Politics Of Social Work:

Practical Politics Maryann Mahaffey, John W. Hanks, National Association of Social Workers, 1982      Politics for Social Workers Stephen Pimpare, 2021-11-23 The social work profession calls on its members to strive for social justice It asks aspiring and practicing social workers to advocate for political change and take part in political action on behalf of marginalized people and groups Yet this macro goal is often left on the back burner as the day to day struggles of working directly with clients take precedence And while most social workers have firsthand knowledge of how public policy neglects or outright harms society s most vulnerable too few have training in the political processes that created these policies This book is a concise accessible guide to help social workers understand how politics and policy making really work and what they can do to help their clients and their communities Helping readers develop sustainable strategies at the micro meso and macro levels this book is a hands on manual to contemporary American politics showing social workers and social work students how to engage in effective activism Stephen Pimpare a political scientist with extensive experience as a social work practitioner and instructor offers informed practical grounding in the mechanics of policy making and the tools that activists and outsiders can use to take on an entrenched system He distills key research and insights from political science and related disciplines into a practical resource for social work students instructors and practitioners looking to deepen their policy knowledge and capacity to achieve change      The New Politics of Social Work Mel Gray, Stephen A.
