this book goes beyond national boundaries to find how international concerns and contexts might provide answers to problems faced in single countries Leading figures in the USA Canada South Africa the UK and Australasia write on the issues
