Laffaye,2009-09-12 Tracing the evolution of polo from its origins in Central Asia to its current manifestation as a professional sport that attracts wealthy sponsors and patrons this sociological study examines how polo has changed according to the economic and cultural differences of the nations and continents where it is played One hundred historic and modern photographs are included Life Changing Helen Pilcher,2020-02-06 SHORTLISTED FOR THE WAINWRIGHT PRIZE FOR WRITING ON GLOBAL CONSERVATION Pilcher is both very funny and very very clever Gillian Burke Richly entertaining throughout Sunday Times For the last three billion years or so life on Earth was shaped by natural forces Evolution tended to happen slowly with species crafted across millennia Then a few hundred thousand years ago along came a bolshie big brained bipedal primate we now call Homo sapiens and with that the Earth's natural history came to an abrupt end We are now living through the post natural phase where humans have become the leading force shaping evolution This thought provoking book considers the many ways that we've altered the DNA of living things and changed the fate of life on earth We have carved chihuahuas from wolves and fancy chickens from jungle fowl We've added spider genes to goats and coral genes to tropical fish It's possible to buy genetically modified pets eat genetically modified fish and watch cloned ponies thunder up and down the polo field Now as our global dominance grows our influence extends far beyond these species As we warm our world and radically reshape the biosphere we affect the evolution of all living things near and far from the emergence of novel hybrids such as the pizzly bear to the entirely new strains of animals and plants that are evolving at breakneck speed to cope with their altered environment

In Life Changing Helen introduces us to these post natural creations and talks to the scientists who create study and tend to them At a time when the future of so many species is uncertain we meet some of the conservationists seeking to steer evolution onto firmer footings with novel methods like the spermcopter coral IVF and plans to release wild elephants into Denmark Helen explores the changing relationship between humans and the natural world and reveals how with evidence based thinking humans can help life change for the better      Fodor's Argentina Laura M.
